Literacy Development in A Multilingual Context Aydin Y.

Durgunoglu, Ludo Verhoeven, 2013-12-16 During the past decades literacy has gradually become a major concern all over the world. Though there is a great diversity in both the distribution and degree of literacy in different countries, there has been an increasing awareness of the number of illiterates and the consequences of being illiterate. However, literacy is no longer seen as a universal trait. When one focuses on culturally sensitive accounts of reading and writing practices, the concept of literacy as a single trait does not seem very feasible. A multiplicity of literacy practices can be distinguished which are related to specific cultural contexts and associated with relations of power and ideology. As such, literacy can be seen as a lifelong context-bound set of practices in which an individual's needs vary with time and place. This volume explores the use of literacy outside the mainstream in different contexts throughout the world. It is divided into four sections. Section 1 presents an anthropological perspective analyzing the society and the individual in a society. Section 2 presents a psychological perspective focusing on the individuals themselves and analyzing the cognitive and affective development of young children as they acquire literacy in their first and second languages. Section 3 presents an educational perspective highlighting the variations in educational approaches in different societies as well as the outcomes of these approaches. Section 4 summarizes the studies presented in this volume. Both theoretical issues and educational implications related to the development of literacy in two languages are discussed. An attempt is also made to open up new directions in the study of literacy development in multilingual contexts by bringing these various disciplinary perspectives together. Dialogue for Intercultural Understanding Fiona Maine, Maria Vrikki, 2021-03-26 This open access book is a result of an extensive ambitious and wide-ranging pan-European project focusing on the development of children and young people's cultural literacy and what it means to be European in the 21st century, prioritising intercultural dialogue and mutual understanding. The Horizon 2020 funded 3-year Dialogue and Argumentation for cultural Literacy Learning DIALLS project included ten partners from countries in and around Europe with the aim to centralise co-constructive dialogue as a main cultural literacy value and to promote tolerance, empathy and inclusion. This is achieved through teaching children in schools from a young age to engage together in discussions where they may have differing viewpoints or perspectives to enable a growing awareness of their own cultural identities and those of others. Central to the project is children's engagement with wordless picture books and films which are used as stimuli for discussions around core cultural themes such as social responsibility, living together and sustainable development. In order to enable intercultural dialogue in action, the project developed an online platform as a tool for engagement across classes and which this book elaborates on. The book explores themes underpinning this unique interdisciplinary project, drawing together scholars from cultural studies, civics education and linguistics, psychologists, socio-cultural literacy researchers, teacher educators and digital learning experts. Each chapter of the book explores a theme that is common to the project and celebrates its interdisciplinarity by exploring these themes through different lenses. Global Citizenship for Adult Education Petra A. Robinson, Kamala V. Williams, Maja Stojanović, 2021-07-19 This book promotes the development of nontraditional literacies in adult education especially as these critical literacies relate to global citizenship equity and social justice As this edited collection argues a rapidly changing global environment and proliferation of new media technologies have greatly expanded the kinds of literacies that one requires in order to be an engaged global citizen It is imperative for adult educators and learners to understand systems organizations and relationships that influence our lives as citizens of the world By compiling a comprehensive list of foundational sociocultural technological and informational psychosocial and environmental and social justice literacies this volume offers readers theoretical foundations practical strategies and additional resources Thesaurus of ERIC Descriptors ,1995 4th 7th eds contain a special chapter on The role and function of the thesaurus in education by Frederick Goodman Literacy Across Languages and Cultures Bernardo M. Ferdman, Rose-Marie Weber, Arnulfo G. Ramirez, 1994-03-08 This book examines the linkage between literacy and linguistic diversity embedding them in their social and cultural contexts It illustrates that a more complete understanding of literacy among diverse populations and in multicultural societies requires attention to issues of literacy per se as well as to improving an educational process that has relevance beyond members of majority cultures and linguistic groups The focus of the book is on the social and cultural contexts in which literacy develops and is enacted with an emphasis on the North American situation Educators and researchers are discovering that cognitive approaches while very valuable are insufficient by themselves to answer important questions about literacy in heterogeneous societies By considering the implications of family school culture society and nation for literary processes the book answers the following questions In a multi ethnic context what does it mean to be literate What are the processes involved in becoming and being literate in a second language In what ways is literacy in a second language similar and in what ways is it different from mother tongue literacy What factors must be understood to better describe and facilitate literacy acquisition among members of ethnic and linguistic minorities What are some current approaches that are being used to accomplish this These are vital questions for researchers and educators in a world that has a large number of immigrants a variety of multi ethnic and multi lingual societies and an increasing degree of multinational activity Beyond addressing applied concerns attending to these questions can provide new insights into basic aspects of literacy God's Image and Global Cultures Kenneth Nehrbass, 2016-08-26 Globalization has raised numerous questions about theology and culture for Christians How should we respond to outsourcing and immigration How does anti Western sentiment affect the proclamation of the gospel What is the role of the church in society This book argues that Christians will be most fulfilled and most effective if they embrace their cultural activity rather than feel ambivalent about it The central question of this book is how does bearing God's image relate to cultural activity Nehrbass explains that spheres of culture such as political technological and social structures are systems that God has instilled in humans as his image bearers so that they can glorify and enjoy him forever Therefore a theology of culture involves recognizing that the kingdom of God encompasses heaven and Earth rather than pitting heaven against Earth The text surveys anthropological explanations for humanity's dependence on culture and shows that each explanation provides only partial explanatory scope The most satisfying explanation is that a major functional aspect of bearing God's image is engaging in culture since the Trinity has been eternally engaged in cultural functions like ruling communicating and creating Each chapter contains a summary and questions about what it means to be a world changer in the twenty first century Encyclopedia of Bilingual Education Josue M. Gonzalez, 2008-06-05 The book is arranged alphabetically from Academic English to Zelasko Nancy Developing Cross-cultural Competence Eleanor W. Lynch, Marci J.
