The Dissenting Voice Martin S. Stabb, 2014-05-23 Political social and aesthetic change marked Latin American society in the years between 1960 and 1985 In this book Martin Stabb explores how these changes made their way into the essayistic writings of twenty six Spanish American intellectuals Stabb posits that dissent against ideology against simplistic notions of technological progress against urban values and even against the direct linear expository style of the essay itself characterizes the work of these contemporary essayists. He draws his examples from major canonical figures including Paz Vargas Llosa, Fuentes and Cortázar and from lesser known writers who merit a wider readership such as Monterroso, Zaid Edwards and Ibarra Engoitia. This exploration overturns many conventional assumptions about Latin American intellectuals and also highlights some of the other achievements of authors famous primarily for novels or short stories.

Arts of Address Monique Roelofs, 2020-01-21. Modes of address are forms of signification that we direct at living beings, things and places and they at us and at each other. Seeing is a form of address. So are speaking, singing and painting. Initiating or responding to such calls, we participate in encounters with the world. Widely used yet less often examined in its own right, the notion of address cries out for analysis. Monique Roelofs offers a pathbreaking systematic model of the field of address and puts it to work in the arts, critical theory and social life. She shows how address props up finely hewn modalities of relationality, agency and normativity. Address exceeds a one-on-one pairing of cultural productions with their audiences. As ardently energizing tiny slippages and snippets as fueling larger impulses in the society it activates and re-aestheticizes registers of race, gender, class, coloniality and cosmopolitanism. In readings of writers and artists ranging from Julio Cortázar to Jamaica Kincaid and from Martha Rosler to Pope L. Roelofs demonstrates the centrality of address to freedom and a critical political aesthetics. Under the banner of a unified concept of address, Hume, Kant and Foucault strike up conversations with Benjamin, Barthes, Althusser, Fanon, Anzaldúa and Butler. Drawing on a wide array of artistic and theoretical sources and challenging disciplinary boundaries, the book illuminates address's significance to cultural existence and to our reflexive aesthetic engagement in it. Keeping the reader on the lookout for flash fiction that pops up out of nowhere and for insurgent whisperings that take to the air. Arts of Address.
