Criticism And Ideology Second African Writers Conference Stockholm:

Criticism and Ideology Kirsten Holst Petersen, 1988 Contemporary African Literature and the Politics of Gender Florence Stratton, 2020-09-23 The influence of colonialism and race on the development of African literature has been the subject of a number of studies The effect of patriarchy and gender however and indeed the contributions of African women have up until now been largely ignored by the critics Contemporary African Literature and the Politics of Gender is the first extensive account of African literature from a feminist perspective In this first radical and exciting work Florence Stratton outlines the features of an emerging female tradition in African fiction A chapter is dedicated to each to the works of four women writers Grace Ogot Flora Nwapa Buchi Emecheta and Mariama Ba In addition she provides challenging new readings of canonical male authors such as Chinua Achebe Ngugi wa Thiong'o and Wole Soyinka Contemporary African Literature and the Politics of Gender thus provides the first truly comprehensive definition of the current literary tradition in Africa

Imagining Insiders Mineke Schipper, 1999-08-01 This study surveys a wide range of writings and ideas out of Africa by people of African descent on the various ways in which insiders and outsiders self and otherness have been imagined and defined from African perspectives Attention is focused on identity issues regarding Africa Panafricanism American Black culture Negritude and Black Consciousness as well as on whiteness and otherness black versus white cultures and gender matters in a racialized context Some theoretical issues in the academic debate on insiders and intercultural dialogue are also discussed with examples from various disciplines Five interviews with leading writers conclude the book Beyond the Heteronorm Goutam Majhi, Subhadeep Paul, 2024-03-18 Beyond the Heteronorm Interrogating Critical Alterities in Global Art and Literature explores exclusionary practices inspired by the construct of gender and how these conventions often misconstrue and convolute sex gender and sexual orientation The contributors to this collection examine literary and visual representations of critical alterities from around the globe to produce empathic and inclusive analyses of experiences shared between diverse subordinated and minoritized socio cultural entities and collectives Organized into three parts the chapters critique the concepts of personhood performativity and the post binary This edited collection deconstructs gender essentialism and embraces gender inclusivity in both theory and practice Tongue and Mother Tongue African Literature Association. Meeting, 2002 Tongue and Mother Tongue takes on two compelling challenges the language question and the place and role of the mother tongue in African literature This collection is the culmination of the fierce decades old debate on the question of African literature and its criticism The fourteen essays range from a variety of critical and theoretical perspectives covering the theoretical and ideological aspects of the language question the nature of criticism the influence of the oral tradition critical analysis of mother tongue literature and textual analyses African Literature Jonathan P. Smithe, 2002 African literature like the continent itself is enormous and diverse East Africa's literature is different from West Africa's which is quite different from South Africa's which has different influences on it than North Africa's Africa's literature is based on a widespread heritage of oral literature some of which has now been recorded Arabic influence can be detected as well as European especially French and English Legends myths proverbs riddles and folktales form the mother load of the oral literature This book presents an overview of African literature as well as a comprehensive bibliography primarily of English language sources Accessed by subject author and title indexes Black Literature Criticism Jelena O. Krstovic, 2008 Focuses on writers and works published since 1950 The majority of the authors surveyed are African American but representative African and Caribbean authors are also included Culture, Society, and Politics in Modern African Literature Tanure Ojaide, Joseph Enuenwemba Obi, 2002 A gap exists between African literary texts and their interpretation for many scholars and readers of African literature today Unfamiliar with the cultures societies and politics of Africa some readers bring a perspective to the work that is at odds with the worldview embodied by the works themselves In Culture Society and Politics in Modern African Literature Ojaide and Obi investigate the paradoxes and ironies of a literature produced in Africa and interpreted by readers and scholars African and non African who are living outside the continent Starting from the premise that literature is a cultural production of a people they look at some of the factors important for the interpretation and analysis of African literature including the colonial experience of Africans the realities of the post independence era and the economic conditions of African states This book the collaborative work of a literary scholar poet and a sociologist addresses the general and specific problems in the understanding of African literature and will be of interest to students and scholars as well as to general audiences In sum the individual chapters cover a wide range within African literature geographically and linguistically with a special focus on current trends in creative production and criticism The book is well written with clear and concise explanations of critical terms and concepts African Studies Review

Talking with African Writers Jane Wilkinson, 1992 Includes interviews with Kofi Anyidoho Kofi Awoonor Mohammed Ben Abdallah Chinua Achebe Odia Ofeimun Ben Okri Wole Soyinka Micere Githae Mugo Ngugi wa Thiong'o Mazisi Kunene Njabulo Ndebele Essop Patel Mongane Wally Serote Tsitsi Dangarembga Masaemura Zimunya Research in African Literatures, 1996 Vol 1 spring 1970 include A Bibliography of American doctoral dissertations on African literature compiled by Nancy J Schmidt Twentieth-century Caribbean and Black African Writers Bernth Lindfors, Reinhard Sander, 1992 Essays on the post colonial Anglophone writers from Africa and the Caribbean and their works Black African Literature in English, 1987-1991 Bernth Lindfors, 1995 Black African Literature in English 1987 1991 is the continuation of the 1982 1986 and earlier volumes compiled by Bernth Lindfors and lists all the important works produced on Anglophone black African literature published between 1987 and 1991 Containing almost 9 000 entries some of which are annotated to identify the authors discussed it covers books and periodical articles as well as providing selective coverage of other relevant sources of informed commentary Also included are a very substantial number of articles which have appeared in African newspapers and magazines Papers in Comparative Literature: African literatures, remembrances and

constructions Amiya Deba,1992 Remembering the Nation, Dismembering Women? Meg Samuelson,2007 Remembering the Nation Dismembering Women explores the ways in which the imaginative reconstruction of post apartheid South Africa as rainbow nation has been produced from images of women that dismember their bodies and disremember their historical presence From Krotoa Eva and Sarah Bartmann to Nongqawuse and Winnie Mandela Samuelson tackles the figurations of some of the most controversial and significant women in the making of modern South Africa Drawing on feminist postcolonial and post structuralist theory and close textual readings of literary and cultural texts produced during the first decade of democracy her analysis offers a provocative critique of the formation of nationalist and feminist collectivities The book explores the constraints of subjection and the performative power of subjectivity as well as the ways in which women have been able to form collectivities on new terms Book jacket Index to Black Periodicals ,1991 Index to Black Periodicals 1989 G. K. Hall and Co. Staff,1992 Emerging Perspectives on Buchi Emecheta Marie Umeh,1996 This book is about Marie Umeh who specializes in Literature of the African World Emecheta s astonishing achievements in fiction autobiography children s literature and drama will now find the readers they so clearly deserve Confronting Twenty-first Century Challenges ,2004 Mapping Intersections Anne V. Adams,Janis Alene Mayes,1998 This book takes on the challenge What roles can and should African literature play in Africa s development From a variety of critical stances and perspectives the concepts of literature and of development are theorized to include and extend beyond inherited concepts and boundaries in the Humanities and the Social Sciences and thus to engage peoples everyday life experiences Approaches to the question of Africa s literature and its development range from African feminism or feminist practices to the economics and politics of public access to knowledge information and literature to communication networks and use of African languages in national education policies Twenty essays constitute the volume s four parts which focus on Diverse conceptualizations of African literature and development Critical studies of specific writers works linking their artistic development with issues and events of social or political development A philosophical consideration of the development s relationship to literature Models of activist pedagogy in African literatureThe structure of this volume is encompassed by two roundtable transcriptions with writers and critics for whom African literature and Africa s development is part of a larger struggle to create new space in which to thrive and envision new life inside and outside the academy Development Dialogue ,1988
