Discovering Grampiansgariwerd:

Discovering Grampians-Gariwerd Alistair Paton, Bruce Paton, 2004 Grampians Gariwerd Grampians National Park in Western Victoria is a natural wonderland and a bushwalker's paradise with walks ranging from short easy strolls to strenuous hikes This essential guide helps you plan your visit and will enhance your enjoyment and appreciation of Grampians Gariwerd Australia's National Parks by Public Transport Mick Ogrizek, 2019-04-30 This book is a guide on how to visit some of Australia's national parks using only public transport be it by bus or train It contains details on how to visit 39 such parks across every State and Territory They are not necessarily the best national parks but those that are usually more accessible from major cities and towns National Parks preserve the best natural parts of Australia They showcase the best natural landscapes including the varying flora and fauna of Australia That's what makes national parks great and special places to visit The book is not a detailed or comprehensive guide to Australia's national parks It simply provides details on public transport access and points you to other resources to assist you when visiting parks such as maps track notes activities and available facilities The Grampians Gariwerd, 1991 Exploring Place in the Australian Landscape David S. Jones, 2022-08-30 This book offers an original framework on how to investigate understand and translate sense of place at a regional scale The book explores contemporary sense of place theory and practice drawing upon the Western District of Victoria in Australia being the Country of the White Cockatoo It offers a unique multi temporal and thematical analytical approach towards comprehending and mapping the values that underpin and determine strengths of human relationships and nuances to this landscape Included is a deep ethno ecological and cross cultural translation that takes the reader through both the Western understanding of sense of place as well as the Australian Aboriginal understanding of Country Both are different intellectual constructions of thoughts values and ideologies but which share numerous commonalities due to their archetypal meanings feelings and values transmitted to humans Of Marsupials and Men Alistair Paton, 2022-07-05 A rollicking history of Australia's amateur naturalists from settlement to the present A fascinating history of Australia's wildlife and the wilder men and women who shot studied and saved it Compelling and entertaining David Hunt Of Marsupials and Men recounts the fascinating and often hilarious history of the men and women who dedicated their lives to understanding Australia's native animals To the first European colonists Australian wildlife was bewildering Marsupials and gum trees seemed strange and hostile rabbits sheep and oak trees were familiar and safe A bustling animal trade soon developed in both directions foxes starlings and other reminders of home were unleashed on the Australian landscape while countless Australian animals found themselves in Europe as stuffed specimens or living curiosities in zoos and private collections Into this picture stepped a remarkable band of enthusiastic amateurs who were determined to get to know the fauna of the new colony Equal parts inspiring and outlandish over the next 150 years they would advance scientific understanding and transform public attitudes to Australian wildlife From the snake men who fearlessly thrust their arms into hollow logs just to see what might happen to the top secret plan to smuggle a platypus to Winston Churchill at the height of World War II these are their stories The First Wave Gillian Dooley, Danielle Clode, 2019-06-20 The European maritime explorers who first visited the bays and beaches of Australia brought with them diverse assumptions about the inhabitants of the country most of them based on sketchy or non-existent knowledge contemporary theories like the idea of the noble savage and an automatic belief in the superiority of European civilisation Mutual misunderstanding was almost universal whether it resulted in violence or apparently friendly transactions Written for a general audience The First Wave brings together a variety of contributions from thought provoking writers including both original research and creative work Our contributors explore the dynamics of these early encounters from Indigenous cosmological perspectives and European history of ideas from representations in art and literature to the role of animals food and fire in mediating first contact encounters and Indigenous agency in exploration and shipwrecks The First Wave includes poetry by Yankunytjatjara Aboriginal poet Ali Cobby Eckermann fiction by Miles Franklin award winning Noongar author Kim Scott and Danielle Clode and an account of the arrival of Christian missionaries in the Torres Strait Islands by Torres Strait political leader George Mye

