Christian P. Scherrer

Crisis In Rwanda:

The Rwanda Crisis Gérard Prunier, 1998 Offering an up to date historical perspective which should enable readers to fathom how the brutal massacres of 800 000 Rwandese came to pass in 1994 this volume includes a new chapter that brings the analysis up to the end of 1996 Gerard Prunier probes into how the genocidal events in Rwanda were part of a deadly logic a plan that served central political and economic interests rather than a result of primordial tribal hatreds a notion often invoked by the media to dramatize genocide

The Path of a Genocide Howard Adelman, Astri Suhrke, The Great Lakes region of Africa has seen dramatic changes After a decade of war repression and genocide loosely allied regimes have replaced old style dictatorships The Path of a Genocide examines the decade 1986 97 that brackets the 1994 genocide in Rwanda This collection of essays is both a narrative of that event and a deep reexamination of the international role in addressing humanitarian issues and complex emergencies Nineteen donor countries and seventeen multilateral organizations international agencies and international nongovernmental organizations pooled their efforts for an in depth evaluation of the international response to the conflict in Rwanda Original studies were commissioned from scholars from Uganda Rwanda Zaire Ethiopia Norway Great Britain France Canada and the United States While each chapter in this volume focuses on one dimension of the Rwanda conflict together they tell the story of this unfolding genocide and the world s response The Path of a Genocide offers readers a perspective in sharp contrast to the tendency to treat a peace agreement as the end to conflict This is a detailed effort to make sense of the political crisis and genocide in Rwanda and the effects it had on its neighbors

Crisis in Rwanda Charles Freeman, 1998-09-01 Relates events in Rwanda after the murder of President Habyarimana including the genocide of the Tutsi the ill treatment of refugees and the eventual reconciliation

Charles Freeman, 1999 Relates events in Rwanda after the murder of President Habyarimana including the genocide of the Tutsi the ill treatment of refugees and the eventual reconciliation

The Rwanda Crisis, 1959-1994 Gérard Prunier, 1995 This text analyzes the events leading up to genocidal conflicts in Rwanda during 1994 and discusses the country s prospects in their aftermath In tracing the political machinations that preceded the genocide the author argues that there was a carefully orchestrated plan which set the killings in motion For Prunier therefore the Hutu Tutsi conflict was not the result of insatiable bloodlust and ancestral hatreds but an act of political mass murder Accordingly he delineates the leading political actors and explains their role in events of 1991 1994

Assessing the economywide impacts of COVID-19 on Rwanda's economy, agri-food system, and poverty: A social accounting matrix (SAM) multiplier approach Aragie, Emerta, Diao, Xinshen, Robinson, Sherman, Rosenbach, Gracie, Spielman, David J., Thurlow, James, 2021-05-17 Rwanda s policy response to COVID 19 has been widely praised for its rapid systematic and comprehensive approach to containing the pandemic Although the economic consequences are unavoidable the country expects to return its economy to its high growth trajectory as the pandemic subsides We use economic modeling tools designed to estimate the short term economywide impacts of the unanticipated rapid onset economic shocks of COVID 19 on Rwanda Results show that during the six week lockdown that began in March Rwanda's GDP fell 39.1 percent RWF 435 billion USD 484 million when compared to a no COVID situation in the same period Results further show that Rwanda's GDP in 2020 will be between 12 and 16 percent lower than a predicted no COVID GDP depending on the pace of the recovery The losses in annual GDP are between RWF 1.0 and 1.5 trillion USD 1.1 to 1.6 billion While GDP for the industrial and services sectors were estimated to have fallen during the lockdown period by 57 and 48 percent respectively exemptions of COVID 19 restrictions for the agricultural sector limited the decline in agricultural GDP to 7 percent compared to a noCOVID situation During the lockdown period the national poverty rate is estimated to have increased by 10.9 percentage points as 1.3 million people mostly in rural areas fell into temporary poverty Poverty rates are expected to stabilize by the end of 2020 increasing only by between 0.4 and 1.1 percentage points While these figures may be encouraging they mask the impacts on poor households of the sharp poverty spike during the lockdown and the inherent complexity of poverty dynamics post lockdown Looking forward the speed and success of Rwanda's recovery will depend critically on the expansion of Rwanda's social protection programs boosting enterprises of all sizes support to the agri food system and restoration of international trade

When Victims Become Killers Mahmood Mamdani, 2002-09 Rejecting easy explanations of the genocide as a mysterious evil force that was bizarrely unleashed one of Africa's best known intellectuals situates the tragedy in its proper context He coaxes to the surface the historical geographical and political forces that made it possible for so many Hutu to turn so brutally on their neighbors He finds answers in the nature of political identities generated during colonialism in the failures of the nationalist revolution to transcend these identities and in regional demographic and political currents that reach well beyond Rwanda In so doing Mahmood Mamdani broadens understanding of citizenship and political identity in postcolonial Africa Mamdani's analysis provides a foundation for future studies of the massacre His answers point a way out of crisis a direction for reforming political identity in central Africa and preventing future tragedies

