Discourse And Social Change Unknown Binding:

Discourse and Social Change Norman Fairclough, 1993-06-07 Now available in paperback this book is a critical introduction to discourse analysis as it is practised in a variety of different disciplines today from linguistics and sociolinguistics to sociology and cultural studies The author shows how concern with the analysis of discourse can be combined in a systematic and fruitful way with an interest in broader problems of social analysis and social change Fairclough provides a concise and critical review of the methods and results of discourse analysis discussing the descriptive work of linguists and conversation analysts as well as the more historically and theoretically oriented work of Michel Foucault He develops an original framework for discourse analysis which firmly situates discourse in a broader context of social relations bringing together text analysis the analysis of processes of text production and interpretation and the social analysis of discourse events

Ubuntu and Buddhism in Higher Education David Robinson-Morris, 2018-10-26 Ubuntu and Buddhism in Higher Education theorizes the equal privileging of ontology and epistemology towards a balanced focus on being becoming and knowledge acquisition within the field of higher education In response to the shift in higher education's aims and purposes beginning in the latter half of the 20th century this book reconsiders higher education and Western subjectivity through southern African Ubuntu and Eastern Buddhist onto epistemologies By mapping these other than West ontological viewpoints onto the discourse surrounding higher education this volume presents a vision of colleges and universities as transformational institutions promoting our shared connection to the human and non human world and deepens our understanding of what it means to be a human being

