Discourse On Gender Gendered Discourse In The Middle East:

Discourse on Gender/Gendered Discourse in the Middle East Boaz Shoshan, 2000-09-30 In this book Shoshan asserts that in contemporary Middle Eastern countries the field of struggle that cultures constitute provides the ground for contesting and transforming the hegemonic patriarchal discourse and recently began to give voice especially in women's literature to feminist critique Examining the gender issue as reflected in a variety of discourses that take place in contemporary Middle Eastern cultures the contributors explore how feminine images are constructed in tradition bound societies and in the context of nationalist projects Both Islamic societies in Middle Eastern countries and the Jewish society in Israel are addressed in the discussion of the role of women's writing and other means of expression in challenging traditional patriarchal concepts including nationalism While the conclusion about the manipulation that patriarchal discourse performs on women's images supports the available scholarship the emphasis in this volume on the specific expressions of feminine discourse will be a welcome addition to the existing literature The essays in volume range from a discussion of the poetic strategies used to reconcile the roles of women to the shifts in the image of the Turkish woman as expressed in popular historical writing Some of the essays examine the rituals that gather women together as well as the maternal role women play in the national religious community Combining the two usually separately discussed cultural notions of discourse and gender this unique collection of articles addresses them in their various forms in both Islamic societies and the State of Israel

entrepreneurship for women and business scholarship on the Middle East has grown there is no text in English that has brought critical insights from the Middle East together in a single volume In examining women s entrepreneurship in the Middle East this book aims to challenge Global North assumptions about the disempowering impacts of Islamic Shari a and governance Referring to the constraints of Islam on women s subjectivity and agency greatly misunderstands religious identity of both men and women and the way in which public administration and private sector institutions are organized in very different ways to Western regions This timely text expands and adds new insights to the theorizations of women s entrepreneurship in the Middle East through unravelling spatialized themes and incorporates contemporary themes including an Islamic science reading of women work and venturing changing families and entrepreneurship development women managing social crises Islamization governance and women Islamic feminist activisms and entrepreneurship representations of women s entrepreneurship on social media and women s collectives leading entrepreneurship via Facebook entrepreneurship It will be of interest to researchers academics and students in the fields of entrepreneurship gender work and organizations Arab Studies Journal ,2005 Journal of South Asian and Middle Eastern Studies ,2002 Gender and Communication at Work Mary Barrett, Marilyn J. women around the world Israeli Feminist Scholarship Esther Fuchs, 2014-07 The last two decades have given rise to a proliferation of scholarship by Israeli feminists working in diverse fields ranging from sociology to literature anthropology and history As the Israeli feminist movement continually decentralizes and diversifies it has become less Eurocentric and heterocentric making way for pluralistic concerns Collecting fifteen previously published essays that give voice to this diversity Israeli Feminist Scholarship showcases articles on Ashkenazi Mizrahi Palestinian and lesbian identities as well as on Israeli women's roles as mothers citizens and activists and soldiers Citing evidence that these scholars have redefined their object of inquiry as an open site of contested and constructed identity luminary Esther Fuchs traces the history of Israeli feminism Among the essays are Jewish historian Margalit Shilo's study of the New Hebrew Woman sociologist Ronit Lentin's analysis of gendered representations of the Holocaust in Israeli culture peace activist Erella Shadmi on lesbianism as a nonissue in Israel and cultural critic Nitza Berkovitch's examination of womanhood as constructed in Israeli legal discourse Creating a space for a critical examination of the relationship between disparate yet analogous discourses within feminism and Zionism this anthology reclaims the mobilizing inclusive role of these multifaceted discourses beyond the postmodern paradigm Speaking as Women Leaders Judith Baxter, Haleema Al A'ali, 2016-09-20 This book offers new insights on how senior business women in Middle Eastern and Western companies use language for effective leadership in their respective management meetings The book explores six case studies of women leaders three in UK companies and three in a Bahraini company The authors analyse meeting and transcript data to show that in both cultural contexts the women negotiate a range of gendered discourses such as hierarchy and status and masculinisation in order to manage their teams with authority and skill The book challenges received wisdom about the opportunities and constraints each cultural context offers women in public life While the UK women are constrained by chronic change and uncertainty in performing their roles effectively the Bahraini women are far better supported by their bosses yet are constrained by patriarchal assumptions of what constitutes effective leadership The book demonstrates the use of Feminist Poststructuralist Discourse Analysis FPDA which is applied by scholars worldwide yet has relatively few published models of practice Globalisation, Geopolitics, and Gender in Professional Communication Louise Mullany, Stephanie Schnurr, 2022-08-01 This edited collection investigates the linguistics of globalisation geopolitics and gender in workplace cultures in a range of different contemporary international settings The chapters examine how issues of globalisation gender and geopolitics affect professionals in different workplace contexts including domestic workers IT professionals teachers university staff engineers entrepreneurs CEOs of different corporates including locally based businesses as well as multinationals farmers co-operative leaders NGO leaders bloggers healthcare assistants and caregivers Taking different sociolinguistic approaches to exploring language and the geopolitics of gender at work in Dubai Kuwait Kenya Uganda Morocco Nigeria Malaysia Turkey Belgium Switzerland New Zealand Uganda the UK and the USA each chapter focuses on a range of salient geopolitical issues which often have global applicability but which may also be subject to more localised socio cultural variation The chapters critically discuss issues of gendered language perceptions and representations of workplace cultures discrimination the role of gendered stereotyping and deeply ingrained socio cultural myths about gender and the importance of examining the intersections of identity all of which continue to persist as barriers to equality and inclusion in workplaces worldwide Despite the variation and diversity in professions and geopolitical contexts captured across the chapters remarkably similar issues of gender discrimination and persisting inequalities are identified and critically discussed thus pointing to the global nature of these issues The Open Access version of this book available at www.taylorfrancis.com has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license

Israeli Family and Community Hannah Naveh, 2003 This volume of essays by prominent researchers in Israeli history and society is the second of two interconnected volumes engaging with the concept of women's time It brings a feminist gaze to a wide variety of fascinating issues facing contemporary Israeli society first by examining the private natural sphere of women's experience and then by addressing the interaction between the private and the national spheres as reflected in the media and in religious and military discourses Women's time involves resistance to self evident and often patriarchal truths and knowledge and by creating a model for the investigation of other obliterated narratives serves the well being of all in Israel and beyond Feminist Studies, 2000 Book Review Index, 2003 Vols 8-10 of the 1965-1984 master cumulation constitute a title index New Books on Women and Feminism, 2001
