Criticism in Action Dena Goodman, 2019-05-15 Dena Goodman here offers a fresh explanation of how critical theory broke out of the mold of an earlier tradition of discourse the mirror for princes genre and shaped its own course in the eighteenth century Criticism in Action provides a historical analysis of French Enlightenment texts as actions and as the focus of critical activity in which writers and their potential readers participate Goodman approaches texts as forces that shape the thinking and acting of the individuals engaged in the act of reading and presents new interpretations of major Enlightenment texts by Montesquieu Rousseau and Diderot Reviewing Political Criticism Elisabeth K.

Chaves, 2016-04-08 Reviewing Political Criticism examines the rise of the review form of journal publication from the early eighteenth to the early twenty first centuries The review belongs to a long tradition of written political criticism that first advised then revised and with the increased confidence afforded to civil society by the rise of market capitalism subsequently challenged and even transformed the state's view on what and how it governed Chaves investigates the crucial nexus of intellectual debate with political judgment over this time and highlights the review's central role in upholding this connection Focusing upon critical moments that required the exercise of political judgment the book explains this journal form as a means of political practice one that essentially re-views the state's view of how society should be ordered To understand critical activity one must reflect on where this activity takes place on the institutions of criticism that sustain it Referred to by some as the natural habitat of intellectuals journals as the institutionalized sites of theoretical discourse are often overlooked This groundbreaking book offers a concentrated critique of the review form of journal publication as a medium for political thought and action as a decisive site for political judgment by the state's conservers and critics Commerce and Its

Howe,2004 Between the Declaration of Independence and the federal constitution the American revolutionary generation produced an enormous body of writing on political matters The author offers a reassessment of the way America s founders used and understood the language of politics     The Brokered World Simon Schaffer,2009 Collection of essays focusing on the roles of intermediaries such as brokers and spies messengers and translators missionaries and entrepreneurs in linking different parts of the ever more densely entangled systems of knowledge production and circulation at a key moment in the development of global scientific commercial and political systems The period 1770 1820 was decisive for the reformation of imperial projects in the wake of military catastrophe and politico economic crisis both in the Atlantic and the Asian Pacific spheres economic and political worlds dominated by complex trade systems and violent contest This conjuncture also saw the overhaul of networks and institutions of natural knowledge whether commercial voluntary or organs of state Both the industrial and the second scientific revolutions have been dated to this moment New and decisive relations were forged between different cultures knowledge carriers The authors consider knowledge movements of the epoch that escape simple models of metropolitan centre and remote colonial periphery They question the immutable character of mediators and agents in knowledge communication     Epistolary fictions in the Republic of Letters Elizabeth Heckendorn Cook,1990     Double Dialectics Claudia Moscovici,2002 Double Dialectics uses a dialectical method of reading to show the resonance between Enlightenment and postmodern speculations about the nature of knowledge and ethics Further it offers a possible answer to the question of which Enlightenment values are worth preserving Double Dialectics shows that different kinds of Enlightenment discourse chart a nuanced path that mediates between relativism and objectivism offering creative avenues of thought for contemporary ethical and epistemological problems     Women and Medicine in the French Enlightenment Lindsay Blake Wilson,1993 In Women and Medicine in the French Enlightenment Lindsay Wilson takes a new approach to the social history of medicine by focusing on the key role that women played as both providers and recipients of health care during the Ancien Regime Wilson pays special attention to three medical controversies involving maladies des femmes in eighteenth century France the miraculous cures claimed by the Convulsionaries of St Medard the uncertainty over the maximum length of pregnancy and its implications for the legitimacy of heirs and the debate over the medical effectiveness of mesmerism Wilson s analysis of these debates reveals how social and political concerns affected the medical community s efforts to establish an enlightened science of medicine which would in turn legitimize its own authority But because the issues of legitimacy hierarchy and authority raised by the medical causes celebres resonated so deeply throughout French society debate extended far beyond medical circles to an increasingly engaged public Such debate reflected a significant shift in the center of politics from the institutions of court academy and parlement to journals theaters and the streets Wilson's description of these debates provides insight into the forces that were transforming the family the church corporate society and the state on the eve of the Revolution She argues for a re assessment of a period that has been all too easily categorized as an age of triumph either for enlightenment or for repression Her work also offers concrete examples of the ways in which sexual symbolism can be employed to maintain social order or promote change Based on medical treatises medical topographies official reports judicial documents physicians correspondence and memoirs of eighteenth century women Women and Medicine in the French Enlightenment is a thoroughly interdisciplinary work that will appeal to anyone with an interest in the social history of medicine women's studies Enlightenment thought and French social history BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Critical Self-fashioning Jürgen Pieters,1999 The French Revolution and Napoleonic Era Owen Connelly,1991 This classic work on the French Revolution and Napoleonic Era has been thoroughly updated to reflect the most recent scholarship on a magnificently complex epoch The text is appropriate for the upper level history course titled French Revolution and Napoleonic Era Its primary purpose is to give undergraduate students the generally accepted story of the Era and furnish them with the basic knowledge to put in context the more sophisticated works listed in the bibliography Restoring the Golden Age Dan Edelstein,2004 Sites of the Spectator Suzanne Rodin Pucci,2001 Proceedings and Addresses of the American Philosophical Association American Philosophical Association,1989 List of members in v 1 After Franklin Stephen Carl Arch,2001 An analysis of the foundations of autobiography in America Proceedings Consortium on Revolutionary Europe, 1750-1850,1973
