Disciplining English David R. Shumway, Craig Dionne, 2012-02-01 These provocative essays explore the unwritten often unacknowledged codes conventions and ideologies overseeing the evolution and current practice of English as a discipline The first section of the book offers historical perspectives how composition became distinguished from literature how key intellectuals shaped the discipline and how various specialties Renaissance literature American literature theory became subfields The second section focuses on how certain aesthetic categories of art and universal experience persist today in the actual teaching and writing of English While it is fashionable to say that we are living in the age of poststructuralism or that literary theory has delivered us from idealized conceptions of authorship and inherent meaning these essays examine how these conceptions nevertheless remain and are transmitted in different types of classroom settings in textbooks and in the self fashioning of academic careers At a time when the role and function of English departments have become matters of both academic and public debate this book will be a welcome resource for students professionals and anyone interested in the Culture Wars of the past two decades

Bibliography has been expanded to include a greater number of entries dealing with feminism critical theory technology and cultural studies as they relate to composition and rhetoric Each document is cited and annotated only once under one of the five major sections of the CCCC Bibliography Each entry however receives an entry number so that cross references to other sections are possible This feature is especially useful because much scholarship in composition and rhetoric is interdisciplinary in nature Cross references appear as a listing of entry numbers preceded by See also found at the ends of subsections Entries appear under five major categories bibliographies and checklists theory and research teacher education administration and social roles curriculum and testing measurement and evaluation Although the CCCC Bibliography excludes master s theses textbooks computer software and book reviews from its coverage it furnishes citations to review essays articles appearing in some 228 journals scholarly monographs and essay collections dissertations abstracted in Dissertation Abstracts International and selected documents and conference materials available through ERIC

American Book Publishing Record ,1995      Whitaker's Books in Print ,1998      Death and Representation Sarah McKim Webster Goodwin, Elisabeth Bronfen,1993-12 Death is a subject of increasing interest in virtually all academic disciplines yet there is surprisingly little theoretical work on the representation of death in literary contexts Death and Representation offers a unique collection of international and interdisciplinary essays rich in cultural perspectives but sharing a relatively common vocabulary It provides models for a number of interrelated approaches including psychoanalytic feminist and historical with essays by prominent and promising scholars All the contributions combine theory with textual readings whether of literature paintings historical sources or in one case a passage from Freud The essays in Death and Representation trace the multifarious ways in which death in both unknowable and repeatably constructed In so doing the collection shows how thematics as an issue in scholarly research can serve as a platform for interdisciplinary discussions Essays are organized in three sections REading Death Sign Psyche Text Death and Gender and History Power Ideology Contributors are Ernst van Alphen Mieke Bal Regina Barreca Elisabeth Bronfen Carol Christ Sander Gilman Sarah Webster Goodwin Margaret Higonnet Regina Janes Ellie Ragland Sullivan Rajeswari Sunder Rajan Ronald Schleifer Charles Segal and Garrett Stewart      ACLA Bulletin ,1993      A Cultural Studies Reader Jessica Munns,Gita Rajan,Roger Bromley,1995 Provides an historical overview of the field and its developments from 19th century thinkers such as Karl Marx and Matthew Arnold to contemporary theorists such as Raymond Williams and Antonio Gramsci It focuses on the central issues of cultural criticism in the US and Britain Europe Asia and Africa bringing the reader up to date with current debates such as post colonialism and identity politics      Encyclopedia of Contemporary Literary Theory Irene Rima Makaryk,1993-01-01 The last half of the twentieth century has seen the emergence of literary theory as a new discipline As with any body of scholarship various schools of thought exist and sometimes conflict within it I R Makaryk has compiled a welcome guide to the field Accessible and jargon free the Encyclopedia of Contemporary Literary Theory provides lucid concise explanations of myriad approaches to literature that have arisen over the past forty years. Some 170 scholars from around the world have contributed their expertise to this volume. Their work is organized into three parts. In Part I, forty evaluative essays examine the historical and cultural context out of which new schools of and approaches to literature arose. The essays also discuss the uses and limitations of the various schools and the key issues they address. Part II focuses on individual theorists. It provides a more detailed picture of the network of scholars, not always easily pigeonholed into the categories of Part I. This second section analyses the individual achievements as well as the influence of specific scholars and places them in a larger critical context. Part III deals with the vocabulary of literary theory. It identifies significant complex terms, places them in context, and explains their origins and use. Accessibility is a key feature of the work. By avoiding jargon, providing mini bibliographies, and cross referencing throughout, Makaryk has provided an indispensable tool for literary theorists and historians and for all scholars and students of contemporary criticism and culture. Paperbound Books in Print, 1992 Bibliographic Index, 1995