UNCOVERING AUSTRALIA PB COLLEY S, 2002-12-17 Drawing deeply from years of intensive research and teaching Sarah Colley offers an accessible overview of the practice politics and ethics of archaeology today focusing on Australia to highlight and pose universal questions about the relationship between archaeologists indigenous people and the public Aboriginal Environmental Knowledge Catherine Laudine, 2016-09-17 Whilst there are popular ideas about which champion Aboriginal environmental knowledge many of these are based more on romantic notions than on any detailed understanding of what might be the content of this knowledge This book is based on a grounded and broad assessment of less well known details of Aboriginal knowledge and provides both a great deal of detail and a new assessment of rituals and practices Aboriginal environmental knowledge is examined here as an integrated source of both religious and scientific knowledge An important finding is that Aboriginal environmental knowledge also includes knowledge about education for attitudes considered appropriate for survival Though evidence for this is readily available in the literature it has not been part of current depictions of Aboriginal environmental knowledge Australia - Exploring Guides Fodor's, 2002-03-05 Fodor's Exploring Guides are the most up to date full color guidebooks available Covering destinations around the world these guides are loaded with photos essays on culture and history architecture and art itineraries walks and excursions descriptions of sights and practical information Fodor's Exploring Australia gives you great tips on dining and lodging for all budgets as well as tips on basics such as getting there and getting around and when to go and what to pack

Where to See Birds in Victoria Tim Dolby, Penny Johns, Sally Symonds, 2009 Where to See Birds in Victoria features the very best places in Victoria for seeing birds Despite being Australia's smallest mainland state its varied landscapes provide habitat for more than 500 bird species It is without question one of Australia's best kept birding secrets Compiled written and photographed by a dedicated team from Birds Australia Vic this guide features over 40 destinations throughout Victoria including such classic birding spots as Wyperfeld Hattah Kulkyne Little Desert Chiltern Mount Pilot Terrick Terrick the Grampians Croajingolong Geelong and the Bellarine Peninsula the Otway Ranges Wilsons Promontory and Mount Buffalo as well as many places in and around Melbourne and along the coast Where to See Birds in Victoria provides information on how to get to each destination what facilities and accommodation to expect and importantly precisely where to look for those special or rare birds The book also provides a comprehensive and up to date list of birds with the degree of rarity and where to see it noted for each species So for Victorians and visitors to the state the secret is out What better way to see some wonderful places and magnificent wildlife than by using Where to See Birds in Victoria as your guide Fodor's Exploring Australia Fodor's, Michael Ivory, 2007-05 Gives facts history and data on Australia and provides information on accommodations restaurants sights and walks and drives for Sydney New South Wales and Victoria Rock Art Research, 2005 APAIS 1992: Australian public affairs information service, Aboriginal Victorians Richard Broome, 2024-01-30 The story of how Victoria's First Nations people survived near decimation to become a vibrant community today This second edition has been fully updated and covers the Yoorrook Justice Commission and treaty negotiations Early Europeans saw Victoria and its rolling grasslands as Australia felix happy south land a prize left for them by God For its original inhabitants their Country was home and life not to be relinquished without a fierce struggle Richard Broome tells the story of the impact of European ideas guns killer microbes and a pastoral economy on the networks of kinship trade and cultures that the First Nations people of Victoria had developed over millennia He shows how families have coped with ongoing disruption and displacement and how individuals and groups have challenged the system With painful stories of personal loss as well as many successes Broome outlines how Aboriginal Victorians survived near decimation to become a vibrant community today Aboriginal Victorians won the NSW Premier's History Awards Australian History Prize and the Victorian Community History Awards Best Print Publication Award and was short listed for the Human Rights Awards Non Fiction Award This second edition has been updated throughout and covers the Yoorrook Justice Commission and treaty negotiations As an Aboriginal Victorian I am sincerely grateful that Richard Broome has produced a refreshed renewed and empirically rich historical study in this second edition We as a State indeed as a Nation must seriously approach truth telling and ponder the possibility of a treaty I can think of no better place to start than here in this book Professor Lynette Russell AM Monash Indigenous Studies Centre Richard Broome is to be congratulated for writing this history in a style that is easy to read very informative and brings the past to the present Jim Berg JP Gunditjmarra man founder and former director of the Koorie Heritage Trust One of the most important books written about our corner of the planet It stands alongside the great Victorian histories of Margaret Kiddle Geoffrey Serle and Graeme Davison Professor Janet McCalman in Meanjin This finely crafted and wonderfully compassionate book deepens our understanding of the history of colonialism Bain Attwood Professor of History Monash
