Sibling Interaction Across Cultures Patricia G. Zukow,2012-12-06 Sibling Interaction Across Cultures is a collection of studies focusing on the role siblings play in the social emotional and cognitive development of their younger siblings Unlike much previous research on sibling relationships these studies share the underlying assumption that social interaction plays a significant role in the acquisition and transmission of cultural knowledge and social understanding The contributors evaluate the advantages as well as limitations of current methodological issues directly affecting sibling research and assess the various theoretical perspectives underpinning these methodologies Drawing from empirical cross and intra cultural research this volume lays new groundwork for identifying universal environmental and culture specific aspects of the role of siblings in child development Resources in Education ,1979 Handbook of Parenting: Being and becoming a parent Marc H. Bornstein,2002 Despite the fact that most people become parents and everyone who has ever lived has had parents parenting remains a mystifying subject about which almost everyone has opinions but about which few people agree Striking permutations on the theme of parenting are emerging single parenthood blended families lesbian and gay parents and teen versus fifties first time moms and dads Divided into four volumes the Handbook of Parenting is concerned with different types of parents basic characteristics of parenting forces that shape parenting problems faced by parents and the practical sides of parenting Contributors have worked in different ways toward understanding all of these diverse aspects of parenting and look to the most recent research and thinking in the field to shed light on many topics every parent has wondered about Because development is too subtle dynamic and intricate to admit that parental caregiving alone determines the course and outcome of ontogeny Children Today ,1979 Handbook of Parenting Marc H. Bornstein,2005-02-16 Please see Volume I for a full description and table of contents for all four volumes Childhood and Adolescence Uwe Peter Gielen,Jaipaul L. Roopnarine,2004 Distinguished authors detail cross cultural issues affecting youngsters including parenting practices gender role socialization risk and resilience in childhood and more The text challenges existing beliefs about childhood development offers current research on childrearing and socialization practices in diverse cultures and examines social and educational policies as they relate to children and adolescents Socialization practices within families communities and educational settings are included This volume which includes both field based and experimental research will appeal to practitioners scholars and students in the fields of child psychology cross cultural psychology anthropology sociology child and family studies and social work Cross Cultural Childrearing Gladys Yip,1985 Books and journal articles dealing with childrearing practices around the world Intended for teachers and others who work with children Classified arrangement Entries give bibliographical information and annotation No index Anthropology U.C.L.A. ,1981 Diversity in Early Care and Education: Honoring Differences Janet Gonzalez-Mena,2008 Diversity in Early Care and Education explores the rich diversity encountered in programs and environments for children ages birth to 8 including those serving children with special needs Child Development in Art Anna M. Kindler,1997 Mayan Studies James Loucky,Margo-Lea Hurwicz,1981 Invitation to the Life Span Kathleen Stassen Berger,2013-03-01 Edition after edition Kathleen Stassen Berger s bestselling textbooks connect all kinds of students to current state of developmental psychology in an engaging accessible culturally inclusive way Berger s Invitation to the Life Span does this in just 15 concise chapters in a presentation that meets the challenges of exploring the breadth of the life span in a single term The new edition of Invitation to the Life Span incorporates a wide range of new research especially in fast moving areas such as brain development and psychopathology while taking advantage of innovative new tools for media centered teaching and learning But throughout as always the signature voice of Kathleen Berger ties it all together with relatable explanations of scientific content wide ranging cultural examples and skill building tools for sharper observation and critical thinking The Neighborhood Walk Brenda K. Bryant,1985 Abstract This report documents children s perceptions of their involvement with self development family members and members of the community and begins to test the relation between that network and aspects of social emotional functioning during middle childhood One hundred sixty eight children residing in nonmetropolitan and rural northern California participated Each child was taken on a Neighborhood Walk and then several measures of social emotional functioning were administered Cross sectional data form the empirical basis for a developmental perspective on sources of support the structure of social emotional functioning and the relationship between sources of support and social emotional functioning during middle childhood The child s perception of support was found relevant to predicting the social emotional functioning of children growing up in relatively secure and low stress conditions in modern American sy
