Critical Turn The Rhetoric And Philosophy In Postmodern Discourse:

The Critical Turn Ian H. Angus, Lenore Langsdorf, 1993 Concerned with criticizing representational theories of knowledge by developing alternative concepts of knowing and communicating Ian Angus and Lenore Langsdorf bring together eight essays that are united by a common theme the convergence of philosophy and rhetoric In the first chapter Angus and Langsdorf illustrate the centrality of critical reasoning to the nature of questioning itself arguing that human inquiry has entered a new situation where the convictions and orientations that have traditionally marked the separation of rhetoric and philosophy the concern for truth and the focus on persuasion have begun to converge on a new space that can be defined through the central term discourse In these essays this convergence of rhetoric and philosophy is addressed as it presents itself to a variety of interests that transcend the traditional boundaries of these fields The two editors Raymie E McKerrow Michael J Hyde and Craig R Smith James W Hikins and Kenneth S Zagacki Calvin O Schrag and David James Miller and Richard L Lanigan map this new space recognizing that such mapping simultaneously constitutes the territory mapped Rhetorical Criticism Jim A. Kuypers, 2009-07-16 Covering a broad range of rhetorical perspectives Rhetorical Criticism Perspectives in Action presents a thorough accessible and well grounded introduction to rhetorical criticism Throughout the text sample essays written by noted experts provide students with models for writing their own criticism In addition to covering traditional modes of rhetorical criticism the volume presents less commonly discussed rhetorical perspectives for example close textual analysis mythic criticism framing analysis ideographic criticism concept oriented criticism and critical rhetoric exposing student to a wide range of material Featuring nineteen chapters all written by leading rhetoric scholars the volume offers the most comprehensive introduction to rhetorical criticism available Features The chapters are written by a nationally recognized scholar in that area giving students the best and most current research for each perspective Each chapter includes an original sample essay that gives students a model of rhetorical criticism for their own assignments Each author comments on his or her writing process to demonstrate the personal nature of criticism This unique emphasis allows students to appreciate that writing criticism is not a simple formulaic process Every chapter features a Potentials and Pitfalls section that highlights the strengths and weaknesses of the rhetorical perspective being discussed Challenging Theory:

Discipline After Deconstruction Catherine Burgass, 2019-01-04 First published in 1999 this volume perceives that English literature is under threat as an academic discipline In Challenging Theory Catherine Burgass warns against the recent trend towards the conflation of literature teaching with cultural studies in British and American universities Focusing on theory of deconstruction as developed by Jacques Derrida in the 1960s the book redresses some common misinterpretations of Derrida's work relating to the status of metaphysical oppositions Part One discusses textual differences and the ways in which these may dissolve and reform according to different cultural contexts The practical issues associated with teaching literature and literary theory in universities are examined in Part Two while Part Three highlights some of the move invidious claims of literary theorists and questions the value of metaphysical analysis as a tool for political critique

Challenging Theory tackles an important debate that lies at the heart of humanities teaching It illuminates the impact on academia of the work of critical theorists over the last thirty years and provides a platform for future reassessment of the relationships between literature philosophy and theory     Encyclopedia of Communication Theory Stephen W. Littlejohn, Karen A. Foss, 2009-08-18 With more than 300 entries these two volumes provide a one stop source for a comprehensive overview of communication theory offering current descriptions of theories as well as the background issues and concepts that comprise these theories This is the first resource to summarize in one place the diversity of theory in the communication field Key Themes Applications and Contexts Critical Orientations Cultural Orientations Cybernetic and Systems Orientations Feminist Orientations Group and Organizational Concepts Information Media and Communication Technology International and Global Concepts Interpersonal Concepts Non Western Orientations Paradigms Traditions and Schools Philosophical Orientations Psycho Cognitive Orientations Rhetorical Orientations Semiotic Linguistic and Discursive Orientations Social Interactional Orientations Theory Metatheory Methodology and Inquiry     The Art of Rhetorical Criticism Jim A. Kuypers, 2005 Covering a broader range of rhetorical perspectives The Art of Rhetorical Criticism presents a thorough accessible introduction to rhetorical criticism Throughout the text sample essays written by experts in the field provide students with models for writing their own criticism In addition to covering traditional modes of rhetorical criticism The Art of Rhetorical Criticism presents less commonly discussed rhetorical perspectives for example mythic criticism framing analysis and ideographical criticism exposing students to a broad range of material Features Each chapter and sample essay is written by a nationally recognized scholar in that field ensuring that students are offered the best and most current research for each perspective Each author comments on his or her writing process to demonstrate the very personal nature of criticism With this unique emphasis students will begin to appreciate that writing criticism is an artistic process and not a simple formula The Potentials and Pitfalls feature in each chapter highlights the strengths and weaknesses pros and cons of the rhetorical perspective being discussed Each chapter includes a short accessible sample essay written specifically with the student audience in mind offering students a model of rhetorical criticism for their own assignments

