Elastic Language in Persuasion and Comforting Grace Zhang, Vahid Parvaresh, 2019-09-28 This innovative book examines the discourse of reality television and the elasticity of language in the popular talent show The Voice from a cross cultural perspective. Analysing how and why elastic language is used in persuasion and comforting, a comparison between Chinese and English is made, and the authors highlight the special role that elastic language plays in effective interactions and strategic communication. Through the lens of the language variance of two of the world's most commonly spoken languages, the insights and resources provided by this book are expected to advance knowledge in the fields of contrastive pragmatics and cross cultural communication and inform strategies in bridging different cultures.
