Searching for community Brent, Jeremy,2009-05-13 At a time when politicians place increasing importance on the role of community in overcoming social problems Searching for community asks the vital question what is community anyway Is it an answer to social problems or an illusion to be dismissed This insightful book is written from the perspective of the late Jeremy Brent s thirty year involvement as a youth worker in Southmead a housing estate in Bristol and a place where discourses of community run strong Searching for community presents a variety of perspectives to challenge the ways in which areas of poverty and disrepute are represented It examines ways to understand and engage with the troublesome concept of community vividly describing the collective actions of young people and adults to show the way community is enacted as a combination of dreams actions and materiality Providing a unique mix of practical knowledge and a sophisticated analysis of popular professional and theoretical ideas of community Searching for community makes uneasy reading for those looking for simplistic solutions to issues including youth crime social marginalisation and community empowerment This accessible book is a must read for students and practitioners in the fields of community development sociology and youth work who wish to get beyond the rhetoric and engage with the complexities of discourses of community

Critical Textwork Ian Parker,1999 Methodological issues of reading and representation are explored in critical descriptions of how we might read such things as advertising bodies comics film letters organizations sign languages and other language systems The book illustrates ways in which discourse may be studied wherever there is meaning and it accessibly introduces the principles of discourse research to conversations interviews newspaper articles and fiction providing an overview of existing research on these kinds of texts BOOK JACKET Social Constructionist Psychology David Nightingale,John Cromby,1999-09-16 How can ideas about the social construction of reality be reconciled with the material and embodied aspects of our being In what ways can a realist framework inform social constructionist research What are the limits of social constructionism This accessible text draws together for the first time a wide range of emerging issues ideas and discussions in constructionist psychology It shows how these issues are relevant to everyday life using carefully chosen examples to illustrate its arguments and provides a coherent and challenging introduction to the field The book explores the growing conviction that dominant discursive trends in social constructionism which deal with the analysis of language and discourse to the exclusion of the material world embodiment personal social history and power are inadequate or incomplete and risk preventing social constructionism from maturing into a viable and coherent body of theory method and practice In highlighting what are seen as deficiencies in current constructionist approaches it inevitably takes a somewhat critical stance However the contributing authors are committed to a constructionist analysis of the human condition into which they seek to reintegrate the material and embodied aspects of our nature As a result the completion of social constructionism is brought a step closer and its continued importance is underlined Doing Your Qualitative Psychology Project Cath

Sullivan,Stephen Gibson,Sarah Riley,2023-11-29 Embarking on your own psychology research This book equips you with the skills you need to complete a qualitative project confidently The book takes you through the process of doing your project showing how to plan and execute each stage It helps you make good decisions about key steps such as choosing a research topic designing your project doing ethical research and writing up This second edition Offers a host of learning features including in a nutshell summaries further reading activities and top tips to help you develop your understanding and skills Devotes more space to the important topics of project planning and doing ethical research with a new chapter on each Enables you to critically evaluate your work helping you conduct high quality research Discusses student success stories and cautionary tales illustrating from start to finish how qualitative projects are done in the real world This is the perfect guide for undergraduates doing a final project or dissertation and postgraduates who are relatively new to qualitative research

Positioning Identities Hazel K Platzer,2017-07-12 How do lesbians and gays negotiate their sexual identities in mental health care contexts How do they manage the institutional homophobia and heterosexism embedded in health care practice and practitioners Using interpretive phenomenology Hazel Platzer overturns limiting dualisms to describe the ways in which lesbians and gays are silenced and pathologized in their mental health care encounters how they resist and how their resistance can restrict access to care She highlights the difficulties of researching a sensitive topic with a relatively hidden population and devises innovative techniques for handling bias and a multi methods approach to the phenomenological study of experience and identities She then offers proactive steps toward creating a health care environment in which lesbian and gay identities are normalized improving both access to and quality of health care The Gender of Psychology Tamara Shefer, Floretta Boonzaier, Peace Kiguwa, 2006 Psychology as a discipline has been criticised for perpetuating sexism reproducing gender inequality and neglecting marginalised perspectives Black Skins, Black Masks Shirley Anne Tate, 2017-07-05 Black Skin Black Masks Hybridity Dialogism Performativity offers a timely exploration of Black identity and its negotiation The book draws on empirical work recording everyday conversations between Black women friends peers and family members The conversations recorded in the book reveal the ways in which women negotiate the category of Blackness in what Tate calls a hybridity of the everyday Embodiment Valerie Walkerdine, 2002 Psychology. Sielkunde, 2006 Psychology in Society, 2005 Contemporary Religious Movements in Taiwan Kai-Ti Chou, 2007 Presents a study of the recruitment strategies and conversion rhetoric in contemporary religious movements focusing primarily on two movements in Taiwan Tzu Chi and Falun Gong This work demonstrates that an examination of such rhetoric has the potential to provide genuine insights into how a given religion gains adherents Crossroads of Language, Interaction, and Culture, 2002 Words Matter in Policy and Planning Margo van den Brink, Tamara Metze, 2006 Contents 1 Qualitative Psychology Jonathan A Smith, 2003-04-02 Covering all of the main qualitative approaches now used in psychology this book offers a step by step guide to carrying out research using each method with plenty of pedagogical advice Sex and the Body Annie Potts, Nicola Gavey, Ann Weatherall, 2004 Sex and the body presents an exciting showcase of original work by feminist scholars from Aotearoa New Zealand Zones of Proletarian Development Mastaneh Shah-Shuja, 2008 The author attempts to theorize the anti capitalist movement from a neo Vygotskian perspective using Marx Vygotsky Bakhtin and Activity Theory Revolution in Psychology Ian Parker, 2007-06-20 Leading psychologist argues we need to revolutionise the discipline
