you say Well wait till you hit 90 and realize you still want to live that even though you're way past menopause you want another child and that even though your breasts make tracks in the mud you still want a lover and that even though your hands shake there are still things that you didn't get to do like going to the Olympics and bringing home the gold things you want to do that you will do Then see what you're capable of And you'll be perfectly sane Senility temporary insanity it's all bull Old folks know exactly what they're doing One of the good parts about being an old fart is that you have a license to be loony tunes to live the wild way you didn't have the balls for before At 90 you see your dignity's gone the way of dirty diapers and your life is heading the same way fast You have nothing to lose except the moment From A Different Woman by Joan Kip My relationship with Seth is I tell him my great experiment He calls me on every one of my tightly held protections and his pleasure in meeting my body is matched by my own freedom to respond Ours is a relationship with no hidden agenda no commitments Our occasional evenings of uncomplicated delight are the intertwining of two desires who touch down and embrace one another knowing they will meet again sometime somewhere And while sex is not absent from our meetings it is rather my compelling ache to be touched and held and to touch and hold that pulls me back each time to Seth Like the newly born whose being depends upon the enfolding presence of a parent those of us who are now so old glow more warmly when we too may share our tenderness Still Going Strong counters demeaning stereotypes of little old ladies by offering positive empowering views of women over fifty It is a hopeful voice that speaks to any woman facing her own future

Mothers, Our Selves Karen J. Donnelly, J. B. Bernstein, 1996-04-30 Finally we have an inclusive collection that brings motherhood into the fold of feminism As we accede to our universal origins in the mother we witness the infinite variety of experiences awarded the offspring Spectrums of gender race age religion class and nation give voice in Donnelly and Bernstein's anthology as more than 80 writers contribute poetry essays memoirs and short fiction Some of the artists are well known including Maya Angelou Galway Kinnell Marge Piercy Margaret Atwood and Robert Bly while others are less known All attest to the experience of motherhood as primal Writing as mothers as children to their mothers and as close observers women and men create selections that fall into three trimesters of involvement the experiences of going beyond the self beyond reflection and finally beyond the whole The many shades of emotional experience from ecstasy to horror and all points in between are portrayed in words and photographs As images take shape nightmares are relived emotions flow abundantly and details come into focus as the cathartic effect of the writing builds Painting motherhood as much more than just a pretty picture the editors purpose is clearly to bring us all together under a multi faceted umbrella of empathy and to unite us in the diversity of the experience of motherhood