Youth Activism in Environmental Politics, 2nd Edition Matt Henn, Sarah Pickard, 2023-02-02 Recently important new research has emerged to explain the large intergenerational cleavages in values and political preferences in many contemporary societies In most established democracies and many newer democracies young people are more likely to possess progressive values and are much more cosmopolitan in their outlook socially liberal accepting of cultural diversity and outward looking than older generations They tend to reject mainstream electoral politics and authoritarian nationalist forms of populism in favour of alternative progressive political parties and movements Indeed there is burgeoning evidence of a global tendency towards young people's support for and participation in new styles of non institutionalised political action that seem to better fit their life styles and to permit the actualisation of their political aspirations Although there is a considerable body of existing literature that examines the rise of such values and political participation preferences there is little work that focuses on the relationship with the prioritisation of environmental issues and environmental activism as evidenced in the September 2019 global climate strikes The goal of the current Research Topic is to explore the contemporary realities and patterns of youth participation in environmental politics in different societies As such we welcome manuscripts of original research and conceptualization that address the different practices of youth as they seek to effect environmental change and also their motivations for doing so Contributions are welcome from scholars youth practitioners and activists operating in a range of different settings and using diverse disciplinary and multidisciplinary and interdisciplinary perspectives Exploring Post-Development Aram Ziai,2007-05-07 Post development has been a major debate in the field of north south relations at the beginning of the twenty first century here contributors explore the limitations of this theory and practice using empirical studies of movements and communities globally Jane Eyre (Fourth International Student Edition) (Norton Critical Editions) Charlotte Brontë,2016-06-27 The Brontë's gifted biographer provides us with another superlative Norton Critical Edition of Charlotte Brontë's classic novel For the classroom and for the general reader there's no better way to experience the context in which Jane Eyre was written illuminating modern commentary and the novel itself in an authoritative text Fred Kaplan Queens College and The Graduate Center City University of New York This Norton Critical Edition includes The third edition text 1848 the last corrected by Charlotte Brontë accompanied by revised and expanded explanatory footnotes Contexts highlighting Jane Eyre as a bildungsroman through diary entries and letters by the author about her experiences as a student teacher and governess as well as her feelings about friendship love and writing Five major critical interpretations by Virginia Woolf Sandra M Gilbert and Susan Gubar Susan Meyer Carla Kaplan and Kelly A Marsh A Chronology and a Selected Bibliography Ecocriticism, Ecology, and the Cultures of Antiquity Christopher Schliephake,2016-12-07 Although current environmental debates lay the focus on the Industrial Revolution as a sociopolitical development that has led to the current environmental crisis many ecocritical projects have avoided historicizing their concepts or have been characterized by approaches that were either pre historic or post historic while the environmental movement has harbored the dream of restoring nature to a state untouched by human hands there is also the pessimistic vision of a post apocalyptic world exhausted by humanity's consumption of natural resources Against this background the decline of nature has become a narrative template quite common among the public environmental discourse and environmental scientists alike The volume revisits Antiquity as an epoch which witnessed similar environmental problems and came up with its own interpretations and solutions in dealing with them This decidedly historical perspective is not only supposed to fill in a blank in ecocritical discourse but also to question problematize and inform our contemporary debates with a completely different take on nature and humanity's place in the world Thereby a productive dialogue between contemporary ecocritical theories and the classical tradition is established that highlights similarities as well as differences This volume is the first book to bring ecocriticism and the classical tradition into a comprehensive dialogue It assembles recognized experts in the field and advanced scholars as well as young and aspiring ecocritics In order to ensure a dialogic exchange between the contributions the volume includes four response essays by established ecocritics which embed the sections within a larger theoretical and practical ecocritical framework and discuss the potential of including the pre modern world into our environmental debates The Creativity of Action Hans Joas,1996 Hans Joas is one of the foremost social theorists in Germany today Based on Joas s celebrated study of George Herbert Mead this work reevaluates the contribution of American pragmatism and European philosophical anthropology to theories of action in the social sciences Joas also establishes direct ties between Mead s work and approaches drawn from German traditions of philosophical anthropology Joas argues for adding a third model of action to the two predominant models of rational and normative action one that emphasizes the creative character of human action This model encompasses the other two allowing for a more comprehensive theory of action Joas elaborates some implications of his model for theories of social movements and social change and for the status of action theory in sociology in the face of competition from theories advanced by Luhmann and Habermas The problem of action is of crucial importance in both sociology and philosophy and this book already widely debated in Germany will add fresh impetus to the lively discussions current in the English speaking world The Search for Identity in the Narrative of Rosa Montero Vanessa Knights,1999 Rosa Montero is one of a group of women writers who came to prominence during the late 1970s and early 1980s a period often referred to as the boom of women s writing in Spain This study traces the socio historical conditions which led to the boom addresses the Spanish ambivalence towards the mother figure within the Spanish feminist movement and discusses the use of metafiction on the creation of life narrative for women Deals with the alternative figure of the spinster examines the fantastic as a mode of discourse and discusses the increasing focus on discourse with Montero s narrative The author teaches contemporary Hispanic literary and cultural studies at the University of Newcastle upon Tyne Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Linguistics and Language Behavior Abstracts ,1999 Transnational Crime and Policing James Sheptycki,2017-07-05 This collection of essays on transnational crime and policing covers a broad range of themes the relationship between global policing and the transnational state system the impact of advanced technologies on policing practice the changing morphology of occupational policing subculture and the transnational practices of police agencies The essays include case studies and are based on empirical fieldwork that began in the early 1990s and continued for over a decade well into the post 9 11 period This collection also provides valuable accounts of the secret social world of transnational police demonstrates that the developmental trajectory of transnational practices was already established prior to the age of Homeland Security and addresses the controversial issue of how transnational policing in all of its complex manifestations might be made politically accountable in the interests of the general global commonwealth Dominican Crossroads Christina Cecelia Davidson,2024-09-13 H C C Astwood minister and missionary diplomat and politician enigma in the annals of US history In Dominican Crossroads Christina Cecelia Davidson explores Astwood s extraordinary and complicated life and career Born in 1844 in the British Caribbean Astwood later moved to Reconstruction era New Orleans where he became a Republican activist and preacher in the African Methodist Episcopal AME Church In 1882 he became the first Black man named US consul to the Dominican Republic Davidson tracks the challenges that Astwood faced as a Black politician in an era of rampant racism and ongoing cross border debates over Black men s capacity for citizenship As a US representative and AME missionary Astwood epitomized Black masculine respectability But as Davidson shows Astwood became a duplicitous scheming figure who used deception and engaged in racist moral politics to command authority His methods Davidson demonstrates show a bleaker side of Black international politics and illustrate the varied contours of transnational moral discourse as people of all colors vied for power during the ongoing debate over Black rights in Santo Domingo and beyond
