Dimsum Asias Literary Journal Volume 10 Spring:

Boy in the Twilight Yu Hua, 2014-10-07 Yu Hua's populist voice and exquisite wit have made him one of the most celebrated and bestselling writers in China. These visceral flawlessly crafted stories explore the line between cruelty and warmth on which his country is precariously balanced. In the title story a shopkeeper confronts a child thief and punishes him without mercy. Victory shows a young couple shaken by the husband's infidelity each scrambling to stake claims to the components of their shared life. Other tales show by turns two factory workers who spoil their only son, a gang of townsfolk who bully an innocent orphan, and a spectacular fistfight outside a refinery bathhouse. Taken together these stories form a snapshot of a nation lit with the deep feeling and ready humor that characterize its people. A sensation in Asia, Boy in the Twilight affirms Yu Hua's place at the very forefront of literary fiction. New York Magazine, 1992-05-04 New York Magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country.
