Directed By Andrei Tarkovsky:

Solaris, directed by Andrei Tarkovsky Nicolae Sfetcu, 2019-05-07 About the main psychological and philosophical aspects detached from the film Solaris directed by Andrei Tarkovski as well as the cinema techniques used by the director to convey his messages to the spectator In the Introduction I briefly present the relevant elements of Tarkovsky's biography and an overview of Stanislaw Lem's Solaris novel and the film Solaris directed by Andrei Tarkovsky In Cinema Technique I talk about the specific rhythm of the scenes the radical movement triggered by Tarkovsky in modern cinema the role of symbolic and iconic elements and affinities with the fantastic area of Russian literature In Psychological Aspects I analyze the issue of communication in a human society of the future considered by Tarkovsky as rigid the obsession of the house and the personal evolution of Kris Hari and the relationships between them In Philosophical Aspects the film is analyzed through the philosophy of the mind Cartesian dualism reductionism and functionalism the problem of personal identity the theory of heterotopic spaces developed by Michel Foucault and the semantic interpretations that can be deduced from the film It also analyzes the issue of personal identity through Locke's philosophy Conclusions show the general ideas of this essay namely that Man's attempts to classify and maintain forms of interaction with unknown entities will always be condemned to failure and will reflect a major mistake in the panoptic world in which we live In this framework of analysis of the philosophy of mind functionalism seems to be the most intuitive Solaris is however a movie that begins as a search for answers and comes to provide these answers with a whole range of different questions CONTENTS Abstract Introduction 1 Cinema technique 2 Psychological Aspects 3 Philosophical aspects Conclusions Bibliography Notes DOI 10.13140/RG.2.2.28635.82723 Andrei Tarkovsky Lyudmila Boyadzhieva, 2018-01-01 Andrei Tarkovsky died in a Paris hospital in 1986 aged just 54 An internationally acclaimed icon of the film industry the legacy Tarkovsky left for his fans included Andrei Rublev Stalker Nostalgia and a host of other brilliant works In the Soviet Union however Tarkovsky was a persona non grata Longing to be accepted in his homeland Tarkovsky distanced himself from all forms of political and social engagement yet endured one fiasco after another in his relations with the Soviet regime The Soviet authorities regarded the law-abiding ideologically moderate Tarkovsky as an outsider and a nuisance due to his impenetrable personal nature The documentary novel A Life on the Cross provides a unique insight into the life of Andrei Tarkovsky the infamous film director and a man whose life was by no means free of unedifying behaviour and errors of judgement Lyudmila Boyadzhieva sets out to reveal his innate talent and explain why the cost of such talent can sometimes be life itself Cinemas Dark and Slow in Digital India Lalitha Gopalan, 2021-02-12 This book provides a sustained engagement with contemporary Indian feature films from outside the mainstream including Aaranaya Kaandam I D Kaul Chauthi Koot Cosmic Sex and Gaali Beeja to undercut the dominance of Bollywood-focused film studies Gopalan assembles films from Bangalore Chennai Delhi Kolkata and Trivandrum in addition to independent productions in Bombay cinema as a way of privileging understudied works that deserve critical attention The book uses close readings of films and a deep investigation of film style to draw attention to the advent of digital technologies while remaining fully cognizant of the digital as a cryptic formulation for considering the sea change in the global circulation of film and finance This dual focus on both the techno material conditions of Indian cinema and the film narrative offers a fulsome picture of changing narratives and shifting genres and styles

Conditions of Violence Christian Gerlach, 2024-11-04 Mass violence comes not only from states but also from people By analyzing mass violence as social interaction through survivor accounts and other sources this book presents understudied agents aims and practices of direct violence and ways of action of those under persecution Sound history examining the noises of mass violence and persecution is particularly telling about such practices This volume shows that violence can become socially hegemonic and some people claim a freedom to kill as a political right To scrutinize indirect violence which is often imperialist in character and claims many victims the book proposes the concept of conditions of violence These conditions are produced by definable groups of actors and foreseeably harm definable groups which differs from the anonymous and static structural violence This is exemplified in a case study concerning famines in World War II and another on COVID 19 as mass violence Less global in character other case studies in this volume deal with Rwanda Bangladesh East Pakistan and the Soviet Union

Philosophical Perspective on Cinema Pedro Blas González, 2022-05-17 The main premise of Philosophical Perspective on Cinema is simple Can a visual medium such as cinema put in greater perspective diverse aspects of human experience Films are usually sorted by genres but by applying metaphysical existential categories to cinema the author enables readers to reflect on the nature and essence of existence by making life appear less transparent to itself Undoubtedly the connection between sensual reality and philosophical reflection is often glossed over when the emphasis is placed on theoretical abstractions and not life itself While this work is a reflection on the philosophy of existence the author embraces a practical approach to the metaphysical existential foundation of human existence
