Critical Issues In Curriculum:

Critical Issues in Curriculum, 19?? Critical Issues in Curriculum Kenneth J. Rehg, National Society for the Study of Education, 1988 Critical Issues in Curriculum Series [provisional], 20?? Critical Issues in Curriculum National Society for the Study of Education. Yearbook Committee, 1988 Critical Issues in Democratic Schooling Kenneth Teitelbaum, 2020-04-28 Focusing on a wide range of critical issues this book provides a comprehensive analysis of the linkage of different educational ideas policies and practices to a commitment for democratic schooling Informed by significant interdisciplinary research as well as by his own extensive professional experiences as a teacher professor department chair and dean Teitelbaum examines contemporary concerns related to three broad areas 1 teaching and teacher education 2 curriculum studies and 3 multiculturalism and social justice His approach is to integrate the current and the historical the practical and the theoretical the technical and the socio political and the personal and the structural With this volume Teitelbaum considers how schools should be organized and funded what they should teach and to whom the role that teachers students and parents should play in school life and the need and prospects for schools and teacher education programs that foster meaningful learning critical reflection and social justice Critical Issues in South African Education Charl C. Wolhuter, 2020-12-31 The main thesis of this book is that given that South African education faces major challenges the BRICS Brazil Russia India China and South Africa constellation of states offers thus far overlooked a valuable tertium comparationis a source of international comparative perspectives to inform the domestic scholarly discourse on education This book first investigates the national contexts and development of education in the BRICS countries arguing that this grouping represents a valuable but yet overlooked field for illuminating South African education issues with international perspectives The book consists of chapters arguing for and illustrating this thesis from a variety of angles Common to all chapters is that authors used the comparative method in education that is comparing the national education system in their education societal context interrelationships of the BRICS countries The chapters focus on a number of critical issues in South African education including the language of learning and teaching issue the alignment of the world of education with the world of work early childhood education and the development of world class universities Regarding the last for example China has been the terrain of the most intensive national projects of establishing world class universities with Project 985 Project 211 and the Double First Class University project The chapters demonstrate what South Africa in approaching her education issues can learn from the experience of the BRICS countries Critical Issues in Education Eugene F. Provenzo, 2006-04-06 Publisher description Critical Issues in Education Jack L. Nelson, Stuart B. Palonsky, Mary Rose McCarthy, 2020-08-12 Critical Issues in Education examines three questions that are at the core of the education debate in the United States What interests should schools serve What knowledge should schools teach How do we develop the human environment of schools When answering these queries the authors advocate the use of critical thinking which includes dialogue and dialectic reasoning Dynamic and interactive dialogue requires listening and assessment while dialectic stimulates the development of a creative response that encompasses both sides of an issue When applied these approaches engender an informative and stimulating discussion In order to explore the depth of current educational issues the Ninth Edition considers 15 topics providing supporting evidence and reasoning for two divergent views These issues include violence in schools the role of technology gender equity multiculturalism inclusion and disability and school choice Both civic and professional discussions regarding improvements will have consequences for students teachers and society As a result educational views and the social landscape in which they reside deserve critical study

Language Policies in Education James W. Tollefson, 2012-10-02 How do language policies in schools create inequalities among learners How do policies marginalize some students while granting privilege to others How do language policies in education serve the interests of dominant groups within societies How can linguistic minorities further their interests through attempts to change language policies in schools This new edition of Language Policies in Education takes a fresh look at these enduring questions at the heart of fundamental debates about the role of schools in society the links between education and employment and conflicts between linguistic minorities and mainstream populations Reflecting developments in language policy since the publication of the first edition in 2002 all chapters are original and substantial contributions to the study of language policy and exemplify major theories and research methods in the field Chapter authors are major scholars in language policy and critical language studies The case studies international in scope present cutting edge analyses of important language policy debates in countries around the world

