Critical Theory Cultural Politics And Latin American Narrative:

Critical Theory, Cultural Politics, and Latin American Narrative Steven M. Bell, Albert Le May, Leonard Orr, 1993 This volume is a collection of eight of the papers presented at The First Biennial Conference of The Latin American Consortium entitled Narrative Practices and Cultural Discourse held in 1990 at the University of Notre Dame Taking a specific Latin American focus the essays test an eclectic array of works in Latin American narrative literature against concepts and issues in poststructuralist critical theory The contributors cross many regional cultural and disciplinary boundaries Their essays encompass such timely issues as the possible correlations among poststructuralism postindustrialism postmodernism postcolonialism and the Latin American literary postboom as well as how Latin American writing has both responded to and participated in these socio cultural developments One commonality exists among all the essays none of them treat works of Latin American narrative literature independent of the historical critical and theoretical discourses that have built up around them By initiating a more direct dialogue among critical theorists Latin American writers and intellectuals and scholars of Latin American culture and society this stimulating collection strive to promote a more accurate assessment and realistic articulation of the significance of Latin American literature and of the cultural impact its narratives have on local national and international levels Contributors John Beverley Fernando Coronil Roberto Gonzalez Echevarria Ricardo Guti rrez Mouat Fredric Jameson Amy Kaminsky Mary Louise Pratt Luisa Valenzuela

Comparative Cultural Studies and Latin America Sophia A. McClennen, Earl E. Fitz, 2004 The genesis of Comparative Cultural Studies and Latin America stems from the contributors conviction that given its vitality and excellence Latin American literature deserves a more prominent place in comparative literature publications curricula and disciplinary discussions The editors introduce the volume by first arguing that there still exists in some quarters a lingering bias against literature written in Spanish and

Portuguese Secondly the authors assert that by embracing Latin American literature and culture more enthusiastically comparative literature would find itself reinvigorated placed into productive discourse with a host of issues languages literatures and cultures that have too long been paid scant academic attention Following an introduction by the editors the volume contains papers by Gene H Bell Villada on the question of canon by Gordon Brotherston and L cia de S on the First Peoples of the Americas and their literature by Elizabeth Coonrod Mart nez on the Latin American novel of the 1920s by Rom n de la Campa on Latin American Studies by Earl E Fitz on Spanish American and Brazilian literature by Roberto Gonz lez Echevarra on Latin American and comparative literature by Sophia A McClennen on comparative literature and Latin American Studies by Alberto Moreiras on Borges by Julio Ortega on the critical debate about Latin American cultural studies by Christina Marie Tourino on Cuban Americas in New York City by Mario J Vald s on the comparative history of literary cultures in Latin America and by Lois Parkinson Zamora on comparative literature and globalization The volume also contains a bibliography of scholarship in comparative Latin American culture and literature and biographical abstracts of the contributors to the volume

Latin American Fiction and the Narratives of the Perverse P. O'Connor, 2004-12-02 Latin American Fiction and the Narratives of the Perverse contains analysis of sexual perversion and narrative creativity in fictions from the Latin American boom and post boom O Connor s main argument is that orthodox criticism of Latin American literature has neglected the eccentric singularities of other fictive trends in the corpus especially in the second half of the twentieth century At the same time by examining these eccentric singularities in their relationship to mainstream trends in the Latin American corpus O Connor forces his readers to view these master narratives and major trends such as modernismo or magical realism from surprisingly new angles Five of the authors discussed Puig Lezama Lima Cortazar and Sarduy have an established place in the Latin American literary canon A fifth one Rosario Ferre may have come close to achieving that status with her earlier fictions Others Felisberto Hernandez Alicia Borinsky Cristina Peri Rossi and Silvia Molloy are less well known but they are certainly highly significant authors for scholars and students of contemporary Latin American fiction
