

*Father forgive them;
for they don't know what they are doing.*

Christ's final words from the cross—the seven sayings from the Gospels long pondered by Christians—are both familiar and strange. They are difficult words. As Stanley Hauerwas says, "We are at once drawn to these words, yet we fear taking them in our hands."

Ideal for Lenten meditation and devotion—but powerful for reading and contemplating any time of the year—Cross-Shattered Christ offers a transformative reading of Christ's words, a reading that goes directly to the heart of the gospel. It bids us "come, draw near, fear not, and behold the mystery and the wonder of Jesus's cross."

Cross-Shattered Christ Stanley Hauerwas, 2004 A theologically rich meditative reading of Christ's final words from the cross drawing readers to devotion in Lent and throughout the church year     A Cross-Shattered Church Stanley

Hauerwas, 2009-07 Eminent theologian Stanley Hauerwas shows how the sermon is the best context for doing theology

The Dying of Jesus Owen F. Cummings, 2016-07-13 The liturgical season of Lent and Good Friday are very important for Christians as they meditate and reflect upon the dying of Jesus These are traditions that take us back to the very beginnings of the Christian tradition From early times pilgrims have made their way to the Holy Land especially Jerusalem to walk where Jesus walked and to remember his death on the cross Not everyone can go to Jerusalem and we cannot stand at the foot of the cross of Jesus but the Stations of the Cross and the Seven Last Words may take us to Jerusalem and to Calvary imaginatively

Without Apology Stanley Hauerwas, 2013-08 Sermons from one of the country's best known theologians 17 sermons from Saints and Letting Go to Recognizing Jesus Seeing Salvation and Clothe Your Ministers in Righteousness Two bonus presentations on Leadership and An Open Letter to Christians Beginning College in the appendix     Ordained

Ministry in Free Church Perspective Jan Martijn Abrahamse, 2020-10-12 In Ordained Ministry in Free Church Perspective Jan Martijn Abrahamse presents a constructive theology of ordained ministry by returning to the life and thought of the English Separatist Robert Browne c 1550 1633 This study makes a substantial contribution not only by solving one of the most thorny problems in congregational ecclesiology but also by recovering the legacy of this ecclesial pioneer Through an in depth analysis of Browne's literature the author provides a covenantal theology of ordained ministry in conversation with present day authors Stanley Hauerwas and Kevin Vanhoozer Inspired by the emerging trend of theology of retrieval Abrahamse offers a methodologically innovative way of doing systematic theology in a manner in which voices from the past can be made fruitful for today     The Work of Theology Stanley Hauerwas, 2015     War and the American Difference

Stanley Hauerwas, 2011-10 An esteemed theologian examines how American identity and America's presence in the world are shaped by war     A Revitalization of Images Gregory C. Higgins, 2019-03-05 The philosopher theologian and biblical scholar Austin Farrer 1904 1968 highlighted in his various writings the central role that images play in the interpretation of biblical writings the construction of theological arguments and the descriptions of the Christian spiritual life Theologians down through the centuries have sought to revitalize the central biblical images as they addressed the pressing theological moral and spiritual questions of their day A Revitalization of Images offers students the opportunity to participate in this ongoing creative engagement with ten dominant biblical images that continue to shape the church's beliefs and practices as well as each Christian's own spiritual journey Sound theology is rooted in Scripture conversant with past thinkers and engaged in the present life of the church This dynamic directly informs Revitalization In each chapter we begin with a biblical image that has figured prominently in the Christian theological tradition Next we examine two prominent voices from the Christian tradition who have drawn upon the image when crafting a compelling vision of the Christian life We then turn our attention to a contemporary thinker who has incorporated or critiqued the image in his or her own theological work This discussion is set within the current spectrum of theological positions including orthodox liberal postliberal and postmodern perspectives