Critical Issues in Education Jack L. Nelson, Stuart B. Palonsky, Kenneth Carlson, Mary Rose McCarthy (Ph. D.), 2004 Designed to be used in courses that examine relevant pro and con disputes about schools and schooling By exploring the major opposing viewpoints on the issues this text encourages education students to think critically and develop their own viewpoints It includes research and scholarship discussion suggestions and bibliographic references

Resources in Education, 1989

Accountability and Reading Instruction: Critical Issues Robert B. Ruddell, 1973

Critical Issues in Education Jack L. Nelson, Kenneth Carlson, Stuart B. Palonsky, 1993

Comprehensive coverage is offered in this work of 17 of the most hotly debated issues in education today Each chapter presents two alternative positions on a particular issue and end of chapter discussion questions aid in the critical thinking process

Contemporary Issues in Curriculum Allan C. Ornstein, Edward Pajak, Stacey B. Ornstein, 2011 Featuring 25% new content the fifth edition of Contemporary Issues in Curriculum addresses issues in implementation planning and evaluation of curriculum at all levels of learning Divided into six parts Philosophy Teaching Learning Instruction Supervision and Policy the new edition of this balanced yet eclectic text features ten new chapters written by notable authors including Larry Cuban Howard Gardner Andrew Hargreaves Linda Darling Hammond and Stanley Pogrow With each new chapter readers are asked to consider a new author's viewpoint, thought process and conclusions about significant and current curriculum issues from traditional and commonly accepted beliefs to more controversial and contemporary ideas. Through a variety of learning aids and discussion questions, readers are encouraged to analyze and debate these issues to formulate their own opinions and begin to shape their own original ideas about the future direction of curriculum. Focus Questions at the beginning of each chapter offer an advance organizer and encourage critical thinking. Discussion Questions at the end of each chapter encourage student analysis as well as opportunities for further thought and classroom dialogue. Case Studies at the end of each part initiate thoughtful discussion of how curriculum issues are played out in the in-service world. Pro-Con Chart features succinctly detail the argument and counterargument for the issue covered in each part, allowing readers to better understand the complexities. Curriculum Scholar Profiles at the beginning of each section highlight the achievements of six prominent leaders in the curriculum field.

Research In Physical Educ. & Sp Andrew Sparkes, 2012-10-12 The text aims to provide an in-depth exploration of a range of traditions that are beginning to reshape the nature of research in physical education and the sports sciences. The chapters are all original contributions by leading scholars that bring together new data from a variety of research approaches. Each offers its own specific challenge to the orthodoxy that has dominated the field. A range of traditions are considered by the contributors who provide specific examples from their own work that include phenomenology, ethnography, life histories, discourse analysis, feminist research, curriculum history and action research. These cases are highlighted for the reader, the basic assumption of each approach, the significance of the understanding they develop and their potential for the future development of research in physical education and sport. The forms of analysis provided should be of interest to a wider audience such as students of education and the social sciences. It is aimed at physical education researchers, BEd, MEd, BSc, MSc courses on physical education and sport and teachers of sports science.

Critical Issues in Special Education Audrey McCray Sorrells, Herbert J. Rieth, Paul T. Sindelar, 2004 This book represents the contributions of prominent researchers, teacher educators, policy makers, teachers and parents on current and emerging issues facing the field of special education and their critical thinking on how to ensure that students with disabilities receive free appropriate education in the least restrictive environment. The authors present divergent perspectives on the issues and concerns including: a) the emergence of more constructivistic instruction approaches that focus increasingly on higher order thinking; b) new organization structures for administering schools; c) standards based reform and the use of high stakes testing for evaluating students; d) the changing population and the increasingly diverse demographics of the students served in the public schools; e) the onset of the information age and the increasingly visible role of technology in the schools and the workplace; f) concerns about student discipline and violence in schools; g) the continuing shortage of qualified and certified special education teachers; and h) trends in higher education focused on the reform of teacher education such as changing standards for knowledge and skills, preparing teachers for changing roles as mentors and changes in the teacher education process that may have precipitated or influenced issues in the field For special education providers such as parents and teachers and for anyone interested in the field of special education Pushing the
