Crobbcurrents In Contemporary Australian Art:

Cross-currents in Contemporary Australian Art Traudi Allen, 1998 Cross-Currents in Contemporary Australian Art, 2001 Australian Artists in the Contemporary Museum Jennifer Barrett, Jacqueline Millner, 2016-12-05

This unique book proposes a re reading of the relationship between artists and the contemporary museum In Australia in particular the museum has played a significant role in the colonial project and this has generally been considered as the predominant mode of artists engagement with such institutions and collections Australian Artists in the Contemporary Museum expands the post colonial frame of reference used to interpret this work to demonstrate the broader implications of the relationship between artists and the museum and thus to offer an alternative way of understanding recent contemporary practices The authors central argument is that artists engagement with the museum has shifted from politically motivated critique taking place in museums of fine art towards interventions taking place in non art museums that focus on the creation of knowledge more broadly Such interventions assume a number of forms including the artist acting as curator art works that highlight the use of taxonomic modes of display and categorization and the re consideration of the aesthetics of collections to suggest different ways of interpreting objects and their history Central to these interventions is the challenge to better connect the museum and its public The book will be essential reading for scholars professionals and students in the fields of contemporary art and museum studies art history and in the museum sector These include artists curators museum and gallery professionals postgraduate researchers art historians designers and design scholars art and museum educators and students of visual art art history and museum studies This project has been assisted by the Australian government through the Australia Council for the Arts its arts funding and advisory body The Australian Art Field Tony Bennett, Deborah Stevenson, Fred Myers, Tamara Winikoff, 2020-05-25 This book brings together leading scholars and practitioners to take stock of the frictions generated by a tumultuous time in the Australian art field and to probe what the crises might mean for the future of the arts in Australia Specific topics include national and international art markets art practices in their broader social and political contexts social relations and institutions and their role in contemporary Australian art the policy regimes and funding programmes of Australian governments and national and international art markets In addition the collection will pay detailed attention to the field of indigenous art and the work of Indigenous artists This book will be of interest to scholars in contemporary art art history cultural studies and Indigenous peoples Cross Currents, 2007 An exhibition catalogue of Australian 20th and 21st Century Art Provided by publisher Making it New Glenn Barkley, 2009 When Modern Became Contemporary Art Charles Green, Heather Barker, 2024-09-19 This book is a portrait of the period when modern art became contemporary art It explores how and why writers and artists in Australia argued over the idea of a distinctively Australian modern and then postmodern art from 1962 the date of publication of a foundational book Australian Painting 1788 1960 up to 1988 the year of the Australian Bicentennial Across nine chapters about art exhibitions curators and critics

this book describes the shift from modern art to contemporary art through the successive attempts to define a place in the world for Australian art But by 1988 Australian art looked less and less like a viable tradition inside which to interpret our art Instead vast gaps appeared since mostly male and often older White writers had limited their horizons to White Australia alone National stories by White men like borders had less and less explanatory value Underneath this a perplexing subject remained the absence of Aboriginal art in understanding what Australian art was during the period that established the idea of a distinctive Australian modern and then contemporary art This book reflects on why the embrace of Aboriginal art was so late in art museums and histories of Australian art arguing that this was because it was not part of a national story dominated by colonial then neo colonial dependency It is important reading for all scholars of both global and Australian art and for curators and artists

String Theory Glenn Barkley, Tony Albert, Tess Allas, Robyn McKenzie, Richard Bell, Vernon Ah Kee, Megan Robson, Noongar Doll Makers, Yarrenyty-Arltere Artists, Tjanpi Desert Weavers, 2013 string theory is a scientific term that speculates on the theory of everything In this exhibition we take it to mean the open ended expansion and connections of ideas stories and techniques See extraordinary pieces from a diverse range of Aboriginal artists working with expanded notions of textile and craft traditions Beep ... Crackle Stuart Koop, 2008-01-01 Showcases the work of seventeen contemporary Australian artists It includes short essays on each artist by Stuart Koop and lots of pictures

Place, Taste and Tradition Bernard Smith, 1945 Contemporary Australian Art, 1960 Interesting Times Russell Storer, 2005 Its thematic focus is on the varied ways artists in Australia today convey social and political ideas through their work This catalogue is an important component of the project contextualising the exhibition with a range of commissioned writing that includes thematic essays on each participating artist Australian Contemporary Drawing Arthur McIntyre, 1988 Australian Perspecta, 1981 Studio John McDonald, 2007 Studio presents an extraordinary anthology of visual and verbal insights into the way paintings are made and the complex blend of motivation and inspiration that sustains the painter in his or her solitary search for meaning Australiana to Zeitgeist Melissa Loughnan, 2017 Many critics have traditionally dismissed Australian art as derivative Australiana to Zeitgeist offers an immersive look at a new breed of early career Australian artists proving them wrong Championing underrepresented and often unrepresented up and comers it delves into the various themes shaping the Australian psyche and showcases not only contemporary artists but also artists who are making work that is new and relevant From a range of disciplines and working across multiple mediums these rising stars are making waves here and offshore and setting the direction for generations to follow From Australiana to Zeitgeist with Kitsch Land Art and Xerox in between this book brings together the work of 78 dynamic Australian artists you need to know now Crossing Cultures Toledo Museum of Art, 2013 Shell Collection of Contemporary Australian Art Shell Collection of Contemporary Australian Art, An Exhibition of Contemporary Australian Art, 1948 The Centre Alison Carroll, Art gallery of South Australia (Adélaïde, Australie), 1984
