Critical Genealogies Historical Situations For Postmodern Literary Studies:

Critical Genealogies Jonathan Arac, 1987-12 Reassessing the ancestry of contemporary criticism Jonathan Arac opens current debates over English studies to a larger understanding of cultural and political history from romanticism through postmodernism This work of creative scholarship enlarges our knowledge of the history of criticism while also exemplifying a new practice of writing literary history Arac draws new lines from Wordsworth Coleridge Shelley and Arnold to their modern successors and to recent developments in Marxism and poststructuralism

Critical essays on the myth of the American Adam María Eugenia & Díaz, 2001-01-01

Critical Conditions Michael Hays, 1992 A significant masterfully executed contribution to the debate surrounding the New Historicism

New Critical Nostalgia Christopher Rovee, 2024-01-02 New Critical Nostalgia weighs the future of literary study by reassessing its past It tracks today's impassioned debates about method back to the discipline's early professional era when an unprecedented makeover of American higher education with far-reaching social consequences resulted in what we might call our first crisis of academic life Rovee probes literary study's nostalgic attachments to this past by recasting an essential episode in the historiography of English the vigorous rejection of romanticism by American New Critics in the new light of the American university's tectonic growth In the process he demonstrates literary study's profound investment in romanticism and reveals the romantic lyric's special affect nostalgia as having been part of English's professional identity all along New Critical Nostalgia meticulously shows what is lost in reducing mid-century American criticism and the intense quirky and unpredictable writings of central figures such as Cleanth Brooks Josephine Miles and W K Wimsatt to a glib monolith of New Critical anti-romanticism In Rovee's historically rich account grounded in analysis of critical texts and enlivened by archival study readers discover John Crowe Ransom's and William Wordsworth's shared existential nostalgia witness the demolition of the immature Percy Shelley in the revolutionary textbook Understanding Poetry explore the classroom give and take prompted by the close reading of John Keats consider the strange ambivalence toward Lord Byron on the part of formalist critics and romantic scholars alike and encounter the strikingly contemporary quantitative studies by one of the mid-century's preeminent poetry scholars Josephine Miles These complex and enthralling engagements with the romantic lyric introduce the reader to a dynamic intellectual milieu in which professionals with varying methodological commitments from New Critics to computationalists working in radically different academic locales from Nashville and New Haven to Baton Rouge and Berkeley wrangled over what it means to read with nothing less than the future of the discipline at stake

The Johns Hopkins Guide to Literary Theory and Criticism Michael Groden, Martin Kreiswirth, Imre Szeman, 2005 Publisher Description

National Identities and Post-Americanist Narratives Donald E. Pease, 1994 National narratives create imaginary relations within imagined communities called national peoples But in the American narrative alongside the nexus of belonging established for the national community the national narrative has represented other peoples women blacks foreigners the homeless from whom the property of nationness has been removed altogether and upon whose differences from them the national people depended for the construction of their norms Dismantling this opposition has become the task of post national Post Americanist narratives bent on changing the assumptions that found the national identity This volume originally published as a special issue of boundary 2 focuses on the process of assembling and dismantling the American national narrative sketching its inception and demolition The contributors examine various cultural political and historical sources colonial literature mass movements epidemics of disease mass spectacle transnational corporations super weapons popular magazines literary texts out of which this narrative was constructed and propose different understandings of nationality and identity following in its wake Contributors Jonathan Arac Lauren Berlant Robert J Corber Elizabeth Freeman Kathryn V Lingberg Jack Matthews Alan Nadel Patrick O Donnell Daniel O Hara Donald E Pease Ross Posnock John Carlos Rowe Rob Wilson Engendering Men Joseph Allen Boone,1990 A collection of 17 essays some new some revised from previous publication by male critics of poetry fiction stage film television and broader cultural texts Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Maps and Mirrors Steve Martinot,2001 Maps and Mirrors explores the links and gaps between the aesthetic and the political at the intersection of philosophy and literature Testing the major voices of aesthetic and literary theory it raises important questions about the implicit political contexts and commitments of thinkers from Kant to de Man Taken together the essays provide a tour of the complexities and richness of contemporary modes of critique Literary Minstrelsy, 1770-1830 Erik Simpson,2008-11-20 This book argues that Romantic era writers used the figure of the minstrel to imagine authorship as a social responsive enterprise unlike the solitary process portrayed by Romantic myths of the lone genius Simpson highlights the centrality of the minstrel to many important literary developments from the Romantic era through to the 1840s Cross-cultural Communication: East and West Paul George Fendos,1991 The Cultural Politics of Postmodernism John Tagg,1989 Theory, (post)modernity, Opposition Mas'ud Zavarzadeh,Donald E. contribute to a unique theatrical sensibility The introduction to Theater at the Margins situates contemporary post structuralist ethnic and feminist theory in relation to theater and the dramatic text with specific reference to Derrida s concept of the margin Subsequent chapters apply this thinking to specific texts including Pandering to the Masses Garbage The City and Death The Chickencoop Chinaman and Giving Up the Ghost A concluding chapter summarizes these readings and suggests how they might be useful for theater practitioners The theoretical issues covered are central to both contemporary critical discourse and theatrical practice By investigating the notion of margins of the places in which the dramatic text begins to unravel its ontotheological heritage MacDonald shows how the possibility for staging philosophy s Other emerges He makes clear however that staging this Other is not simply a concern of philosophy instead he raises the possibility of a heterogeneous theater that would accentuate the historical and political background of a particular group while at the same time making room for competing voices Theater at the Margins argues that this heterogeneity of texts could create a theater that would be responsive and responsible to a world no longer defined by a particular center BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved The Charles Lamb Bulletin, 1988
