The Crisis of Western Education (The Works of Christopher Dawson) Christopher Dawson, 2010 A new edition of Christopher Dawson's classic work on Christian higher education     The Crisis of Western Education Christopher Dawson, 1965     Christian Education in "The Crisis of Western Education", by Christopher Dawson Valérie Davion-Haagen, 2013     The Crisis of Western Education ... With Specific Programmes for the Study of Christian Culture by John J. Mulloy Christopher Dawson, 1961     Encyclopedia of Christian Education George Thomas Kurian, Mark A. Lamport, 2015-05-07 Christianity regards teaching as one of the most foundational and critically sustaining ministries of the Church As a result Christian education remains one of the largest and oldest continuously functioning educational systems in the world comprising both formal day schools and higher education institutions as well as informal church study groups and parachurch ministries in more than 140 countries In The Encyclopedia of Christian Education contributors explore the many facets of Christian education in terms of its impact on curriculum literacy teacher training outcomes and professional standards This encyclopedia is the first reference work devoted exclusively to chronicling the unique history of Christian education across the globe illustrating how Christian educators pioneered such educational institutions and reforms as universal literacy home schooling Sunday schools women's education graded schools compulsory education of the deaf and blind and kindergarten With an editorial advisory board of more than 30 distinguished scholars and five consulting editors The Encyclopedia of Christian Education contains more than 1 200 entries by 400 contributors from 75 countries These volumes covers a vast range of topics from Christian education History spanning from the church's founding through the Middle Ages to the modern day Denominational and institutional profiles Intellectual traditions in Christian education Biblical and theological frameworks curricula missions adolescent and higher education theological training and Christian pedagogy Biographies of distinguished Christian educators This work is ideal for scholars of both the history of Christianity and education as well as researchers and students of contemporary Christianity and modern religious education     The Catholic School Harold A. Buetow, 1988     We Come as Members of the Superior Race Obed Mfum-Mensah, 2020-10-06 Westerners have long represented Africans as backwards primitive and unintelligent distortions which have opened the door for American philanthropies to push their own education agendas in Africa We Come as Members of the Superior Race discusses the origin and history of these dangerous stereotypes and western infantilization of African societies exploring how their legacy continues to inform contemporary educational and development discourses By viewing African societies as subordinated in a global geopolitical order these problematic stereotypes continue to influence education policy and research in Sub Sahara Africa today     A Historian and His World Christina Scott, 2023-03-17 The English historian of culture Christopher Dawson 1889 1970 was an independent scholar and the author of more than twenty books He served as assistant lecturer in the History of Culture University College Exeter 1925 Forwood Lecturer in the

Philosophy of Religion University of Liverpool 1934 Gifford Lecturer at the University of Edinburgh 1947 1949 and as Professor of Catholic Studies at Harvard University 1958 1962 He was elected Fellow of the British Academy in 1943 and edited the Dublin Review during the Second World War This biography by Christina Scott Dawson's daughter is a sensitive portrait of a complex and fascinating scholar Unlike other English Christian converts of the twentieth century who excelled in literature like G K Chesterton or C S Lewis Dawson turned to the social sciences He drew from the new idea of culture as a common way of life emerging from anthropology at the time of the Great War to shape a new approach to history His study of the intimate relationship between religion and culture throughout world history shaped his trenchant criticisms of his own times He wrote in 1955 that the first step in the transformation of culture is a change in the pattern of culture within the mind for this is the seed out of which there spring new forms of life which ultimately change the social way of life and thus create a new culture Dawson's engagement with anthropology and the idea of culture marked an important moment of development in the Catholic intellectual tradition Christina Scott shows that Dawson is best understood as he himself interpreted his historical subjects in the context of the spiritual world in which he lived the ideas that moved him and the faith that inspired his action Dawson was not a historian of ideas for their own sake he had a passionate belief in their liberating power A Historian and His World will be of interest to intellectual historians historians of religion and culture and students of modern Catholic thought The Introduction is written by Dawson scholar Joseph T Stuart and the book is graced by a postscript by Christopher Dawson reflecting upon the meaning of his work      Education in the Light of Tradition

Jane Casewit, 2011 Education systems are failing their societies is the message often conveyed by families and young people to governments and media today The dismal state of a country's education system is said to be a reflection of the condition of the society it is meant to serve What are we teaching young people today Do we understand what they need to learn for their ultimate well being In traditional societies education was the means by which knowledge of the Divine Principle and its relation to the human soul was transmitted to young generations Addressing a theme rarely discussed in philosophical and educational circles this unique volume attempts to rediscover the truths and values engrained in traditional education systems Some of the articles also go to the heart of the woes of modern public education systems Publisher's website      The
