Smiling Through the Pain Karthika Ramachandran, 2025-09-02 From Normal to Unimaginable In a Fraction of a Second One moment I was living what most would call a normal life busy with everyday routines plans for tomorrow and the comfort of a predictable rhythm And then in a single moment everything changed I never imagined my life would take such a sharp turn A diagnosis A whirlwind of hospital visits Medications Fear And eventually the unimaginable a double lung transplant They say life can change in the blink of an eye Mine did I went from managing a household and chasing my dreams to fighting for every breath Everything I once took for granted walking without effort climbing stairs dancing sleeping peacefully suddenly became a struggle This book is my story It s about everything that happens before and after the transplant It s not just a medical journey but a deeply emotional and personal one It s about pain and strength fear and faith loss and rediscovery It s about learning to live again in a new body with new rules and a new perspective If you ve ever had your world turned upside down if you ve ever had to rebuild yourself from scratch or if you re walking through your own storm right now I hope this story reminds you that even after the hardest fall life can still bloom again This is not just about survival This is about transformation This is my second chance and here s how I found life again

When Tradition Meets Celebration My City Links,2025-06-02 Raja A rich amalgamation of tradition celebration and family connect Festivals and traditions have a way of rekindling memories tucked away between the folds of life experiences accumulated over the years Nothing illustrates this better than Raja the annual agrarian festival that is celebrated with great enthusiasm across Odisha Our Cover Story looks at the family bonding and emotions that the festival has traditionally been associated with We also reach out to Odias in other parts of the country and the world to get a sense of what Raja means to them In CityZen we zero in on a startup that is using technology particularly AI to ensure that quality healthcare is available in the rural areas Founder Priyadarshi Mohapatra opens up about his organisation s guiding principles and operational model in addition to plans of expansion into more underserved regions As the world prepares to mark the Pride Month in June City Lights brings you conversations with persons who identify as being part of the LGBTQIA community capturing myriad hues of struggles hopes and aspirations Operation Sindoor India s fierce response to the dastardly Pahalgam terror attack by Pakistan backed terrorists was marked by the use of armed drones for precision attacks Drones produced by a Bhubaneswar based company played a key role when it came to terrain mapping and target identification Founder Boddhisatwa Sanghapriya tells us more about it in City Tech A fast paced life particularly when it comes to working professionals in urban areas has led to a proliferation of quick delivery services for food and groceries as well as items of daily use Scratch beneath the surface however and one is exposed to the dark and troubled underbelly of these operations Read more about it in City Beat The run up to Raja invariably sees excitement build up as the Odia film industry lines up new releases for an eager audience ScreenShots brings you the lowdown on what to expect during the festive season CityFlix reviews Superboys of Malegaon a movie that is as much about celebrating films as it is about saluting the indomitable spirit of those involved in making them It is in fact an inspiring if somewhat poignant take on life itself As our reviewer puts it It s about the courage to dream even if the dream is stitched together with tape wire and undying hope Elsewhere in the edition City Literature explores the work of Japanese playwright Toshikazu Kawaguchi while City Tales continues with the series on temple tanks in Bhubaneswar
