Introduction to Third World Theologies John Parratt, 2004-06-10 The greatest change which has come about in Christian theology over the last generation has been the explosion of contextual theologies in different parts of the world This book provides an overview of the main trends and contributions to Christian thought of Third World theologies It sets out the common context of these theologies in their experience of colonialism and western missions and suggests that they have forged new ways of doing theology which are quite distinct from the theological traditions of the western world With key contributions from experts in their fields on Latin America India East Asia West and East Africa Southern Africa and the Caribbean this book situates Christian thought in the cultural and socio political contexts of their respective regions and demonstrates how Third World theologies are providing different perspectives on what it means to be a Christian in today's global world Unmasking Latinx Ministry for Episcopalians Carla E. Roland Guzmán, 2020-02-17 A look through a Latinx lens at how the Episcopal Anglican church can minister to and with the Latinx community Unmasking Latinx Ministry is a unique look at the history of the Episcopal Church in the last fifty years including a bold and insightful analysis of the institutionalization of Latinx ministries This history is contextualized within the struggles of the Episcopal Church in terms of race gender and sexuality Through a Latinx lens the author brings fresh eyes to the challenges faced by the Episcopal Church's ministry with and among Latinx persons and communities Along with the historical analysis and insight the author brings a background and formation in Episcopal churches in Puerto Rico Texas California and Central New York as well as more than fifteen years of experience in a multicultural and multiracial monolingual and bilingual congregations in New York City Combining this history and ministry experience the author explores specific areas where Episcopal Anglican traditions speak to Latinx ministries and what Latinx persons and communities offer the Episcopal Church today Disciples of All
