Generative AI in Education Ilaria Torre, Diego Zapata-Rivera, Chien-Sing Lee, Antonio Sarasa-Cabezuelo, Ioana Ghergulescu, Paul Libbrecht, 2024-12-24 In the field of education there is a growing interest in the use of Generative Artificial Intelligence to reshape the educational landscape Led by our esteemed Associate Editors Dr Zapata Rivera Prof Torre and Review Editors Profs Lee Sarasa Cabezuelo Libbrecht Dr Ghergulescu this editorial initiative aims to investigate the transformative potential of Generative AI in various aspects of education By leveraging machine learning models these intelligent systems extract useful insights from vast amounts of data making them capable of delivering highly individualized content They can analyze a learner's proficiency level learning style and pace and then tailor the study material accordingly Whether a learner prefers visual aids textual content or interactive modules Generative AI can adapt its content generation strategies to meet distinct preferences and learners needs This ensures an elevated engagement level and enhanced comprehension highlighting its potential to transform traditional teaching methodologies

Getting Skills Right Training Supply for the Green and AI Transitions Equipping Workers with the Right Skills OECD, 2024-12-11 Adult learning systems are being called upon to prepare workers for major labour market shifts including the green transition and the rise of artificial intelligence AI in the workplace While initial education is important upskilling and reskilling the existing workforce is essential to help individuals and businesses adapt and prepare for these transitions Policy makers face the challenge of ensuring training is both relevant and inclusive yet there is limited understanding of whether current training supply is sufficient to meet current and future skill needs Most research focuses on the demand for skills with little insight into the supply To fill this gap this report uses evidence from new OECD questionnaires and an analysis of training catalogues to evaluate whether current training supply aligns with the skills needed for the green and AI transitions It also provides insight into the accessibility and flexibility of training efforts to guide policy makers in their efforts to develop more effective inclusive training strategies

AI in Social Studies Education Christopher H. Clark, Cathryn van Kessel, 2025 The introduction of widely available generative AI tools has caused a frenzy of both positive and negative reactions Between utopian visions and apocalyptic predictions of AI's impact on education there is a need to thoughtfully consider what education in the age of AI can and should look like This volume focuses on the implications of AI technology for teachers in K 12 and university settings providing a careful look at its affordances and drawbacks for social studies curriculum and teaching Scholars specializing in the field of social studies education provide information and practical ideas for teaching with current technology alongside frameworks for thinking about future iterations of AI This book fills a critical need especially among educators to consider the current and potential future impacts of AI while avoiding the traps of alarmism or techno utopianism Whether skeptical or enthusiastic about AI every social studies educator will find something useful to their practice in this book Book Features First ever compilation of AI considerations and strategies in the context of social studies
