Critical Perspectives on Caribbean Literature and Culture Dorsia Smith, Tatiana Tagirova, 2011-01-18 Critical Perspectives on Caribbean Literature and Culture is a collection of a dozen essays by Caribbean scholars living in the Caribbean and around the world Each of the three sections of the book explores the Caribbean as a diasporic space through the lenses of literary and cultural systems Negotiating Borders Women Sexuality and Identity examines the creolized identities of Caribbean societies gender roles of women impact of sexual tourism and censorship of Latino gays and lesbians The essayists in this section note that much work still needs to be done in academia to give voice to repressed Caribbean populations Creating Spaces of Caribbean Artistic Expression Multiple Representations focuses on how music identity art and language depict the diversity of the Caribbean experience In this section the essayists examine how the process of creation extends to new cultural expressions Deconstructing the Diaspora Caribbean Writers as Political Activists takes into account the tension between oppressor and oppressed a pressing issue for many Caribbean authors and focuses on the role of writers in reconstructing Caribbean culture politics and history In pursuit of a more comprehensive West Indian view this publication provides a novel perspective on Caribbean literary cultural and historical experience The essays featured complement each other in their representation of the multiplicitous Caribbean region with all its claims and anxieties They cover a wide range of writers and diverse cross cultural encounters within the Caribbean region and reflect on issues such as Caribbean identity migration and artistic form of expression This publication cuts across geographies cultures and disciplines enriching Caribbean scholarship by recognizing the Caribbean's tradition of resistance and courage

Handbook of the English Novel of the Twentieth and Twenty-First Centuries Christoph Reinfandt, 2017-06-12 The Handbook systematically charts the trajectory of the English novel from its emergence as the foremost literary genre in the early twentieth century to its early twenty first century status of eccentric eminence in new media environments Systematic chapters address The English Novel as a Distinctly Modern Genre The Novel in the Economy Genres Gender performativity masculinities feminism queer and The Burden of Representation class and ethnicity Extended contextualized close readings of more than twenty key texts from Joseph Conrad's Heart of Darkness 1899 to Tom McCarthy's Satin Island 2015 supplement the systematic approach and encourage future research by providing overviews of reception and theoretical perspectives

Narratives of Community in the Black British Short Story Bettina Jansen, 2018-08-16 Narratives of Community in the Black British Short Story offers the first systematic study of black British short story writing tracing its development from the 1950s to the present with a particular focus on contemporary short stories by Hanif Kureishi Jackie Kay Suhayl Saadi Zadie Smith and Hari Kunzru By combining a postcolonial framework of analysis with Jean Luc Nancy s deconstructive philosophy of community the book charts key tendencies in black British short fiction and explores how black British writers use the short story form to combat deeply entrenched notions of community and experiment with non essentialist alternatives across differences of ethnicity culture religion and nationality

Appropriation as Practice of Memory Dimiter Daphinoff, Franziska Metzger, 2024-11-18 This volume explores how narratives and iconographic codes in literature art music material culture and social political and economic discourses were appropriated and thereby sometimes radically transformed by religious agents and how religious narrations discourses and iconographic practices were reimagined and used up to radical deconstruction in non religious contexts as well as in different or transformed religious contexts Religious appropriation is thereby conceived as practice of memory drawing on reused and creating transformed narrative and visual spaces of imagination The dimension of memory will contribute to a more differentiated typology of practices of appropriation their forms functions and functionalisation Agency and power relations will be important factors in the individual contributions of this trans disciplinary volume that links approaches from memory studies religious history literary studies and art history

A Reader's Companion to the Short Story in English Erin Fallon, R.C. Feddersen, James Kurtzleben, Maurice A. Lee, Susan Rochette-Crawley, 2013-10-31 Although the short story has existed in various forms for centuries it has particularly flourished during the last hundred years Reader s Companion to the Short Story in English includes alphabetically arranged entries for 50 English language short story writers from around the world Most of these writers have been active since 1960 and they reflect a wide range of experiences and perspectives in their works Each entry is written by an expert contributor and includes biography a review of existing criticism a lengthier analysis of specific works and a selected bibliography of primary and secondary sources The volume begins with a detailed introduction to the short story genre and concludes with an annotated bibliography of major works on short story theory

