Fundamentals of Innovative Sustainable Homes Design and Construction Avi

Friedman,2023-06-26 This book offers ideas and practices on contemporary design concepts and illustrates them with plans and photographs of outstanding examples Current planning and design modes of dwellings and neighborhoods are facing challenges of philosophy and form Past approaches no longer sustain new demands and require innovative thinking The need for a new outlook is propelled by fundamental changes that touch upon environmental economic and social aspects The depletion of non renewable natural resources and climate change are a few of the environmental challenges Increasing costs of material labor land and infrastructure have posed economic challenges with affordability being paramount among them Social challenges are also drawing the attention of designers builders and homeowners Walkable communities aging in place and multigenerational living are some of the concepts considered In addition live work environments have become part of the economic reality for those who wish to work from home which has become possible through digital advances The text would be of interest to scholars working in architecture urban planning and construction

Modern Architecture and an International Sensibility Naina Gupta,2025-05-30 Modern Architecture and an International Sensibility A Curious Cross Atlantic Constellation presents an alternative history of internationalism and modernism with a focus on the role of architecture and spatial practices Beginning at the tail end of the peace movements the turn of the twentieth century and ending with the Nuremberg trials the book highlights the part played by individual agency social reform and architecture in moulding a working everyday definition of what it meant to be international during this time By viewing internationalism through the lens of the individual and the body both as initiator and subject it is repositioned as an integral part of everyday life rather than simply understood to be concerned with geopolitical relations between nations and their institutions The book furthers a research methodology that is multidisciplinary and transnational It will therefore be of interest to researchers and students of architecture and international history

Configurations of Family in Contemporary Japan Tomoko Aoyama,Laura Dales,Romit Dasgupta,2014-09-15 The middle class nuclear family model has long dominated discourses on family in Japan Yet there have always been multiple configurations of family and kinship which in the context of significant socio economic and demographic shifts since the 1990s have become increasingly visible in public discourse This book explores the meanings and practices of family in Japan and brings together research by scholars of literature gender studies media and cultural studies sociology and anthropology While the primary focus is the Japanese family it also examines the experience and practice of family beyond the borders of Japan in such settings as Brazil Australia and Bali The chapters explore key issues such as ageing single households non heterosexual living arrangements and parenting Moreover many of the issues addressed such as the growing diversity of family the increase in single person households and the implications of an ageing society are applicable to other mature late industrial societies Employing both multi and inter disciplinary approaches this book combines textual analysis of contemporary television film literature manga anime and other media with empirical and ethnographic studies of families in Japan and in transnational spaces As such it will be of great interest to students and scholars working across a number of fields including Japanese culture and society sociology of family gender studies film and media studies literature and cultural studies and gerontology

The Complete Book of Home Decorating ,1972 The Ladies' Home Journal Louisa Knapp,Edward William Bok,1895 Ladies' Home Companion ,1925 Contextualizing the COVID Pandemic in India Indrani Gupta,Mausumi Das,2023-09-27 This book brings together contributions that explore various dimensions of the pandemic from a long term development perspective It also analyzes the existing policy responses and the gaps therein to enable a greater understanding of how public policy during a pandemic like COVID 19 can be better aligned with the developmental challenges faced by individuals and households in India Through its thirteen contributions the book highlights the connection between the pandemic and development as deep and multilayered and not unidirectional It highlights how the existing inequalities and inequities in the system determined who gets impacted and to what extent and how soon they can recover if at all It analyzes policies and programmes that have been implemented based mostly on the immediate pandemic crisis and responded less to the pre existing conditions that have shaped socio economic outcomes The book would be a great resource to study possible future responses to similar health disasters in a multi cultural multi religion multi caste and multi class melting pot like India