Resumé de l'auteur Who Must Die in Rwanda's Genocide? Kyrsten Sinema, 2015-09-11 This book provides a juridical sociopolitical history of the evolution of the 1994 Rwandan genocide Over one million citizens were massacred in less than 100 days via a highly organized efficiently executed genocide throughout the tiny country of Rwanda While genocide is not a unique phenomenon in modern times a genocide like Rwanda's is unique Unlike most genocides wherein a government plans and executes mass murder of a targeted portion of its population asking merely that the majority population look the other way or at most provide no harbor to the targeted population ex Germany the Rwandan government relied heavily on the civilian population to not only politically support but actively engage in the acts of genocide committed over the 100 days throughout the spring of 1994 This book seeks to understand why and how the Rwandan genocide occurred It analyzes the colonial roots of modern Rwandan government and the development of the political state of exception created in Rwanda that ultimately allowed the sovereign to dehumanize the minority Tutsi population and execute the most efficient genocide in modern history      Genocide and Crisis in Central Africa Christian P. Scherrer, 2001-11-30 Scherrer examines the ethnicized conflicts periodic war and genocide in Rwanda and Burundi The 1994 genocide in Rwanda may have resulted in the murder of a million Tutsi and moderate Hutu while the mass killings in Burundi especially in 1993 when some 200 000 Hutu and Tutsi were killed and the current ongoing war in the Congo appear to have the potential to escalate into another round of genocide in the region Scherrer explores the background to the conflicts in the Great Lakes Region as well as what the international community might do to break this tragic cycle of violence and despair Following a chapter on the history of the region before independence in 1960 61 he examines the 1994 genocide in Rwanda and the subsequent attempts to promote justice reconstruction human rights work and genocide prevention Scherrer pays particular attention to the role of the Western powers the UN and the aid system and he is critical of all of these institutions He also analyzes what is happening in neighboring Burundi and the Congo An important research for scholars and policymakers involved with Central African affairs and ethnicized conflict      From Genocide to Continental War Gérard Prunier, 2009 process In From Genocide to Continental War Gerard Prunier describes in precise and chilling detail this massive yet little known conflict which became known as Africa s First World War It became a litmus test for the fragile state of the continent as Africans were struggling to usher in a new era as the twentieth century drew to a close Book Jacket      The Crisis in Rwanda David C. Henderson, 1996      Stopping Mass Killings in Africa Douglas Carl Peifer, 2008 From the back cover This is a compendium of case studies that seeks to describe the best uses of military power particularly airpower in response to a genocide The writers examine recent instances of genocide in Somalia Rwanda and Cote d Ivoire to draw out useful generalizations concerning the nature of genocide international reactions to genocide and effective responses to genocide and the possibility of genocide      The Crisis in Rwanda United States. Congress. House. Committee on Foreign Affairs. Subcommittee on Africa, 1993 Distributed to some depository libraries in microfiche      Agricultural Outlook , 1994      Threat to the Peace Inger Österdahl, 1998      British Media and the Rwandan Genocide John Nathaniel Clarke, 2017-09-14 Throughout the 1990s humanitarian interventionism sat at a crossroads where ideas about rights and duties within and beyond borders collided with an international reality of civil conflict where the most basic human rights were violated in the most brutal manner This growing awareness of humanitarian crises has been enabled by a more globalized media which increasingly shapes public perceptions of distant crises public opinion and political decision making Clarke examines the extent to which the public discourse and particular concepts including those of an ethical and legal nature influenced British newspaper coverage of the 1994 crisis in Rwanda and in turn the extent to which that coverage influenced the British Parliament s response to the crisis Through his development and application of a broader methodological approach that combines both quantitative and qualitative analyses the book offers a fuller understanding of the relationship between media coverage parliamentary debate and policy formulation and the central role that the globalized media plays in this process Integrating ethics law and empirical analysis of the media to obtain a more cohesive understanding of the chemistry of the media public policy nexus this work will be of interest to graduates and scholars in a range of areas including Genocide Studies the Responsibility to Protect the Media Politics and International Relations EQUITY IN COVID-19 Anika Altaf,Dzodzi Tsikata,Gertrude Dzifa Torvikey,Marleen Dekker,2024-09-25 This Open Access edited volume presents twelve African case studies that systematically reconstruct document and analyse how national governments and other stakeholders took equity into account in their initial policy responses to the COVID 19 pandemic At the onset of the pandemic many African governments acted quickly to suppress the virus through various public health measures including lockdowns mobilizing healthcare resources and designing responses to support the economy and the population There were however significant variations in the severity and type of measures taken as well as their accessibility and impacts Equity was not a given and therefore important questions have been raised about who benefitted and who were left unprotected from the interventions particularly those designed to protect income and basic services The book based on a variety of empirical data and disciplinary perspectives of research teams from across the continent examines the inclusivity of mitigation and policy responses It situates these findings on short term interventions and impact in debates about the longer term implications of the COVID 19 pandemic on the development of the African continent and proposes new directions for policy research and practice in responses and interventions during crises

The Path of a Genocide Howard Adelman,Astri Suhrke,1999 Kakwenzire and Dixon Kamukama World Disasters Report ,1996 The News Media, Civil War, and Humanitarian Action Larry Minear,Colin Scott,Thomas George Weiss,1996 This brief volume looks at institutional interactions between the news media both print and electronic on the one hand and government policymakers and humanitarian agencies on the other Case studies from Liberia northern Iraq Somalia the former Yugoslavia Haiti and Rwanda distill some of the experiences gained from calamities that have elicited widely varying coverage and responses Acknowledging that the three sets of actors have differing agendas limitations and constituencies the book nevertheless identifies a common interest in improving the quality of interactions for the benefit of victims from About the book
