Critical Essays On Muriel Spark:

Critical Essays on Muriel Spark Joseph Hynes, 1992 Edinburgh Companion to Muriel Spark Michael

Gardiner, 2010-07-06 This Companion brings together an international Brodie set of critics to trace the history impact reception and major themes of Spark's work from her early poetry to her last novel. It encompasses the range of Spark's output pursuing contextual lines of approach including biography geography gender identity nation and religion and considering her legacy and continuing influence in the twenty first century. Spark emerges here as a serious thinker on issues as diverse as the Welfare State secularisation decolonisation and anti psychiatry and a writer whose work may be placed alongside Proust Joyce Nabokov and Lessing. The critics collected here are mindful of how although overwhelmingly known as a novelist by the time of her first novel The Comforters in 1957 Spark already had a significant profile through poetry biographical criticism and literary journalism as chair of the Poetry Society and editor of the Poetry Review and as author or co author of a number of scholarly studies of writers including Wordsworth Mary Shelley the Brontes Cardinal Newman and John Masefield. Within a relatively modest space this Companion touches on the whole range of Spark's work and in introducing the oeuvre thematically for those looking to explore this elegant and challenging author further also sets the agenda for future Spark studies.

Muriel Spark Bryan Cheyette, 2000 Muriel Spark is widely considered to be one of the most gifted and innovative British novelists of her generation. Professor Cheyette's study is the first to explore her twenty novels as a whole and includes discussion of her short stories poems and literary criticism.

Acts of Faith and Imagination Brent Little, Mark Bosco, SJ, 2023-08-04 Acts of Faith and Imagination wagers that fiction written by Catholic authors assists readers to reflect critically on the question what is faith. To speak of a person's faith life is to speak of change and development. As a narrative form literature can illustrate the dynamics of faith which remains in flux over the course of one's life. Because human beings must possess faith in something whether religious or not it inevitably has a narrative structure. Faith ebbs and flows flourishes and decays develops and stagnates. Through an exploration of more than a dozen Catholic authors novels and short stories Brent Little argues that Catholic fiction encourages the reader to reflect upon their faith holistically that is the way faith informs one's affections and how a person conceives and interacts with the world as embodied beings. Amidst the diverse stories of modern and contemporary fiction a consistent pattern emerges. Catholic fiction portrays faith at its most fundamental often unconscious level as an act of the imagination. Faith is the way one imagines themselves others and creation. A person's primary faith conditions how they live in the world regardless of the level of conscious reflection and regardless of whether this is a religious faith. Acts of Faith and Imagination investigates the creative depth and vitality of the Catholic literary imagination by bringing late modern Catholic authors into dialogue with more contemporary ones. Readers will then consider well known works such as those by Graham Greene Flannery O'Connor and Muriel Spark in the fresh light of contemporary stories by Toni Morrison Alice McDermott Uwem Akpan and several others.
