Twentieth Century Criticism William J. Handy, Max Westbrook, 1974      Criticism Charles Kaplan, 1972      Criticism Charles Kaplan, 1986      Criticism Charles Kaplan, William Anderson, 1999-09-05 This enduring anthology is the only one to encompass the historic sweep of literary criticism from Plato to the present in a compact and affordable format

Twentieth century criticism : the major statements William J. Handy,      The Epic in Film Constantine Santas, 2008 Constantine Santas encourages us to wonder why film critics have so routinely dismissed the epic film In The Epic in Film he argues that blockbuster and artistic are not mutually exclusive terms and perhaps more importantly epic film is an inherently profound genre in its ability to tap into a nation's and sometimes humanity's dreams and fears Why do we see dozens and dozens of films based on the King Arthur legend Why would a presidential hopeful borrow a phrase Read my lips from Clint Eastwood's Dirty Harry Why do war epics proliferate in times of war or national crisis Why are epics as a whole the most popular movie genre Start with an individual quest of some kind undertaken by an attractive hero or heroine add the weight of a nation and perhaps humanity into that character's struggle sprinkle some awe inspiring special effects and a general sense of largesse and don't forget the happy ending and there you have a recipe for a film that can contain the deepest emotions fear hope insecurity pride of a nation and sometimes a world Whether you love Gone with the Wind and hate Troy find Akira Kurosawa's films brilliant or marvel over the depth of the Matrix trilogy film buffs will want to read this first book length treatment of the epic a wildly popular infinitely fascinating and critically underappreciated genre      The Epic Films of David Lean Constantine Santas, 2012 In this volume David Lean's now undervalued epics The Bridge on the River Kwai Lawrence of Arabia Doctor Zhivago Ryan's Daughter and A Passage to India are restored to the elevated esteem they once held      Beyond the Corporate University Henry A. Giroux, Kostas Myrsiades, 2001 Prominent scholars in this book move boldly beyond critique to show how and why the critical functions of a democratically informed civic education not merely professional training must become the core of the university's mission They show why higher education must address what it means to relate knowledge to public life and social responsibility to the demands of critical citizenship Moreover they show why democratic forms of education and various elements of a critical pedagogy are vital not only to individual students but also to our economy and our democratic institutions and future leadership Visit our website for sample chapters
