

Crossing the Peninsula & Other Poems

An abstract painting in a style reminiscent of Vincent van Gogh, featuring a ship with a prominent orange and yellow hull and a dark, patterned upper section. The ship is depicted on a dark, textured sea under a turbulent sky with swirling reds, oranges, and blues. The overall composition is dynamic and expressive, with visible brushstrokes and a rich, warm color palette.

Crossing The Peninsula And Other Poems:

Crossing the Peninsula & Other Poems Shirley Lim, 1980 Two Dreams Shirley Geok-lin Lim, 2018-08-01 Two Dreams draws together the best of Shirley Geok lin Lim s short fiction from nearly three decades most of it never before available in the United States and includes important new work The setting of these sometimes wryly funny sometimes heartbreaking stories shifts from the war torn tradition bound Malaysia of Lim s childhood to the liberating but confusing and often harsh United States of her adulthood Her memory is undiluted by nostalgia her ear is perfectly tuned to the voices of both her old country and her new and her eye is sharp to the special dilemmas faced by girls and women Asian American Poets Guiyou Huang, 2002-05-30 Even though Asian American literature is enjoying an impressive critical popularity attention has focused primarily on longer narrative forms such as the novel And despite the proliferation of a large number of poets of Asian descent in the 20th century Asian American poetry remains a neglected area of study Poetry as an elite genre has not reached the level of popularity of the novel or short story partly due to the difficulties of reading and interpreting poetic texts The lack of criticism on Asian American poetry speaks to the urgent need for scholarship in this area since perhaps more than any other genre poetry most forcefully captures the intense feelings and emotions that Asian Americans have experienced about themselves and their world This reference book overviews the tremendous cultural contributions of Asian American poets Included are alphabetically arranged entries on 48 American poets of Asian descent most of whom have been active during the latter half of the 20th century Each entry begins with a short biography which sometimes includes information drawn from personal interviews The entries then discuss the poet s major works and themes including such concerns as family racism sexism identity language and politics A survey of the poet s critical reception follows In many cases the existing criticism is scant and the entries offer new readings of neglected works The entries conclude with bibliographies of primary and secondary texts and the volume closes with a selected general bibliography The Forbidden Stitch Shirley Lim, Mayumi Tsutakawa, Margarita Donnelly, 1989 This first U S anthology of work by Asian American women contains poetry prose and graphic art and a section of reviews of previously published literature These women in contrast to their foremothers repeatedly identify themselves through their art Very often they do this by showing who they are not not male not white The works reveal their pride in their cultural heritage ISBN 0 934971 10 2 In Praise of Limes Shirley Geok-lin Lim, 2022-03 In Praise of Limes is a book of original poems by Shirley Geok lin Lim Born in Malacca Malaysia Shirley Geok lin Lim was raised by her Chinese father and attended missionary schools Although her first languages were Malay and the Hokkien dialect of Chinese she was able to read English by the time she was six At 10 her first poem was published in the Malacca Times by age 11 she knew she wanted to be a poet She earned her BA from the University of Malaya and her PhD from Brandeis University Lim considers herself primarily a poet although she has also written books of short stories criticism a novel and a memoir Her debut collection Crossing the Peninsula and Other Poems 1980 won the Commonwealth Poetry

Prize a first for a woman or a person from Asia Her other collections include Ars Poetica for the Day 2015 The Irreversible Sun 2015 Do You Live In 2015 and Embracing the Angel Hong Kong Poems 2014 Her many awards and honors include a Fulbright Distinguished Lecturer award two American Book Awards and the Society for the Study of Multi Ethnic Literature of the United States Lifetime Achievement Award Lim was a professor of English and chair of the Women s Studies department at the University of California Santa Barbara She retired in 2012 after more than a decade of service to the school

Southeast Asian Personalities of Chinese Descent Leo Suryadinata,2012 This is a bold project recording the lives of a particular group of Southeast Asians Most of the people whose biographies are included here have settled down in the ten countries that constitute the region Each of them has either self identified as Chinese or is comfortable to be known as someone of Chinese ancestry There are also those who were born in China or elsewhere who came here to work and do business including seeking help from others who have ethnic Chinese connections With the political and economic conditions of the region in a great state of flux for the past two centuries it is impossible to find consistency in the naming process Confucius had stressed that correct names make for the best relationships In this case Professor Leo Suryadinata has been pursuing for decades the elusive goal of finding the right name to give to the large numbers of people who have in one way or another made their homes in or made some difference to Southeast Asia I believe that when he and his colleagues selected the biographies to be included here they have taken a big step towards the rectification of identities for many leading personalities In so doing he has done us all a great service Professor Wang Gungwu National University of Singapore
