Rosoff, Stephanie Spencer, 2019-02-25 This book examines school and college fiction for girls in Britain and the United States written in the first half of the twentieth century to explore the formation and ideologies of feminine identity Nancy G Rosoff and Stephanie Spencer develop a transnational framework that recognises how both constructed and essential femininities transcend national boundaries The book discusses the significance and performance of female friendship across time and place which is central to the development of the genre and how it functioned as an important means of informal education Stories by Jessie Graham Flower Pauline Lester Alice Ross Colver Elinor Brent Dyer and Dorita Fairlie Bruce are set within their historical context and then used to explore aspects of sociability authority responsibility domesticity and possibility The distinctiveness of this book stems from the historical analysis of these sources which have so far primarily been treated by literary scholars within their national context Winner of the History of Education Society Anne Bloomfield Prize for the best book on history of education published in English 2017 19 Children's Fiction 1900-1950 John Cooper, 2019-07-23 First published in 1998 this volume explores how the genre of school stories had become firmly established by the turn of the twentieth century having been built on the foundations laid by writers such as Thomas Hughes and F W Farrar Stories for girls were also taking on a more exciting complexion inspired by the Katy books of Susan Coolidge The first five decades of the twentieth century saw further developments in children's fiction In this comprehensive volume John and Jonathan Cooper examine each decade in turn with alphabetically arranged entries on popular children's writers that published works in English during that period 206 different authors are covered many from the United States and Canada Each entry provides information on the author's pseudonyms date of birth nationality titles of works place and date of publication and the publisher's name The artist responsible for a book's illustrations is also identified where possible With over 200 illustrations of cover designs and dustwrappers many of which are now rare and have never before been published this book will delight collectors dealers scholars librarians parents and all those who simply enjoy reading children's fiction The English Catalogue of Books Sampson Low, 1926 Volumes for 1898 1968 include a directory of publishers The English Catalogue of Books Published from January, 1835, to January, 1863, 1864 The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record, 1929 Dimsie Moves Up Again, Etc Dorita Fairlie Bruce, 1922 The Nation and Athenæum, 1923 The English Catalogue of Books, 1936 Current Literature, 1928 From Morality to Mayhem Julian Lovelock, 2018-10-25 The stories we read as children are the ones that stay with us the longest and from the nineteenth century until the 1950s stories about schools held a particular fascination Many will remember the goings on at such earnest establishments as Tom Brown's Rugby St Dominic's Greyfriars the Chalet School Malory Towers and Linbury Court In the second part of the twentieth century with more liberal social attitudes and the advent of secondary education for all these moral tales lost their appeal and the school story very nearly died out More recently however a new generation of compromised schoolboy and schoolgirl heroes Pennington Tyke Tiler Harry Potter and Millie Roads have given it a new and challenging relevance Focusing mainly on novels written for young people From Morality to Mayhem charts the fall and rise of the school story from the grim accounts of Victorian times to the magic and mayhem of our own age In doing so it considers how fictional schools not only reflect but sometimes influence real life This captivating study will appeal to those interested in children s literature and education both students and the general reader taking us on a not altogether comfortable trip down memory lane
