Text by Peter Selz Public Education Association of the City of New York, Peter Selz, 1966 Peter Selz Paul J. Karlstrom, 2012-01-02 This absorbing biography often conveyed through Peter Selz's own words traces the journey of a Jewish German immigrant from Hitler's Munich to the United States and on to an important career as a pioneer historian of modern art Paul J Karlstrom illuminates key historical and cultural events of the twentieth century as he describes Selz's extraordinary career from Chicago's Institute of Design New Bauhaus to New York's Museum of Modern Art during the transformative 1960s and as founding director of the University Art Museum at UC Berkeley Karlstrom sheds light on the controversial viewpoints that at times isolated Selz from his colleagues but nonetheless affirmed his conviction that significant art was always an expression of deep human experience The book also links Selz's long life story featuring close relationships with such major art figures as Mark Rothko Dore Ashton Willem de Kooning Sam Francis and Christo with his personal commitment to political engagement Unstill Life Gabrielle Selz, 2014-05-05 Weaving her family narrative into the larger story of twentieth century art and culture Selz paints a portrait of her charismatic father the chief curator of painting and sculpture at the Museum of Modern Art and director of his own art museum in California the generation of modern artists he championed and the daughter whose life he shaped Dust jacket flap Cross Currents, 1991 Cubism Emily Braun, Rebecca A.
