Vitanza, 2010-11-23 After the first issue of PRE TEXT appeared in 1981 a colleague told Victor Vitanza the creator editor and publisher of the journal how disgusted she was by it how unreadable it was how devoted to self aggrandizement and how much she enjoyed two articles in it Devoted to exploring and expanding the field of rhetoric and composition by publishing articles considered inappropriate by other journals in the field PRE TEXT has from its inception made people angry Yet it has survived and thrived This collection of essays pays tribute to the first ten years of the journal and each reprinted article is paired with a short comment by the author Also included is Victor Vitanza s retrospective history of the journal and prospectives for the future The Aims of Argument Timothy W. Crusius, Carolyn E. Channell, 2000 Theorizing Composition Mary Kennedy, 1998-06-25 The last 25 years have witnessed extraordinary growth in the academic specialization variously described as composition studies or rhetoric and composition What was noticeable about the field in its infancy was a preoccupation with practice a lack of emphasis on theory and an exclusive reliance on the writing process As its disciplinary status has grown the field has become far more theoretical Composition studies has expanded its focus reconceptualized the writing process and embraced a wide range of critical perspectives The result of this change is that terms such as poststructuralism social construction gender and genre which were largely unknown in 1965 now dominate discussion This reference book is a guide to the multiplicity of theories that have emerged to form the disciplinary foundation of composition studies The volume consists of 66 entries each of which is written by an expert contributor and focuses on a particular theory or group of theories While the entries show how various individuals have contributed to theoretical movements very few concentrate on the work of a single theorist Each entry first provides a critical summary of a particular theory or group of theories including key elements basic concepts and claims and information about seminal or particularly influential works It then reviews the theory s critical reception in composition studies and discusses its significance in the field The bibliography at the end of each entry lists primary texts and major scholarship related to the theory and provides additional suggestions for further reading The volume closes with a selected bibliography of important works Aims of Argument Timothy Crusius, Carolyn Channell, 2003 Provides an introduction to argumentation with coverage of the aims or purposes of argument to inquire to convince to persuade and to mediate This work focuses on aims to provide rhetorical context that helps students write as well as read arguments It reflects the format

McDonald, 1994-03 The Riverside Handbook Lynn Beene, Gerry McBroom, William J. Vande Kopple, 1992 The Ethics of Writing Instruction Michael Pemberton, 2000 The chapters in this volume recognize that different contexts sites and institutional goals will raise different sets of questions and judgements about what constitutes ethical writing instruction ethical response to written texts and ethical evaluation of a writers process and products They do not aim to resolve all the ethical questions that might arise in and about composition classrooms but they present a panoply of views arguments and perspectives on what it means to talk about ethics in the writing classroom and thereby encourage writing teachers to consider the ethical dimensions of their own instructional practices Acts of Enjoyment Thomas Joseph Rickert, 2007 A critique of current pedagogies that introduces a psychoanalytical approach in teaching composition and rhetoric Thomas Rickert builds upon the advances of cultural studies and its focus on societal trends and broadens this view by placing attention on the conscious and subconscious thought of the individual Winner 2007 JAC Gary A Olson Award
