The Discippler's Commentary William Walthall, 2017-09-14 There are many commentaries on the Gospel of Luke and all are quite fine Each commentary has its own particular slant conservative or liberal Catholic or Protestant Evangelical or Charismatic Some commentaries take an academic approach others aim to be practical And there are now many study Bibles which contain their own commentaries presented primarily as footnotes There are even study Bibles that attempt to emphasize the concept of application The purpose of this commentary is to serve as a tool for discipleship How can a Christian's faith be built apart from the knowledge of God's word The answer is It can't This commentary provides a tool for building faith with the goal of changed values changed relationships changed character and changed behavior But the goal of our instruction is love from a pure heart and a good conscience and a sincere faith 1 Tim 1 5 This commentary and its accompanying workbook can be used by an individual by someone who is discipling another person one on one or by small groups such as Sunday school classes home Bible studies or discipleship groups In addition to the commentary itself thought provoking questions are provided for discussion and fill in the blank outlines are available for individuals or groups The outlines are useful primarily for the transfer of information and knowledge about the chapter being studied They provide an overview of the contents of the chapter with a few practical implications presented in order to apply personally the scriptural lessons in the text The study questions are geared more in the direction of increasing critical thinking skills about the lessons from the text and stimulating thinking about how to apply the scriptural lessons to one's life values and relationships In short the purpose of this commentary is to make disciples who understand the teachings of Scripture and process those teachings in such a manner that values behaviors and relationships are transformed consistent with the word of God Only then does one become a true disciple of Jesus Christ