Challenging Theory Catherine Burgess, 1999 The author addresses the influence of poststructuralism on literary studies studies in Britain and America focusing on the theory of deconstruction as developed by Jacques Derrida The book redresses common misinterpretations and assesses arguments for the collapse of disciplinary boundaries     Essays in the Study of Scientific Discourse John T. Battalio, 1998-07-20 With contributions by sixteen scholars from such diverse fields as communication linguistics literary studies rhetoric and sociology of sciences Essays in the Study of Scientific Discourse continues the contemporary discussion about the origin and nature of scientific discourse and its function in today's society Essays document the increasing importance of rhetorical expertise in scientific discourse shed new light into the history and language of science and offer pedagogical guidance for teachers of scientific writing Readers may also discover new topics for scholarly research in scientific discourse Gay and Ted Gragson for instance show how technological advances may increase the rhetorical complexity of the grant proposal process while J Harrison Carpenter reveals the rhetorical power of the scientific report In a related study Cynthia Haller shows how scientific claims change as they move from the scientific to the public arena Dwight Atkinson gives empiricists a new methodology by integrating rhetorical analysis with sociolinguistic methodology Richard Johnson Sheehan and Dan Ding describe the evolution of scientific metaphor and passive voice respectively Ram n Plo Alastru Carmen Ram n Plo Alastru Llantada and Rosemary Horowitz offer advice for teachers of scientific writing while Steven Darian explores the intricacies and argumentative power of scientific classification schemas In turn Philippa Benson gives editorial advice to writers of scientific texts Gender issues in scientific writing are addressed by Christine Skolnik and Mary Rosner Trevor Pinch and Charles Alan Taylor put the cold fusion controversy of 1989 in critical perspective Yale Journal of Law & the Humanities ,1997 Argumentation and Advocacy ,2006 Perspectives on Philosophy of Communication Pat Arneson,2007 Perspective on Philosophy of Communication provides readers with an appreciation of philosophy of communication as central to understanding and guiding communicative action in a postmodern culture Each chapter provides readers with an understanding of the perspective of a well recognized philosopher s and addresses how his/her work creatively informs current problems and issues in human communication This work provides an opportunity for readers to engage the interpretive creative and ultimately pragmatic spirit of selected philosophers who open the possibilities of communicative content in different ways Communication Activism Lawrence R. Frey,Kevin M. Carragee,2007 These two texts showcase how scholars have engaged in communication activism to assist individuals groups organizations and communities to secure social reform Volume 2 focuses on research studies that show how media can be managed to promote social change and how performance can serve as an important form of communication activism Together these two volumes demonstrate the significant effects that communication scholars working from many different theoretical and methodological traditions can have on promoting social change especially for those who are most marginalized when they engage in communication activism The Legal Studies Forum ,1993 Rhetoric in the War on Drugs William N. Elwood,1994-06-14 While much has been written on illicit drug use policy and drugs relationship to crime this study examines the drug war as most Americans have experienced it through mass mediated rhetoric presidential drug war declarations news stories and hype public service announcements and the like Such rhetoric influences public opinion about illegal drugs drug users presidents and the drug war itself And according to this author such rhetoric is also used as a public relations campaign designed to increase the popularity of government officials and to assure quiescence regarding particular policy programs This study demonstrates the underestimated influence of rhetoric political uses of public relations and the powerful influence they have on public opinion and the policy process Professional Ethics ,2003

Neotestamentica ,1999 Vols for 1967 1968 1971 1983 constitute Proceedings of the meeting of Die Nuwe Testamentiese Werkgemeenskap van Suid Afrika     Postmodern Studies ,2006     South African Journal of Philosophy ,1994     The Collaborative Bibliography of Women in Philosophy Noël Hutchings,1997     Perspectives on Habermas Lewis Edwin Hahn,2000 This collection of writings by eminent philosophers explores the controversial career of Jurgen Habermas whose adherence to the Enlightenment ideals of rationality humanism and respect for discourse has set him apart from most postmodernist thinkers     Martin Heidegger (II) Joan Nordquist,1996 A bibliography of books and articles by and about Martin Heidegger