Migrant Modernism J. Dillon Brown, 2013 In Migrant Modernism J Dillon Brown examines the intersection between British literary modernism and the foundational West Indian novels that emerged in London after World War II By emphasizing the location in which anglophone Caribbean writers such as George Lamming V S Naipaul and Samuel Selvon produced and published their work Brown reveals a dynamic convergence between modernism and postcolonial literature that has often been ignored Modernist techniques not only provided a way for these writers to mark their difference from the aggressively English literalist aesthetic that dominated postwar literature in London but also served as a self critical medium through which to treat themes of nationalism cultural inheritance and identity

Critical Perspectives on Derek Walcott Robert D. Hamner, 1993 Critical Perspectives on Ngugi Wa Thiong'o G. D. Killam, 1984 This appraisal of the Kenyan novelist playwright essayist and scholar Ngugi wa Thiong'o focuses on his first five novels and his collection of essays entitled Homecoming The book discusses the literary and political influences on Ngugi his use of folklore and his depiction of women      Something Rich and Strange Martin Zehnder, 2003 For those who love the rich comedy of Samuel Selvon's fiction and for students of Caribbean writing these essays return readers to his books with a deeper appreciation of their art and questioning humanity      'Is English We Speaking' and Other Essays Mervyn Morris, 1999 Sets out to question the attitudes and judgments of professional critics The first nine essays are concerned with the interplay between oral and scribal modes performance and print Standard English and Creole Some of the later essays continue to highlight fusion cultural interchange and creative traffic across borders

Writers of the Indian Diaspora Emmanuel S. Nelson, 1993-04-13 The fifty eight writers included in this new sourcebook have roots in India or less frequently in Pakistan Bangladesh or Sri Lanka but represent diverse geographical areas of the Indian Diaspora from the South Pacific to South America from the Indian Ocean islands of Mauritius and Singapore to the cities and suburbs of London New York Johannesburg and Toronto Their lives works themes and critical receptions are examined individually but with attention to two central assumptions that people of the Indian diaspora share a diasporic consciousness generated by a complex network of historical connections spiritual affinities and unifying racial memories and that this shared sensibility is manifested in the cultural productions of the Indian diasporic communities around the world These concepts developed by Professor Nelson in a previous study Reworlding The Literature of the Indian Diaspora are here applied to a larger canvas of writers including major international figures such as V S Naipaul and Salman Rushdie and talented emerging writers The writers practice a variety of literary forms and represent a extraordinary diversity of ethnicities languages and religious traditions The women among them contribute the perspective of gender along with the themes of ethnicity migrancy and post coloniality shared with the male writers Each entry begins with relevant biographical information on the writer offers an interpretive summary of the major works provides an overview of the critical reception accorded the corpus and individual productions and concludes with detailed primary and secondary bibliographies A brief appendix lists each writer with place of birth and places of domicile The introduction to the volume by Professor Nalini Natarajan discusses several theoretical issues pertinent to Indian diasporic studies Of value to all literary collections and scholars this reference work will be of special interest for post colonial and Commonwealth studies      Canadian Review of Comparative Literature , 1994      Caribbean Perspectives , 1992      The Caribbean Writer , 1990

Appreciating the Difference Donald E. Herdeck, 1998      London Calling Sukhdev Sandhu, 2003 Black authors of the 18th century were powerful figures out walking near Charing Cross with one of his artist friends Ignatius Sancho was accosted by a young fop who cried out to his friend Smoke Othello Sancho placed himself across the path and exclaimed in booming tones Aye Sir such Othellos you meet with but once in a century Such Iagos as you we meet with in every dirty passage Proceed Sir
