OUTsider Ruth Marimo, 2014-04-11 In Ruth Marimo's heartfelt autobiography readers are introduced to a fierce forthright woman who has confronted life's obstacles and has overcome them with strength, courage, and honesty. Born in Zimbabwe, Marimo has traveled the world, gaining insight and deep appreciation for the plight of the illegal immigrant. OUTsider chronicles the journey of Ruth Marimo, who traveled from Africa to the United States, from abused wife to an out lesbian activist, from a life of fear to one filled with joy. Her trek from the shadows of uncertainty and shame into the bright light of self acceptance and fulfillment is a story that is richly rewarding and uniquely compelling Crossing Borders

, 1994* Crossing Borders Judith Caesar, 1999-08-01 In the five years that Judith Caesar taught literature in Saudi Arabia and Egypt during the 1980s, key events took place that changed the face of Middle Eastern politics. Seen through the eyes of many Westerners, the assassination of Anwar Sadat, the Israeli invasion of Lebanon, and the Intifada were incidents reflective of a seemingly volatile and aggressive culture. But Caesar saw these events from another perspective. Part memoir and part travelogue, Crossing Borders conveys simply and eloquently the voices of the people and the cultures Caesar came to know during her time in the Arab world. Some of her writings in this book have first appeared in publications such as the Christian Science Monitor. In the tradition of the best writings on foreign places, Caesar's narrative is both an inward as well as an outward journey of discovery. In addition to the political reverberations taking place around her, she writes of the misconceptions generated by both the Saudi and the American press. In All the News That's Fit to Print, Caesar notes wildly disparate interpretations of news stories when they are translated from one language to another. Caesar also demonstrates an openness in discovering the meaning inherent in the simplest daily tasks. She focuses on what is politically significant in what people do every day, such as drinking tea, shopping, and teaching. Crossing Borders will appeal to people interested in a non-dogmatic description of the Middle East and to those who love good travel writing Crossing Borders S. Generic

Instability and Identity in the Contemporary Novel

Madelena Gonzalez,2009-12-14

Contemporary aesthetics is characterized by generic mixing on the level of both form and content The barriers between different media and different genres have been broken down in all literary art forms whether it be theatre poetry or the novel While the publishing industry is increasingly keen to label novels according to genre or sub genre Chick Lit Lad Lit Gay fiction Scottish fiction New Historical Fiction Crime fiction Post 9 11 Fiction the novel itself and novelists persist in resisting generic categorizations as well as inviting them Is this a move towards a new artistic liberty or does it simply testify to a confusion of identity The aesthetic supermarket evoked by Lodge in 1992 does indeed seem to sum up the variety of choices open to writers of fiction today and a literary landscape characterized by crossover and hybridization The familiar dialectic of realism versus experimentation has segued into a middle ground of consensus which is neither radical nor populist but both at the same time The techniques of postmodernism have become selling points for novels and the Postmodern Condition itself seems little more than a narrative posture marketed for an increasingly wide audience Whether they have recourse to a repertoire of imposture Amis Self Winterson as Richard Bradford would have it The Novel Now 2007 in other words the abandonment of any obligation to explain or justify their excursions from credulity and mimesis or like the New Puritans make use of narrative minimalism in order to foreground their own peculiarities contemporary novelists consistently draw attention to the fundamental instability of narrative process and genre The much feared apocalypse of the novel has failed to take place with the arrival of the new millennium but generic game playing and flickering narrative hesitation and uncertainty continue to pose the question of what constitutes a novel today and to challenge its identity in a world where all culture is increasingly public increasingly contested and increasingly multifarious Thanks to theoretical approaches as well as analyses of specific works this collection of essays aims to examine the concepts of generic instability and cross fertilization of narrative postures and impostures and their constant redefinition of identity which contaminates the very concept of genre It demonstrates the diversity of generic practices in the novel today and furnishes us with undeniable evidence of how generic instability is fundamentally constitutive of the contemporary novel's identity

Multi-Genre Literary Frameworks for Trans* Studies Jesse Jack, 2024-11-25 Mapping Multi Genre Literary Frameworks for Trans Studies Without Permanence examines the socio political contexts that have necessitated new twenty first century methods in transgender trans counter storytelling Jesse Jack articulates the role that counter narration serves in representing the empirical needs and realities of gender transing communities and in modeling negotiations between compliance and resistance being out and going stealth As the author contends gender transing communities in the West have been particularly constrained by exceptionalisms of permanence through which individuals who access permanent changes to gender markers on documents of origin e.g birth certificates and embodiment e.g gender affirming care are portrayed throughout the media state surveillance protocols and medical rubrics as authentic compliant and non threatening in contradistinction to more ambiguously gendered frequently racialized and sexualized persons Permanence becomes the exception to the rule that ambiguity presents a threat Jack argues that exceptional permanence emerged through several mutually reinforcing areas of study anthropology and the archive the genre of the trans autobiography sexology migration and surveillance and transgender exclusionary feminisms Through literary criticism this book examines emergent trans counterstories that construct new intertextual and cross genre literary forms designed to recognize ambiguity and mitigate the multifaceted demands and origins of permanence
