

The new prompt gives me a much better answer:

Great, as a travel guide, I would recommend starting your museum tour with the Prado Museum. It is one of the most famous and renowned museums in Madrid, and it is located at Calle de Felipe IV, s/n, 28014 Madrid, Spain. This museum has an extensive collection of European art, including works by famous artists such as Velázquez, Goya, and Rubens.

Another museum nearby that you may also want to visit is the Reina Sofia Museum. It is located at Calle de Santa Isabel, 52, 28012 Madrid, Spain. This museum has a collection of modern art, including works by famous Spanish artists such as Salvador Dalí, Joan Miró, and Pablo Picasso.

You can also visit the Thyssen-Bornemisza Museum, it's located at Calle de Serrano, 13, 28001 Madrid, Spain. This museum has a wide collection of art from various periods and styles, including works by famous artists such as Monet, Van Gogh, and Renoir.

Finally, if you're interested in learning about the history of Madrid, you can visit the Museum of the City of Madrid, located at Calle de Felipe V, 3, 28014 Madrid, Spain. This museum has exhibits that cover the history of Madrid from its earliest days to the present.

All these Museums are near to each other and you can visit them on foot. Enjoy your museum tour in Madrid!

Guiding students through their university applications can be a fulfilling but daunting task. How do you know you are successfully empowering your students to make informed decisions that could potentially alter the course of their lives? Where do you go for training and advice? What does a successful programme look like and how can you improve what you already do? This groundbreaking practical guide is the first dedicated teacher manual for developing, structuring and improving your approach to post-18 choices. Drawing on years of experience working with students, it provides all the tools needed to hit the ground running. Taking you step by step through the application process from an educator's perspective, it offers practical advice and real-world examples on advising students when writing their UCAS personal statements, writing university references, application systems for UK, US and international universities, the role of AI in university applications, solutions to fit whatever the size, staff experience or financial constraints you're working with. Packed with guidance that can be implemented immediately, this book is a blueprint for improving successful outcomes for your students.
