Static and Evolutive Treaty Interpretation Christian Djeffal, 2016 How should international treaties be interpreted over time This book addresses what evolutive interpretation looks like in reality The Disciplines of Liberty Willard Learovd Sperry, 1921 Art History and Education Stephen Addiss, Mary Erickson, 1993 Guided by Stephen Addiss s grounding in art history scholarship and Mary Erickson's expertise in art education theory and practice this volume approaches the issue of teaching art history from theoretical and philosophical as well as practical and political standpoints In the first section Addiss raises issues about the discipline of art history In the second Erickson examines proposals about how art history can be incorporated into the general education of children and offers some curriculum guides and lesson Representing the Real Ruth Ronen, 2021-08-30 This study offers a new perspective on the object plans for art educators represented by art specifically by art that succeeds to create in its receiver a sense of the real a sense of approximating the true nature of the represented object that lies outside the artwork The object that cannot be accessed through a concept a meaning or a sign the thing in itself is generally rejected by philosophy as being outside the realm of its concerns This rejection is surveyed in a number of philosophical discussions from Kant to Hilary Putnam Turning to the psychoanalytic object an object inexhaustible in terms of its external existence or in terms of its conceptual status or meaning the object is always suppressed partly known inaccessible another notion of the object The Real is suggested as what can neither be contained in language nor reduced to a linguistic referent This solution does not lead away from philosophical interests but rather exposes this dilemma about the object of representation as fundamentally philosophical Cases of artistic realism discussed range from perspective painting to abstract art from tragedies to the literary representation of minds Interpretation Kent Greenawalt, 2011 This title focuses on textual interpretation of the law All law needs to be interpreted and there are many ways to do it Greenawalt covers the dominant methods of legal interpretation explaining their underlying structure and efficacy Outdoor Leadership Bruce Martin, Mary Breunig, Mark Wagstaff, Marni Goldenberg, 2024-04-29 Outdoor Leadership Third Edition guides students to master eight core competencies essential to outdoor and adventure leadership Learning activities and exercises will help students develop a professional portfolio and prepare to be successful leaders Grievance Administrator v. Deutch, 455 MICH 149 (1997) ,1997 102962 Intentionalist Interpretation William Irwin,1999-12-30 The tension between the roles of authorial intention and the text itself is a basic concern of contemporary hermeneutics Challenging much of the current thinking in the field this volume argues that the text itself in its various forms is an untenable criterion for correct interpretation and through compelling moral and epistemological arguments defends an intentionalist approach to interpretation After discussing the shortcomings of earlier intentionalist theories Irwin proposes a new normative approach urinterpretation which is based on an author construct the urauthor that includes several elements traditionally seen as separate from the author The book closes with a theoretical application of intentionalism to
