Goodeve,1926 Faith Formation in a Secular Age : Volume 1 (Ministry in a Secular Age) Andrew Root,2017-10-03 The loss or disaffiliation of young adults is a much discussed topic in churches today Many faith formation programs focus on keeping the young believing the youthful spirit will save the church But do these programs have more to do with an obsession with youthfulness than with helping young people encounter the living God Questioning the search for new or improved faith formation programs leading practical theologian Andrew Root offers an alternative take on the issue of youth drifting away from the church and articulates how faith can be formed in our secular age He offers a theology of faith constructed from a rich cultural conversation providing a deeper understanding of the phenomena of the nones and moralistic therapeutic deism Root helps readers understand why forming faith is so hard in our context and shows that what we have lost is not the ability to keep people connected to our churches but an imagination for how and where God could be present in their lives He considers what faith is and what steps we can take to move into it exploring a Pauline concept of faith as encounter with divine action

Liberal Faith Alfred Porter Putnam,1875 Reasonable Faith for a Post-Secular Age William Greenway,2020-12-16 Our global community desperately needs overt awakening to an age of reason and faith Reasonable Faith for a Post Secular Age meets this need by interpreting faith not in terms of belief in propositions but in terms of living surrender to having been seized by agape for every Face including one's own. Virtually all faith traditions from Buddhism to Humanism to Wiccan are rooted in agape and therefore share considerable spiritual and ethical common ground, a truth long veiled. In contrast to ethically feckless secular rationality over which a devastating global social Darwinism currently runs roughshod, faith qua living surrender to agape grounds moral realism, awakens us to love for all creatures and inspires struggles for justice. Inspired by the philosophy of Emmanuel Levinas and Christian spirituality, Greenway engages on the one hand intellectuals like Stanley Hauerwas, Richard Rorty, Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak, Jeffery Stout, Charles Taylor, and Bernard Williams, and on the other contemporary debates over consciousness, free will, evil, and metaethics. He details the character of secular rationality's devastating scission from moral reality and clarifies the promise of understanding faith and spirituality in terms of agape.
