Gérard, 2000 Everyone eschews labels yet we all seem to possess them in the minds of legions of politicians marketers and even the ever peering government We are being targeted daily by flaming liberals left wing liberals right wing conservatives compassionate conservatives religious conservatives and liberals pinko liberals middle of the road liberals conservatives and liberals pinko liberals middle of the road liberals and conservatives and of course by neoconservatives and neoliberals The search is on for kindred souls the types who will open their wallets to support whatever it is the hucksters are peddling But what do these concepts mean and do their torchbearers grasp the underlying philosophies or do they care This bibliography lists over hundreds of entries

Reiman, 2004 What if our criminal justice system is biased against the poor from start to finish from the definition of what constitutes a crime through the process of arrest trial and sentencing In this best selling text the author argues that actions of well off people such as the refusal to make workplaces safe refusal to curtail deadly pollution promotion of unnecessary surgery and prescriptions for unnecessary drugs cause occupational and environmental hazards to innocent members of the public and produce as much death destruction and financial loss as so called crimes of the poor However these crimes of the well off are rarely treated as severely as those of the poor Reiman documents the extent of anti poor bias in arrest conviction and sentencing practices and shows that the bias is conjoined with a general refusal to remedy the causes of crime poverty lack of education and discrimination As a result the criminal justice system fails to reduce crime The author uses numerous studies and examples to illustrate his points and difficult concepts are explained in a non technical manner The book provokes thought and discussion even among people who disagree with its content One reviewer describes the text as one of the most outstanding critiques of the criminal justice process a book that needed to be written and needs to be published again and again a text as relevant today as when first published in 1979 The Business of Consumption Laura Westra, Patricia H. Philosophical Inquiry, 1999 Child Versus Childmaker Melinda A. Roberts, 1998 Child Versus Childmaker investigates a person affecting approach to ethical choice A form of consequentialism this approach is intended to capture the idea that agents ought both do the most good that they can and respect each person as distinct from each other Focusing on cases in which a conflict of interest arises between childmakers _parents infertility specialists embryologists and others engaged in the task of bringing new people into existence_ and the children they aim to create the author considers what we today owe those who will come into existence tomorrow Topics addressed include what the person affecting intuition is and how it differs from other forms of consequentialism the consistency of the person affecting intuition the non identity problem wrongful life and human cloning and other new reproductive technologies This book is intended for upper level undergraduates and graduate students in philosophy law and economics and for anyone interested in bioethics population policy normative theory children s rights constitutional privacy or family law Racist Symbols and Reparations George Schedler, 1998 In this fascinating book George Schedler offers fresh moral and legal perspectives on two legacies of the Civil War the adoption of the Confederate battle flag by Southern states and the question of African American reparations Schedler demonstrates that constitutional objections to Southern states display of the battle flag are without merit arguing that either the flag is not a racist symbol or there is a similar case for attaching racist significance to the stars and stripes. Drawing on scholarship of the Civil War and its aftermath, the author concludes that the Confederate battle flag can actually be seen as a multicultural symbol. Schedler's analysis of reparations focuses on the principle that whatever the enslaved would have earned and enjoyed had they not been enslaved should determine compensation. Highly original and thought provoking, this book will be of interest to students and scholars of the Civil War, moral philosophy, and constitutional law.
