Discovering Changing Role In Women:

Celebrating 100 Years of Female Fellowship of the Geological Society: Discovering Forgotten Histories C.V.

Burek,B.M. Higgs,2021-03-18 The Geological Society of London was founded in 1807 At the time membership was restricted to men many of whom became well known names in the history of the geological sciences On the 21 May 1919 the first female Fellows were elected to the Society 112 years after its formation This Special Publication celebrates the centenary of that important event In doing so it presents the often untold stories of pioneering women geoscientists from across the world who navigated male dominated academia and learned societies experienced the harsh realities of Siberian field exploration or responded to the strategic necessity of the petroleum girls in early American oil exploration and production It uncovers important female role models in the history of science and investigates why not all of these women received due recognition from their contemporaries and peers The work has identified a number of common issues that sometimes led to original work and personal achievements being lost or unacknowledged and as a consequence to histories being unwritten
