Critical Humanisms Humanist Anti Humanist Debates:

Critical Humanisms Martin Halliwell, Andy Mousley, 2003 This distinctive reappraisal of humanism argues that humanist thought is a diverse tradition which cannot be reduced to current conceptions of it By considering humanism via the categories of Romantic Existential Dialogic Civic Spiritual Pagan Pragmatic and Technological Humanisms Halliwell and Mousley propose that the critical edge of humanist thought can be rescued from its popular view as intellectually redundant They also argue that because these humanisms contain within them anti humanist perspectives it is possible to counter the charge that humanism is based upon an unquestioned image of human nature The book focuses on the thought of twenty four mainly European and North American thinkers ranging historically from the Renaissance to postmodernism It discusses foundational writers some of whom have been claimed as anti humanists such as Marx Nietzsche Freud Dewey and Sartre as well as the contemporary thinkers Habermas Cixous Rorty Hall and Haraway to construct a series of provocative dialogues which suggest the ongoing relevance of humanism to issues of ethics art science selfhood gender citizenship and religion Given the range and originality of the book's approach Critical Humanisms will be an invaluable resource for students and researchers in the Humanities particularly English American studies cultural studies modern languages philosophy and sociology

Critical Humanist Perspectives Adrian Pablé, 2017-05-18 The present book is a collection of scholarly reflections on the theme of humanism from an integrational linguistic perspective It studies humanist thought in relation to the philosophy of language and communication underpinning it and considers the question whether being a humanist binds one to a particular view of language The contributions to this volume explore whether integrational linguistics being informed by a non mainstream semiology and adopting a lay linguistic perspective can provide better answers to contentious ontological and epistemological questions concerning the humanist project questions having to do with the self reason authenticity creativity free agency knowledge and human communication The humanist perspectives adopted by the contributors to this volume are critical insofar as they start from semiological assumptions that challenge received notions within mainstream linguistics such as the belief that languages are fixed codes of some kind that communication serves the purpose of thought transfer and that languages are prerequisites for communication

The Critical Humanism of the Frankfurt School as Social Critique Oliver Kozlarek, 2024-05-15 This book aims to extract a kind of Critical Humanism from the works of prominent members of the Frankfurt School Oliver Kozlarek argues that what is compelling about this kind of restitution of humanism is the fact that it sought to be understood not as a conceptual theoretical construction but as a practice of critical social and cultural research This means that it does not orient itself to an ideal image of the human being but to making inhuman conditions of our current societies visible It is above all in this sense that humanism is no longer understood in a Humboldtian educational sense Rather it is about using critical social research as a political practice
