Critical Essays on American Postmodernism Stanley Trachtenberg, 1995 Critical Essays on American Modernism Michael J. Hoffman, Patrick D. Murphy, 1992 The Imagery of Writing in the Early Works of Paul Auster Clara Sarmiento, 2017-01-06 The early works of Paul Auster convey the loneliness of the individual fully committed to the work of writing as if he were confined within the book that dominates his life All through Auster's poetry essays and fiction the work of writing is an actual physical effort an effective construction as if the words aligned in the poem text were stones to place in a row when building a wall or some other structure in stone This book studies the symbolism of the genetic substance of the world re built through the work of writing inside the walls of the room closed in space and time though open to an unlimited mental expansion Paul Auster's work is an aesthetic literary self reflection about the mission of writing The writer character is like an inexperienced God whose hands may originate either cosmos or chaos life or death hence Auster's recurring meditation on the work and the power of writing at the same time an autobiography and a self criticism The stones the wall and the room the words the page and the book are the ontological structure of the imaginary cosmos generated in Paul Auster's mind like a real world born of the magma of words lost in another interior world The Environmental Unconscious in the Fiction of Don DeLillo Elise Martucci, 2012-09-10 This book presents an ecocritical reading of DeLillo's novels in an attempt to mediate between the seemingly incompatible influences of postmodernism and environmentalism Martucci argues that although DeLillo is responding to and engaging with a postmodern culture of simulacra and simulation his novels do not reflect a postmodernist theory of the end of nature Rather his fiction emphasizes the lasting significance of the natural world and alerts us to the dangers of destroying it In order to support this argument Martucci examines DeLillo's novels in the context of traditional American literary representations of the environment especially through the lens of Leo Marx's discussion of the conflict between technology and nature found in traditional American literature She demonstrates that DeLillo's fiction explores the way in which new technologies alter perceptions and mediate reality to a further extent than earlier technologies however she argues that he keeps the material world at the forefront of his novels thereby illuminating the environmental implications of these technologies Through close readings of Americana The Names White Noise and Underworld and discussions of postmodernist and ecocritical theories this project engages with current criticism of DeLillo postmodernist fiction and environmental criticism Bret Easton Ellis's Controversial Fiction Sonia Baelo-Allué, 2011-04-21 Both literary author and celebrity Bret Easton Ellis represents a type of contemporary writer who draws from both high and the low culture using popular culture references styles and subject matters in a literary fiction that goes beyond mere entertainment His fiction arousing the interest of the academia mass media and general public has fuelled heated controversy over his work This controversy has often prevented serious analysis of his fiction and this book is the first monograph to fill in this gap by offering a comprehensive textual and contextual analysis of his most important works up to the latest novel Imperial Bedrooms Offering a study of the reception of each novel the influence of popular mass and consumer culture in them and the analysis of their literary style it takes into account the controversies surrounding the novels and the changes produced in the shifty terrain of the literary marketplace It offers anyone studying contemporary American fiction a thorough and unique analysis of Ellis's work and his own place in the literary and cultural panorama

Critical Essays on Salman Rushdie M. Keith Booker, 1999 Essays pay tribute to the popular Anglo Indian novelist who helped open the door for the recent introduction of Indian literature into mainstream Western culture Philip Roth's

Postmodern American Romance Jane Statlander, 2011 Where "Indians" Fear to Tread? Fabienne C. Quennet, 2001 The two fields of contemporary Native American literature and culture exist in the tension between two literary traditions the Native oral and literary tradition and the modern Western mainstream literary influence In her North Dakota quartet Love Medicine 1984 The Beet Queen 1986 Tracks 1988 The Bingo Palace 1994 Native American mixedblood author Louise Erdrich b 1954 exemplifies where and how these traditions meet and interact A postmodern reading of the quartet shows that Native American authors and literary critics alike need not be afraid to tread into postmodernism since an interpretation from this perspective opens up the possibility of freeing Native American literature from the limiting label of ethnic or minority literature and of establishing it as a vital part of American literature This postmodern interpretation of Louise Erdrich's quartet offers a discussion of the theoretical issues involved in the context of ethnic writing and its relation to postmodernism as well as an analysis of her intricate