Croatia and Slovenia at the End and After the Second World War (1944-1945) Blanka Matkovich, 2017-10-01 This book focuses on the events that took place in late 1944 and 1945 in Croatia and Slovenia when the intensity of violence was strongest At that time the Communist Party of Yugoslavia KPJ assisted by the People s Liberation Army of Yugoslavia the Yugoslav Army the Department for the Protection of the People OZNA and the Corps of People s Defence of Yugoslavia KNOJ conducted organized terror not only by intimidation persecution torture and imprisonment but also by the execution of a large number of citizens perceived by the KPJ as disloyal passive ideological enemies or class enemies However investigating war and post war crimes committed by communist regime was not possible until 1990 after the democratic changes in Yugoslavia This book is based on documents kept in the archives of Croatia Slovenia the UK and Serbia Many of them especially those in Croatia recently became available to the public which makes them extremely valuable source of data to the academics and students in this field and which shed new light on these historical events The Communist Party in the former Yugoslavia was an organization which used all available means to seize and keep power including terror and mass murder especially between autumn 1944 and summer 1945 when mass killings occurred across the country However in the Soviet sphere of influence investigating war and post war crimes committed by communist regimes was not possible until 1990 This project not only covers new ground in the research into communist war crimes at the end of and after the Second World War but also contributes to coming to terms with the past in the successor states of Yugoslavia by studying one of the most controversial episodes in the contemporary history of the Balkans Since the October Revolution when for the first time in history a Marxist party seized state power communist regimes have influenced the lives of more than a billion people caused millions of deaths and violated the human rights of countless people However in the Soviet sphere of influence and in Yugoslavia investigating war and post war crimes committed by communist regimes was not possible until 1990 after the democratic changes in Eastern Europe Resolution 1481 2006 of the Council of Europe

Parliamentary Assembly strongly condemned human rights violations committed by totalitarian communist regimes and the 2008 Prague Declaration on European Conscience and Communism stated that these crimes were comparable with Nazi crimes but very few people have been tried for committing such crimes Nevertheless 25 years later in former Yugoslav republics this topic is still a matter of political and scientific debates

The Border Dispute Between Croatia and Slovenia Thomas Bickl, 2020-10-01 This book re constructs the evolution of the border conflict between Croatia and Slovenia The aim is to reveal the processes at work the historical and contemporary circumstances and the strategies and motives of the actors involved The book highlights the roles of the European Union and of judicial third parties in the management of the conflict Further it considers the precedent setting value of the Slovenian Croatian conflict the attempts at its resolution and what they mean for the ongoing and prospective EU enlargement in South East Europe Internal documents and interviews are at the heart of this process tracing analysis which discusses the third party roles of the European Commission and the EU Council Presidency in 2008 2009 as a mediator facilitator in the drafting stages of the arbitration agreement and the judicial work of the arbitration tribunal and the EU Court of Justice Lastly the book offers policy recommendations on how to strengthen dispute resolution and solve current bilateral issues in the EU accession process

Conflict Areas in the Balkans

Pinar Yürür, Arda Özkan, 2020-10-27 The situation in the Balkans such as the solution to the status of Kosovo is currently the largest international political problem in Europe with the potential to burst into a world crisis regarding the Eastern Western relations On the other hand a successful solution to the problem in the Balkans could serve as a model for solving the Muslim Christian tensions elsewhere in the world It is the intention of this book to contribute proposals for solutions to the problems of Balkans The starting principle for the solutions to be effective is that they should come in a natural way from the people below and should not be enforced by the political elites from above Based on self determination of nations as a starting principle they should encourage intra regional cooperation among the regional entities economic cultural sport as a basis for political social understanding and cooperation secondly accelerate their economic political and social development and thirdly as a final step enable the inclusion of the Balkan countries into the European Union Rick Steves' Croatia and Slovenia
