Critical Review Of In Religion 1998 Vol 11:

The Literary Gazette and Journal of Belles Lettres, Arts, Sciences, 1834 God's Apocalyptic Insurrection Richard D. Crane, 2024-10-15 What if our inherited theologies of salvation are distorted by a sinful history that includes white supremacy slavery and colonial conquest What if we perpetuate this distortion by continuing to imagine salvation as a legal transaction by which we are saved by God from divine punishment If salvation merely rectifies the individual's standing before God justice and human flourishing are viewed as peripheral to the gospel This book begins with a bit of deconstruction But the real need is construction or perhaps the discovery of another soteriological imagination To be saved is to be drawn into union with Jesus Messiah the bringer of the now and future reign of God where all things are rectified Jesus's life death and resurrected body are the space where a disordered creation is put right Jesus is God's apocalyptic insurrection against every power that dehumanizes harms and destroys human persons We are saved by the triune God by God's gracious acceptance that cannot be earned But we are saved for participation in the invasion of God's reign of justice healing and transformation Salvation has everything to do with caring for refugees resisting systemic racial and other injustices food for the hungry and valuing human persons as Christ incognito The Athenaeum, 1844 The Examiner, 1863 Art and Enchantment

Patrick Curry, 2023-03-17 This book concerns the experience of enchantment in art Considering the essential characteristics dynamics and conditions of the experience of enchantment in relation to art including liminality it offers studies of different kinds of artistic experience and activity including painting music fiction and poetry before exploring the possibility of a life oriented to enchantment as the activity of art itself With attention to the complex relationship between wonder in art and the programmatic disenchantment to which it is often subject the author draws on the thought of a diverse range of philosophers sociological theorists and artists to offer an understanding of art through the idea of enchantment and enchantment through art An accessible study richly illustrated with experience both that of the author and others Art and Enchantment will appeal to scholars and students of sociology anthropology philosophy and anyone with interests in the nature of aesthetic experience

The Economist, 1929 Staging Decadence Adam Alston, 2023-09-07 Winner of the 2024 TaPRA David Bradby Monograph Prize How is decadence being staged today as a practice issue pejorative and as a site of pleasure Where might we find it why might we look for it and who is decadence for This book is the first monographic study of decadence in theatre and performance Adam Alston makes a passionate case for the contemporary relevance of decadence in the thick of a resurgent culture war by focusing on its antithetical relationship to capitalist led growth progress and intensified productivity He argues that the qualities used to disparage the study and practice of theatre and performance are the very things we should embrace in celebrating their value namely their spectacular uselessness wastefulness outmodedness and abundant potential for producing forms of creativity that flow away from the ends and excesses of capitalism Alston covers an eclectic range of examples by Julia Bardsley UK Hasard Le Sin Finland jaamil olawale kosoko USA Toco Nikaido Japan Martin