narrative strategies in particular her use of multiple perspectives and of intertextual techniques The main part of the interpretation consists of a reading of postmodern concepts such as magical realism carnivalesque humor the relationship between reader and text gender roles and sexual identities history and textuality the trickster figure and games and chance as can be found in Louise Erdrich's North Dakota quartet Mario Vargas Llosa Raymond Leslie Williams, 2014-12-01 Awarded the Nobel Prize in 2010 at the age of seventy four Peruvian writer Mario Vargas Llosa has held pivotal roles in the evolution and revolutions of modern Latin American literature Perhaps surprisingly no complete history of Vargas Llosa's works placed in biographical and historical context has been published until now A masterwork from one of America's most revered scholars of Latin American fiction Mario Vargas Llosa A Life of Writing provides a critical overview of Vargas Llosa's numerous novels while reinvigorating debates regarding conventional interpretations of the work Weaving analysis with discussions of the writer's political commentary Raymond Leslie Williams traces the author's youthful identity as a leftist student of the 1960s to a repudiation of some of his earlier ideas beginning in the 1980s Providing a unique perspective on the complexity nuance and scope of Vargas Llosa's lauded early novels and on his passionate support of indigenous populations in his homeland Williams then turns his eye to the recent works which serve as a bridge between the legacies of the Boom and the diverse array of contemporary Latin American fiction writers at work today In addition Williams provides a detailed description of Vargas Llosa's traumatic childhood and its impact on him seen particularly in his lifelong disdain for authority figures as well as of the authors who influenced his approach from Faulkner to Flaubert Culminating in reflections drawn from Williams's formal interviews and casual conversations with the author at key phases of both men's careers this is a landmark publication that will spark new lines of inquiry into an intricate body of work The American Church Monthly, 1926 Postmodern/Postwar and After Jason Gladstone, Andrew Hoberek, Daniel Worden, 2016-07-01 Within the past ten years the field of contemporary American literary studies has changed significantly Following the turn of the twenty first century and mounting doubts about the continued explanatory power of the category of postmodernism new organizations have emerged book series have been launched journals have been created and new methodologies periodizations and thematics have redefined the field Postmodern Postwar and After aims to be a field defining book a sourcebook for the new and emerging critical terrain that explores the postmodern postwar period and what comes after The first section of essays returns to the category of the post modern and argues for the usefulness of key concepts and themes from postmodernism to the study of contemporary literature or reevaluates postmodernism in light of recent developments in the field and historical and economic changes in the late twentieth and early twenty first centuries These essays take the contemporary abandonments of postmodernism as an occasion to assess the current states of postmodernity After that the essays move to address the critical shift away from postmodernism as a description of the present and toward a new sense of postmodernism as just one category among many that scholars can use to describe the recent past The final section looks forward and explores the question of what comes after the postwar postmodern Taken together these essays from leading and emerging scholars on the state of twenty first century literary studies provide a number of frameworks for approaching contemporary literature as influenced by yet distinct from postmodernism The result is an indispensable guide that seeks to represent and understand the major overhauling of postwar American literary studies that is currently underway Postmodernism in American Literature Manfred Pütz, Peter Freese, 1984 Don DeLillo Jesse Kavadlo, 2004 Don DeLillo winner of the National Book Award the William Dean Howells Medal and the Jerusalem Prize is one of the most important novelists of the late twentieth and early twenty first centuries While his work can be understood and taught as prescient and postmodern examples of millennial culture this book argues that DeLillo's recent novels White Noise Libra Mao II Underworld and The Body Artist are more concerned with spiritual crisis Although DeLillo's worlds are rife with rejection of belief and littered with faithfulness estrangement and desperation his novels provide a balancing moral corrective against the conditions they describe Speaking the vernacular of contemporary America DeLillo explores the mysteries of what it means to be human The New American Church Monthly ... Charles Sears Baldwin, Selden Peabody Delany, Charles Carroll Edmunds, Granville Mercer Williams, 1926 Includes section Book reviews Historic Preservation & the Imagined West Judy Mattivi Morley, 2006 She draws on extensive interviews city council proceedings and historic plats and photographs to construct a detailed picture of how these districts originally looked and were used how they
