Discovering Islam Making Sense Of Muslim History:

Discovering Islam Akbar S. Ahmed, 2002-11 This accessible work balances the image of Islam as aggressive and fanatical with an objective picture of the main features of Muslim history and the compulsions of Muslim society Discovering Islam Akbar Salahudin Ahmed, 1988 Discovering Islam Akbar S. Ahmed, 1993 Discovering Islam : making sense of Muslim history and society Akbar S. Ahmad, 1988 Books-In-Brief: Studies in Islamic Civilization Ahmed Essa , Othman Ali , 2012-01-01 Studies in Islamic Civilization draws upon the works of Western scholars to make the case that without the tremendous contribution of the Muslim world there would have been no Renaissance in Europe For almost a thousand years Islam was arguably one of the leading civilizations of the world spanning a geographic area greater than any other It eliminated social distinctions between classes and races made clear that people should enjoy the bounties of the earth provided they did not ignore morals and ethics and rescued knowledge that would have been lost if not forever then at least for centuries The genius of its scholars triggered the intellectual tradition of Europe and for over seven hundred years its language Arabic was the international language of science Strange then that its legacy lies largely ignored and buried in time In the words of Aldous Huxley Great is truth but still greater from a practical point of view is silence about truth By simply not mentioning certain subjects propagandists have influenced opinion much more effectively than they could have by the most eloquent denunciations Studies in Islamic Civilization is a compelling attempt to redress this wrong and restore the historical truths of a golden age that ushered in the Islamic renaissance and as a by product that of the West American Journal of Islamic Social Sciences 5:1 Fazlur Rahmun, Ilyas Ba-Yunus, Lowy SZLf, Abdullahi Ibrahim, Abdulaziz Sachedina, M. Akram Khan, Muzafar A. Shaikh, The American Journal of Islamic Social Sciences AJISS established in 1984 is a quarterly double blind peer reviewed and interdisciplinary journal published by the International Institute of Islamic Thought IIIT and distributed worldwide The journal showcases a wide variety of scholarly research on all facets of Islam and the Muslim world including subjects such as anthropology history philosophy and metaphysics politics psychology religious law and traditional Islam You're History! Michelle P. Brown, Richard J. Kelly, 2005-12-20 This book arose out of a challenge The challenge was made by Bob Geldof to the British academic and historian Michelle Brown Pop singers raise huge sums of money for Band Aid and touch the hearts of people from all walks of life But to give money can be an easy way out How does the so called intelligentsia respond with their minds not just their hearts and pockets to the appalling disparities in the conditions of members of the human race This a challenge that a number of notable and gifted people have responded to enthusiastically They range from John Simpson and Martin Bell to Former President Mary Robinson and the noted US feminist intellectual Charlotte Bunch Other noted authors include Sir David Ramsbothom Ricardo Navarro Founder of the Friends of the Earth and Simon Counsell Director of The Rainforest Foundation Ultimately the purpose of this book is to make people think and connect wires to encourage them to question their own place within the world to acknowledge personal and collective responsibility and to discuss a range of situations and issues that have been changed by individuals. The book is also published to coincide with Britain's Presidency of the G8 and EU and their associated drive to focus on issues of global social justice through the newly established Commission for Africa.

Islamic Britain Philip Lewis, 2002-03-29 From the 1980s Britain's large Muslim community, a long established but little noticed group, suddenly became visible as controversies involving the education and dress of Muslim schoolgirls, the Rushdie affair and the Gulf War excited huge media interest. Caricatures and misconceptions began to spread and with political Islam on the march in many Middle Eastern countries, fears of British Muslims becoming a bridgehead in the West for the establishment of an Islamic theocracy began to loom in the popular imagination. How do British Muslims really think about themselves, about their religion and their politics? What dilemmas do they face as they give up the myth of return that sustained first generation immigrants and struggle to define a British Islam? In this important book, the first major study of British Muslims, Philip Lewis deals with the reality behind distorted media images through a rich first hand account of the Muslim community in Bradford, the city which became the epicentre of British Muslim anger and resistance to The Satanic Verses.
