Foster, 1994 Teacher/mentor Peg Graham, 1999 Focuses on teaching techniques and dilemmas related to teaching secondary English programs identifying key issues from the perspectives of university supervisors teacher candidates and cooperating teachers A Handbook of English for High School Teachers of the Hearing Impaired Dori Ann Broudy, 1998

Teaching Grammar in Context Constance Weaver, 1996 Weaver extends her philosophy by offering teachers a rationale and practical ideas for teaching grammar not in isolation but in the context of writing English Journal, 1996

The Blue Pages Regie Routman, 1994 Grade level 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 k p e i s t Language Study in Middle School, High School, and Beyond John S. Simmons, Lawrence Baines, 1998 Contains ten essays in which various authors explore the debate over language study discussing the study of language through literature and the arts and writing and speaking language use in different academic settings and emerging trends in language study Handbook of Research on Teacher Education John P. Sikula, Association of Teacher Educators, 1996 The first edition of this text sought to provide a basis for improving the education of teachers at every level Committed to the idea that the betterment of teacher education is essential to the improvement of schools it provided understanding of the research so that professionals could compare evaluate and create effective programmes Invitations Regie Routman, 1994 Encouragement support and specifics on putting whole language theory into practice things that today s educators need Invitations offers all of them and Routman invites all teachers to reflect upon their teaching She provides specific strategies for the daily management and educational issues that teachers struggle with in their efforts to make teaching more relevant for their students and themselves

Technology, Reading, and Language Arts Jerry Willis, Elizabeth C. Stephens, Kathryn I. Matthew, 1996 Technology Reading and Language Arts explores ways in which preservice and inservice teachers can integrate technology into their reading instruction It is organized around the dominant approaches to literacy instruction links theory to practice in meaningful ways and covers types of software and electronic resources and their use in the classroom rather than describing hundreds of different programs This book embraces a solid conceptual framework to reading instruction and will be of particular interest to instructors who prefer constructivist whole language and language experience approaches to teaching reading However direct instruction approaches are also covered in two chapters Affirming Middle Grades Education W. Gregory Gerrick, Carl W. Walley, 1999 This contributed book explores the unique environment of the middle school in relation to early adolescents In addition to differentiating between the middle school and the junior high the book discusses the environment from organizational social emotional moral and community dimensions This book is divided into three sections Part 1 examines the adolescent and the nature of the middle school Part 2 discusses benefits of this particular organization for middle schools and Part 3 offers practical suggestions for daily classroom instruction For pre service and in service educators of middle schoolers Young Adult Literature Lois T. Stover,1996 This book is designed to help middle school teachers develop concept based transdisciplinary units that reflect what we know about the importance of students working together to construct knowledge and the value of putting young adult literature at the center of such a planning process Promoting Literacy in Grades 4-9 Karen D. Wood,Thomas S. Dickinson,2000 A reference for pre service and inservice classroom teachers who want to develop and maintain literacy skills and abilities of their students as well as establish and maintain classroom climates that promote and nurture literacy Attention Must be Paid Deborah Jean Kinder,1996 Early Childhood Literacy Teachers in High Poverty Schools Melissa Landa,2017-11-01 Much has been written about the failure of White American public school teachers to effectively teach low income children of color to read and write Scholars have offered numerous explanations for this failure including the reluctance of teacher preparation programs to address cultural competence and the lack of cultural diversity among teacher educators In response to reported failures such as high attrition rates of novice teachers and low test scores American public schools are being subjected to increased standardization of the curriculum and high stakes testing This book provides rich illustrations of White early literacy teachers who choose to remain in low income school communities where they effectively and passionately embrace their students families and communities Blending the teachers successful practices shown in in depth interviews excavating their identities and life experiences with theoretical frameworks about teaching and learning Early Childhood Literacy Teachers in High Poverty Schools A Study of Boundary Crossing discusses the responsibility of public educators to cross geographical economic and political divisions on behalf of their students and offers strategies for teacher educators to equip future teachers for these tasks
