Discourse Considerations Intranslating The Word Of God:

Discourse Considerations in Translating the Word of God Kathleen Callow, 1974 Communicating God's Word in a Complex World Daniel R. Shaw, Charles E. Van Engen, 2003-08-04 Communicating God's Word in a Complex World reaches out to the growing number of missionaries pastors Bible translators and teachers mission and theological educators and students dealing with communicating the gospel This is increasingly difficult in today's pluralist and global contexts What was God's message and how has spreading that message changed through the generations The answer to that question requires a hermeneutical process that seeks to understand the biblical text and the context in which it was originally presented R Daniel Shaw and Charles Van Engen say that contemporary proclaimers of God's word can model their approach after that of the writers of scripture who reinterpreted and restated their received texts for their audiences Thus Gospel communication is impacted by the way humans know God This in turn is informed by contexts Communicating God's Word in a Complex World draws lessons from the biblical authors themselves as a guide for how best to present God's message

Concepts of Conversion Lars Kirkhusmo Pharo, 2017-12-18 There has not been conducted much research in religious studies and linguistic anthropology analysing Protestant missionary linguistic translations Contemporary Protestant missionary linguists employ grammars dictionaries literacy campaigns and translations of the Bible in particular the New Testament in order to convert local cultures The North American institutions SIL and Wycliffe Bible Translators WBT are one of the greatest scientific evangelical missionary enterprises in the world The ultimate objective is to translate the Bible to every language The author has undertaken systematic research employing comparative linguistic methodology and field interviews for a history of ideas religions and epistemologies explication of translated SIL missionary linguistic New Testaments and its premeditated impact upon religions languages sociopolitical institutions and cultures In addition to taking into account the history of missionary linguistics in America and theological principles of SIL WBT the author has examined the intended cultural transformative effects of Bible translations upon cognitive and linguistic systems A theoretical analytic model of conversion and translation has been put forward for comparative research of religion ideology and knowledge systems

The Greek Verb Revisited Steven E. Runge, Christopher J. Fresch, 2016-11-02 For the past 25 years debate regarding the nature of tense and aspect in the Koine Greek verb has held New Testament studies at an impasse The Greek Verb Revisited examines recent developments from the field of linguistics which may dramatically shift the direction of this discussion Readers will find an accessible introduction to the foundational issues and more importantly they will discover a way forward through the debate Originally presented during a conference on the Greek verb supported by and held at Tyndale House and sponsored by the Faculty of Divinity of Cambridge University the papers included in this collection represent the culmination of scholarly collaboration The outcome is a practical and accessible overview of the Greek verb that moves beyond the current impasse by taking into account the latest scholarship from the fields of linguistics Classics and

New Testament studies Creation and Christ Angela Costley, 2020-11-09 The Epistle to the Hebrews is usually associated with its theology of Christ the High Priest However the term high priest is not so common in the first four chapters of Hebrews occurring only four times with a further reference to sacrifice in 1 3 Rather than emphasising the priestly or sacrificial activity of Christ these opening sections contain a number of references to creation 1 2 3 10 12 2 5 9 10 3 1 6 4 3 4 and 4 9 10 In this volume Angela Costley uses discourse analysis to explore the importance of the topic of creation to the discourse of the Epistle to the Hebrews uncovering a close link between creation and salvation She highlights the interaction of the topic of creation with the topic of salvation in the discourse to uncover a depiction of Christ as the creator who descends to take on human flesh God who becomes human in order to lead humanity heavenward Issues in Bible Translation Philip C. Stine, 1988 The purpose of this book is to demonstrate how discourse sociolinguistic and exegetical issues become integrated in the field of Bible translation Philip C Stine Editor Paperback viii 296 pages 5 5 8 x 8 1 4 inches
