Critiques of Christianity in African Literature Jesse Ndwiga Kanyua Mugambi, J. N. Kanyua Mugambi, 1992 From Historical to Critical Post-Colonial Theology Robert S. Heaney, 2015-11-06 What is post colonial theology How does it relate to theology that emerged in historically colonial situations These are two questions that get to the heart of Robert S Heaney s work as he considers the extent to which theologians predating the emergence of post colonial theology might be considered as precursory to this theological movement Heaney argues that the work of innovative theologians John S Mbiti and Jesse N K Mugambi important in their own right must now also be considered in relation to the continued emergence of post colonial theology When this is done fresh perspectives on both the nature of post colonial theology and contextual theology emerge Through a sympathetic and critical reading of Mbiti and Mugambi Heaney offers a series of constructive moves that counter the ongoing temptation toward acontextualism that continues to haunt theology both in the North and in the South Religion and Social Reconstruction in Africa Elias Kifon Bongmba, 2018-06-13 Religion has played a major role in both the division and unification of peoples and countries within Africa Its capacity to cause and to heal societal rifts has been well documented This book addresses this powerful societal force and explores the implications of a theology of reconstruction most notably articulated by Jesse Mugambi This way of thinking seeks to build on liberation theology aiming to encourage the rebuilding of African society on its own terms An international panel of contributors bring an interdisciplinary perspective to the issues around reconstructing the religious elements of African society Looking at issues of reconciliation postcolonialism and indigenous spirituality among others they show that Mugambi s cultural and theological insight has the potential to revolutionise the way people in Africa address this issue This is a fascinating exploration of the religious facets of African life As such it will be of great interest to scholars of religious studies theology and African studies

Stories from the Fireplace Tekletsadik Belachew, 2020-12-22 This book is an interdisciplinary theological exploration of Haile Gerima s cinema an Ethiopian filmmaker and storyteller who successfully translated African folkloric orality and wove other indigenous art forms into the language of cinema Gerima s five decades legacy of Pan African cinema embodies symbolic resistance against Afro pessimistic and stereotypical mis representations both manifestations of neo colonialism In response he uses camera as a weapon to resist exotic otherness and alienation invented by conventional cinema Through an alternative moving pictures he depicted dignified images of Africa towards decolonising cinema and liberating the mind His memory films achieves archiving the stories of the people of African descent Gerima who stands in par with great African film griots such as Ousmane Sembene the father of African cinema and Med Hondo deserves further interdisciplinary reflections Gerima s Triangular cinema and imperfect cinema are inspired from indigenous values and cultural products such as holy icons and fireplace stories His works foster asserting identity of the self maintaining the right to difference and embracing ubuntu like human personhood They are essential acts in the 21st century Like theology cinema alters a way of life human experiences imaginations and narrative identity This book engages with the works and thoughts of Gerima towards re imaging Africa through cinematic narratives in being and becoming an African Religion and Development in Africa Ezra Chitando,Masiwa Ragies Gunda ,Lovemore Togarasei,2020-06-09 What is development Who defines that one community country is developed while another community country is under developed What is the relationship between religion and development Does religion contribute to development or underdevelopment in Africa These and related questions elicit quite charged reactions in African studies development studies political science and related fields Africa s own history including the memory of marginalisation slavery and exploitation by global powers ensures that virtually every discussion on development is characterised by a lot of emotions and conflicting views In this volume scholars from various African countries and many different religions and denominations contribute to this debate Humble Confidence Benno van den Toren,Kang-San Tan,2022-12-20 Benno van den Toren and Kang San Tan provide a global intercultural model of apologetics as crosscultural dialogue and accountable witness Filled with Scriptural examples and real world experiences this is a conversational patient holistic and embodied guide to creating true dialogue in our multicultural multifait world
