Critical Issues In Victimology International Perspectives:

Critical Issues in Victimology Emilio Viano,1992 Critical Victimology R. I. Mawby,1994 The authors outline and discuss the issues facing victims today and address the fundamental question How can we best ensure justice for victims while at the same time preserving the rights of defendants Critical Victimology Rob Mawby,Sandra Walklate,1994-01-01 Drawing on a wealth of local national and international sources unpublished documents and original research this book provides a theoretical and practical critique of victimology The authors outline and discuss the issues facing victims today and address the fundamental question How can we best ensure justice for victims while at the same time preserving the rights of defendants The search for answers raises other key questions What are the risks of crime and do they vary from country to country What is the impact of crime on the victim How are victims treated by police welfare agencies and courts Why have governments become interested in victims Can we learn from the experiences of policies in other nations How are services developing in the rest of the world including Eastern Europe This critical and comparative analysis of victim services offers important insights for students and academics in criminology social work and social policy as well as for victim support workers 21st Century Sociology: A Reference Handbook Clifton D. Bryant,Dennis L. Peck,2007 Publisher Description Collaborative Policing Peter C. Kratcoski,Maximilian Edelbacher,2015-10-05 The chapters in this book reveal that police education training and practices are now closely tied to collaboration between police academics professional practitioners and community agencies and such collaboration is described and evaluated Dilip K Das PhD Founding President International Police Executive Symposium IPES and founding The Role of the Media in Criminal Justice Policy Natalia Antolak-Saper,2022-09-09 This book provides a socio legal examination of the media s influence on the development and implementation of criminal justice policy This impact is often assumed And especially in the wake of high profile crimes the press is routinely observed calling for sentences to be harsher and for governments to be tougher on crime But how do we know that there is a connection To answer this question the book draws on a case study of the media reporting of the rape and murder of Jill Meagher in Melbourne Australia as well as other well known cases including those of James Bulger Sarah Payne Stephen Lawrence and Michael Brown among others Deploying a socio legal framework to examine how the media s often powerful and emotive narratives play a crucial role in the development and implementation of law the book provides a deep and critical reflection on its influence The book concludes with a number of suggestions for media reform both to moderate the media s influence and to incorporate a broader range of viewpoints This multi disciplinary book will appeal to scholars and students in sociolegal studies criminology and criminal law as well as those working in relevant areas in sociology and media studies The Victim in International Perspective Hans Joachim Schneider,1982 Papers and essays given at the Third International Symposium on Victimology in 1979 in Münster Westfalia Criminal Justice Ian Marsh,John Cochrane,Gaynor Melville,2004 This practical new text encourages students to develop a deeper understanding of the current context and workings of the criminal justice system and is of particular use for students and for practitioners in the criminal justice arena Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,2001-06 Missouri Law Review ,2006 Humanity & Society ,1995 From the Classroom to the Corner Cynthia Cole Robinson,2007 From the Classroom to the Corner explores the in school and out of school experiences of three young women who dropped out of school as adolescents and turned to prostitution This fascinating book presents them as case studies in the context of dropping out in school and non school curriculum adolescent prostitution feminist theory and race class and gender Most prostitutes state that they are on the streets because they lack the educational credentials and job training required for gainful employment therefore the educational experiences of these young women are tantamount to any attempt to retain girls on the fringes This book gives insight into how the educational system and classroom experience fail to meet the needs of these marginalized young women and offers curricular designs to address the educational needs of dropouts and potential dropouts The effects of the non school curriculum on these girls academic experience are also explored The Journal of Transpersonal Psychology ,1998 Restoring Harm Daniela Bolívar,2019-01-04 To what extent is restorative justice able to restore the harm suffered by victims of crimes of interpersonal violence Restorative justice is an innovative participatory and inclusive reaction to crime that permits victims and offenders to engage in a communication process about the consequences of the offence It looks to the future actively involving parties to find agree and implement ways to repair the harm Restoring Harm analyses the restoration process from a psychosocial point of view and discusses the role of victim offender mediation within such a process It brings together literature from the fields of restorative justice victimology and psychology and shares original findings from victims who were interviewed in Belgium and Spain This book not only offers descriptive findings but also provides a theoretical and comprehensive model that elucidates several possibilities for why victim offender mediation may or may not play a role in victims processes of emotional restoration Well informed and well documented this volume brings together evidence from different regions and develops a detailed discussion of the effectiveness of restorative justice with regard to victims Providing new and solid evidence thanks to a quasi experimental methodological design theory and practice come together to offer relevant reflections for researchers and practitioners who are concerned about the victim s position within victim offender mediation and desire to develop a victim sensitive restorative justice practice Critical Issues on Violence Against Women Holly Johnson,Bonnie S. Fisher,Veronique Jaquier,2014-12-05 Violence against women is a global problem and despite a wealth of knowledge and inspiring action around the globe it continues unabated Bringing together the very best in international scholarship with a rich variety of pedagogical features this innovative new textbook on violence against women is specifically designed to provoke debate interrogate assumptions and encourage critical thinking about this global issue This book presents a range of critical reflections on the strengths and limitations of responses to violent crimes against women and how they have evolved to date Each section is introduced with an overview of a particular topic by an expert in the field followed by thoughtful reflections by researchers practitioners or advocates that incorporate new research findings a new initiative or innovative ideas for reform Themes covered include advances in measurement of violence against women justice system responses to intimate partner violence and sexual assault victim crisis and advocacy behaviour change programs for abusers and prevention of violence against women Each section is supplemented with learning objectives critical thinking questions and lists of further reading and resources to encourage discussion and to help students to appreciate the contested nature of policy The innovative structure will bring debate alive in the classroom or seminar and makes the book perfect reading for courses on violence against women gender and crime victimology and crime prevention International Victimology Chris Sumner,1996 Edited selection of papers given at a symposium on victimology held in Adelaide in 1994 Topics discussed include domestic violence reporting sexual assault the conflict of victims interests and offenders rights in the criminal justice system and preventing re victimisation Includes references and an index

Criminology Freda Adler, Gerhard O. W. Mueller, William S. Laufer, 2004 This leading text for courses in Criminology is known for its lucid style student oriented approach and its interdisciplinary global perspective The Fourth Edition further underscores this unique student centered approach by making a free student study CD Making the Grade available with every copy of the text A robust Online Learning Center featuring chapter quizzes with feedback vocabulary flashcards interactive exercises and more is also available The Adler text comes in two versions one with and the other without coverage of the criminal justice system For schools that retain the traditional criminology course which includes criminological coverage of criminal justice Criminology and the Criminal Justice System Fifth Edition is the ideal text For schools that offer a separate introductory course in criminal justice Criminology Fifth Edition is the appropriate text Final Report and Recommendations of the McHenry Library Demonstration University of California, Santa Cruz.
