Discrimination Without Violence Miscegenation And Racial Conflict In Latin America:

Discrimination Without Violence: Miscegenation and Racial Conflict in Latin America Mauricio Solaún, Sidney Kronus, 1973 Histories of Solitude A. Ricardo López-Pedrerros, Lina Britto, 2024-03-19 By combining chronological coverage analytical breadth and interdisciplinary approaches these two volumes Histories of Solitude and Histories of Perplexity study the histories of Colombia over the last two centuries as illustrations of the histories of democracy across the Americas The volumes bring together over 40 scholars based in Colombia the United States England and Canada working in various disciplines to discuss how a country that has been consistently presented as a rarity in Latin America provides critical examples to re examine major historical problems republicanism and liberalism export economies and agrarian modernization populism and cultural politics of state formation revolutionary and counterinsurgent Cold War violence neoliberal reforms and urban development popular mobilization and counterhegemonic public spheres political ecologies and environmental struggles and labors of memory and the challenge of reconciliation Contributors are sensitive to questions of subjectivity and discourse observant of ethnographic details and micro politics and attuned to macro perspectives such as transnational and global histories These volumes offer fresh perspectives on Colombia and will be of great value to those interested in Latin American and Caribbean history

Between Development and Destruction Kumar Rupesinghe, Paul Sciarone, Luc van de Goor, 2016-07-27 Much has already been written about the effects of the changes of the Cold War on conflict The ongoing disengagement of East and West from bipolar Cold War politics has resulted in an unstable international political situation which is characterized by regional conflicts Most analyses now concentrate on the consequences for Europe and the former communist Central and East European states This book however explores the effects for the Third World The contributors provide major theoretical analyses of the causes of conflict in developing countries Four main factors are distinguished the processes of state formation and nation building the rise or return of ethnicity and nationalism socio economic factors and the armaments conflict nexus The volume also provides in depth regional analyses as well as policy perspectives on the issue of conflict and development

Racism Albert J. Wheeler, 2000 Of all mankind's vices racism is one of the most pervasive and stubborn Success in overcoming racism has been achieved from time to time but victories have been limited thus far because mankind has focused on personal economic gain or power grabs ignoring generosity of the soul This bibliography brings together the literature providing access by subject groupings as well as author and subject indexes Contents Racial Attitudes Racism and Poverty Hate Groups Racial Justice Racism and Politics Race Discrimination Racial Identity Racism Around the World

Race Mixture in Nineteenth-Century U.S. and Spanish American Fictions Debra J. Rosenthal, 2005-10-12 Race mixture has played a formative role in the history of the Americas from the western expansion of the United States to the political consolidation of emerging nations in Latin America Debra J Rosenthal examines nineteenth century authors in the United States and Spanish America who struggled to give voice to these contemporary dilemmas about interracial sexual and cultural mixing Rosenthal argues that many literary representations of intimacy or sex took on political dimensions whether advocating assimilation or miscegenation or defending the status quo She also examines the degree to which novelists reacted to beliefs about skin differences blood taboos incest desire or inheritance laws Rosenthal discusses U S authors such as James Fenimore Cooper Catharine Maria Sedgwick Walt Whitman William Dean Howells and Lydia Maria Child as well as contemporary novelists from Cuba Peru and Ecuador such as Gertrudis Gomez de Avellaneda Clorinda Matto de Turner and Juan Leon Mera With her multinational approach Rosenthal explores the significance of racial hybridity to national and literary identity and participates in the wider scholarly effort to broaden critical discussions about America to include the Americas Race and Ethnic Relations in Latin America and the Caribbean Robert M.

Bergholt,2013-12-21 Visible Differences Dominic Pulera,2002-06-05 Race The mere mention of the R word is a surefire conversation stopper In this book about America s most divisive social issue Dominic J Pulera offers a compelling roadmap to our future This accessible and penetrating analysis is the first to include detailed coverage of America s five racial groups whites blacks Hispanics Asian Americans and Native Americans The author contends that race will matter to Americans during the twenty first century because of visible differences and that differences in physical appearance separating the races are the single most important factor shaping intergroup relations in conjunction with the social cultural economic and political ramifications that accompany them Pulera shows how why when and where race matters in the United States and who is affected by it He explains the ongoing demographic transition of America from a predominantly white country to one where nonwhites are increasingly numerous and consequently more visible The advent of a multiracial consciousness has tremendous implications for America s future because the racial significance of almost every part of the American experience is increasing as a result The author concludes on a note of cautious optimism as he explores whether the visible differences dividing Americans are reconcilable Blacks and Asians in America Hazel M. McFerson,2006 What images come to mind when the words Asians Asian Americans and African Americans are mentioned Do the images revolve around negative racial stereotypes of the various groups beginning with a portrait of African Americans as noncitizens and as discredited outlaws as noted by Nobel Prize Laureate Toni Morrison in her categorization of race talk Conversely when images of Asians are conjured is what comes to mind a picture of pig tailed Chinese immigrants along with recent Asian newcomers eager to maintain social distance from discredited black outlaws Do the images which the groups often carry of one another extend to their histories of shared diminished racial status and stereotyping recalling a period in history when a significant segment of African American men were mocked as George Sam and Rastus and Chinese immigrants were ridiculed as John How have these images shaped relations between the groups Are there elements of commonality between Blacks and Asians in America What historical forces have shaped their interactions This volume edited by Hazel M McFerson brings together a diverse group of scholars to address these questions Their chapters are as diverse as their backgrounds yet they all contribute without pessimism or naivete to a view of the varied interactions which symbolized the crossings commonality and conflict between Asians and African Americans during different periods and to their prospects for future interactions This book is divided into three parts Part I examines relations dating from the mid 18th century to the late 1940s Part II of the book examines contemporary issues and explores changes in Asian and Asian American communities and outlooks often characterized by race talk and social distance from African Americans Part III of the book focuses on the international dimension of Asian African American interactions and crossings The book concludes with an assessment of the implications for contemporary economic interests and solidarity in Africa and Asia today American Book Publishing Record,1977-03-31 Here s quick access to more than 490 000 titles published from 1970 to 1984 arranged in Dewey sequence with sections for Adult and Juvenile Fiction Author and Title indexes are included and a Subject Guide correlates primary subjects with Dewey and LC classification numbers These cumulative records are available in three separate sets The Black Image in Latin American Literature Richard L.
